

IDENTIFY VICTIMS OF DISASTER

CHURCH BUILT IN 1538
DESTROYED BY MILITANTS

Arson Squad Wrecks Historic Parish Church of St. Mary's, Wargrave—Monument of Thos. Day Ruined—Fire Mansion in Windsor

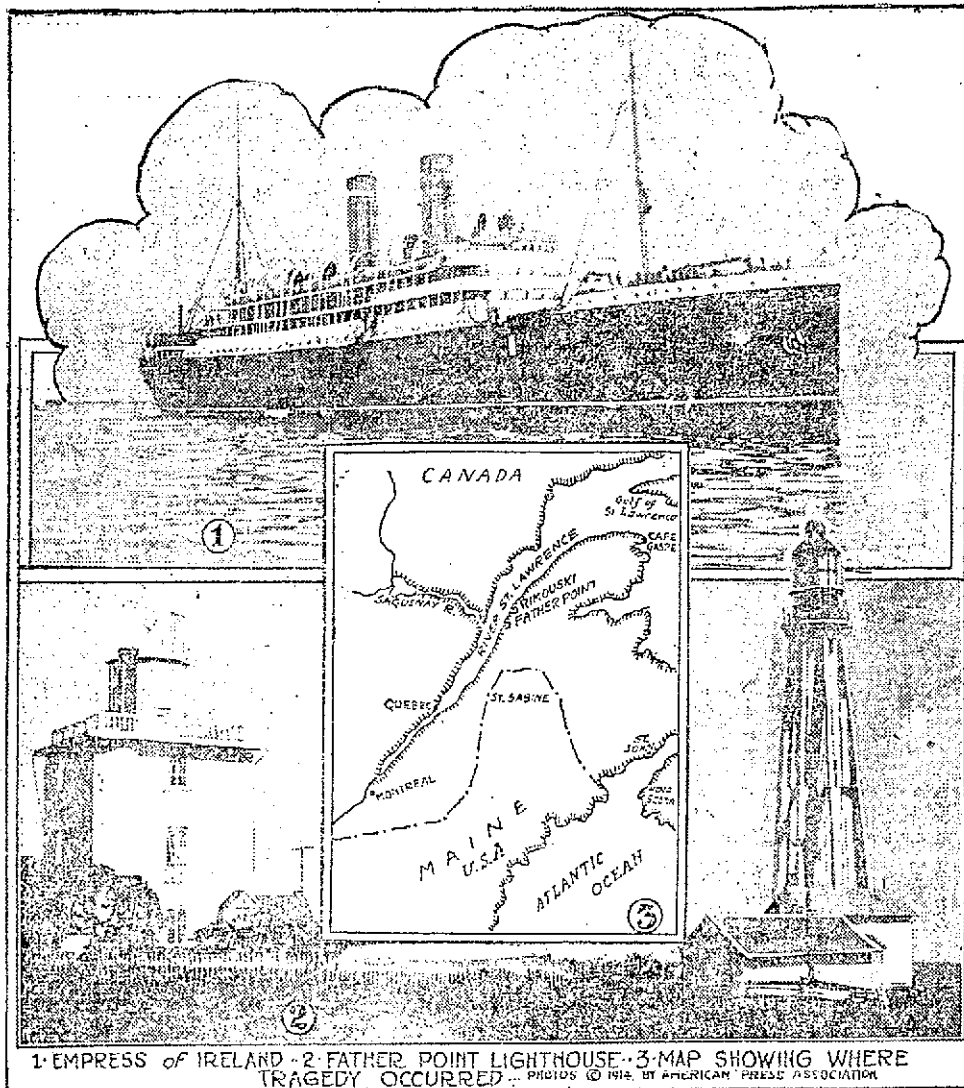

HENLEY, England, June 1.—An arson squad of militant suffragettes today destroyed by fire the historic parish church of St. Mary's, Wargrave, three miles from here on the Thames. All that remains of the church, which was built in 1538, is a portion of the lower and the scorched stone walls.

Inside the building was a monument to Thomas Day, author of "Sandford and Merton."

Two strange women were seen in the neighborhood early in the morning and just inside the ruins the firemen found a hammer and a heap of suffrage literature with a paper on which was written "Stop Persecuting Women."

MANSION DESTROYED
WINDSOR, England June 2.—Another fire whose origin is attributed by the authorities to the wild women today destroyed a mansion near here which was formerly the residence of the Duchess of Sutherland.

THOROUGH INVESTIGATION INTO SINKING OF EMPRESS OF IRELAND

1-EMPRESS OF IRELAND-2-FATHER POINT LIGHTHOUSE-3-MAP SHOWING WHERE TRAGEDY OCCURRED—PHOTOS BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

British and Canadian Governments
Cooperate to Fix Responsibility—Inquiry by Royal Commission on June 8—100 of 188 Bodies at Quebec Identified

OTTAWA, Ont., June 1.—The British and Canadian governments are cooperating to make the most thorough possible investigation into the sinking of the steamer Empress of Ireland.

The disaster will be inquired into by a royal commission of three. The British government has appointed George Vaux as its representative. He has already sailed from England and will reach Montreal June 8 when the inquiry will be commenced. The other two members of the commission will be judges of the Canadian admiralty court.

While the commission is organizing, Captain Lindsay, the wreck commissioner of the government, is carrying on a preliminary investigation preparing evidence and getting the case ready as far as possible. All the passengers who were saved will be summoned to give evidence under oath before Captain Lindsay and officers and members of the Empress and the collier which sent her to the bottom will be examined.

The royal commission will report upon what measures should be taken to make navigation in the narrow waters of the St. Lawrence more secure and whether there should be a revision of the rules which now govern shipping.

BODIES OF 25 BABIES
On the wharf, as the ship docked, was a throng of officials, newspapermen, photographers and moving picture men while outside a sorrowing crowd awaited admittance to search for their dead. A number of survivors of the disaster were in the crowd hoping to find the bodies of loved ones they had lost when the steamer went down.

In a section in a shed by 25 little white caskets containing the bodies of babies and small children.

A force of men is patrolling both sides of the St. Lawrence river for miles, searching for bodies, but thus far with little success. Many boats are hovering on the river with the same purpose in view.

WRIT SERVED ON STORSTAD WHICH SANK EMPRESS

MONTREAL, June 1.—The collier Storstad, which rammed the liner Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence near Father Point Friday morning, reached here yesterday afternoon under her own steam.

Contrary to the stories which have been received of her condition, she was very little injured. Her stem was bent back for over a dozen feet high above the water line, but she stood up straight. She has about 11,000 tons of coal on board.

Only a few officials were allowed to board her.

As soon as the vessel tied up, a writ obtained by the Canadian Pacific Railway claiming $2,000,000 in the Quebec admiralty court was served on Capt. Anderson and the Storstad was placed under detention.

Wear Glasses
FITTED BY
EVERETT R. MERRILL

OPTOMETRIST & OPTICIAN
137 Merrimack St. Up One Flight
Gold Filled Glasses at $3.00

ELCHO
10-CENT CIGAR

HON. JOHN F. FITZGERALD Says:
"The Elcho Cigar is the best 10-cent cigar in New England because it is a pleasant blend of choice Havana and Sumatra leaf."

DRUSCOLI & FITZGERALD
Mfrs. Boston

First Edition

FOR LATER LOCAL AND TELEGRAPHIC NEWS AND TODAY'S STOCK MARKET REPORT SEE LATER EDITIONS

RUMORED TRANSFER OF
BIGELOW CARPET MILLS

The Hartford Carpet Corporation the Alleged Purchaser—The Stock Has Recently Jumped From 155 to 186—The Connecticut Story

Rumor has it that the Hartford Carpet corporation has purchased the immense plants of the Bigelow Carpet Co., in this city and Clinton. Judging from the reports from the different quarters interested there would seem to be considerable foundation in fact for the rumor. H. G. Watley, agent of the Bigelow Carpet Co., in this city, admits that there are many rumors current but he could not state that they were true.

It is stated, however, and has not been denied, that General Manager Alvin D. Higgins, Supt. Charles L. Wilson, Purchasing Agent H. B. Brainerd, Traffic Manager Julius Roth and 15 expert carpet men of the Hartford Carpet corporation, have been in Lowell for the past few days engaged in taking inventory.

The general expectation is, that the contemplated deal will be consummated. James M. Abbott, banker and dealer in stocks and bonds, with offices in the Wyman Exchange building, said he had heard rumors of the transaction, had received several telephone calls from Boston concerning it, but was not in a position to verify it. He said that 186 is bid on Bigelow Carpet stock as against 155 three months ago or before the death of Agent Fairbanks. "I think it will be very difficult," said Mr. Abbott, "for the Bigelow Carpet Co. to find a man to fill Mr. Fairbanks' shoes and the deal as contemplated I think would be a good thing all around."

From Connecticut
The following story concerning the reported purchase comes from Thompsonville, Ct.

While it was impossible here today to secure confirmation of a report that the Hartford Carpet corporation of this place had completed a deal for the purchase of the large Bigelow carpet manufacturing plant in Clinton and Lowell.

Continued to page three

FUNERAL NOTICES

HARRIS—Died in this city, May 30th, very suddenly, Mrs. Thelma L. Harris, aged 77 years, 6 months and 5 days, at the home of her son, Henry J. Harris, 33 Eleventh street. She is also survived by one other son, Dr. Charles F. Harris. Funeral services will be held at 93 Eleventh street on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends are invited with a Partner notice. Kindly omit no Partner notice will take place at Mr. Auburn crematorium. Arrangements are made to $1.98.

BRADY—The funeral will take place in the Branch street at 8 o'clock from a mass of requiem will be Patrick's church. In Patrick's cemetery. In P. O'Donnell & Sons. See death notice on the last page of this paper.

Washington
Savings
Institution

267 CENTRAL ST.

Bank Incorporated 1892
Under the Massachusetts
Savings Bank Laws.

Saturday being a legal holiday, we will be closed all day, but will be open TONIGHT FROM 7 to 9 P. M., to receive deposits and make payments to our many depositors, and we welcome any new accounts. If you have no bank account, start one with us, no matter how small.

For 65 Years
City Institution for Savings
LOWELL, MASS.
Never paid less than 4%
Interest Begins July 11
CENTRAL STREET

MOTH BAGS
LEFT VAL OF-"MUCKING"
50c and 90c IR PAY
DOWS, DRUGG—Assenting
Merrimack 200, Carey of nearly SPs annually withurn to the governative Bitten of Ila introduces a bill to the secretary of the service of off-
"plucked." Rep-who is conducting to eliminate the says it is not d unnecessary, the govern-officers at ay those d the ovides n the draw
50c

THE LOWELL FIVE CENT SAVINGS BANK
ESTABLISHED 1864

The first dividend in liquidation is now being paid by the Traders National Bank.

Those in receipt of this dividend are invited to open an account in The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank, Corner of John and Merrimack streets.

Deposits placed on interest the first Saturday of July.

Deposits over $5,000.00. Surplus and interest over $470,000.

AUSTIN K. CHADWICK, President, CHARLES A. RICHARDSON, Treas.

FOR SALE
UNITED FRUIT CO. 5 PER CENT. NOTES

$100—$500—$1000

At 99 1/4, to net 5.20 per cent.

NORTHERN ELECTRIC CO.

5 PER CENT. BONDS

$100—$500—$1000

At 95, to net 5.35 per cent.

NIAGARA, LOCKPORT & ONTARIO POWER CO. 5 PER CENT. BONDS

At 95, to net 5.30 per cent.

AMERICAN TEL. & TEL. CO. 5 PER CENT. SAVINGS BANK BONDS

At 99 1/4, to net 4.70 per cent.

HARVARD BREWERY STOCK

To net over 7 1/2 per cent.

And a New Tax-Exempt Preferred

To net 7 per cent.

OLIVER STEVENS

34 Central Block.

Telephone 2840.

TUBERCULOSIS
CAMP OPENS

The tuberculosis camp of the Lowell General Hospital opens Wednesday next, June 3rd. A special examination for entrance to the camp will be held tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock. Hereafter, there will be an examination every Thursday morning at eleven o'clock until all vacancies are filled.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE
MASS MEETING

ASSOCIATE HALL,

Tomorrow Night, 7.45

Hear Mrs. Teresa Crowley, Mrs. Maud Wood Park, Mrs. Winona H. Pinkham and other notable speakers.

MEN ESPECIALLY URGED TO ATTEND.

Cameras and Supplies

Quick and best service for your developing and printing.

FILMS DEVELOPED, 5 CENTS A ROLL

J. A. McEvoy

— OPTICIAN —

From Official Figures

Taken from the last report of the Bank Commissioner, the

MERRIMACK RIVER SAVINGS BANK

417 MIDDLESEX STREET,

Shows the

LARGEST SURPLUS

In proportion to its deposits of any savings bank in Lowell.

October 31, 1913:

Deposits $2,832,785

Surplus 252,301

Per Cent. of Surplus 8.90

The past six months show a substantial increase over these figures. All new accounts are welcome and forner

TRADERS BANK DEPOSITORS

Will find this Bank a particularly desirable one in which to deposit their dividend.

Established 1871—43 years of successful business.

Present Rate 4%

N. G. LAMSON, President,

F. E. JOHNSON, Treasurer.

ARE YOU AWARE

THAT THE

MECHANICS SAVINGS BANK

202 Merrimack St.

Is the only Savings Bank in Lowell where money deposited now will draw interest from June 6th.

Present Rate 4%

A. G. CUMMICK, Pres.

C. H. CLOSTON, Treas.

CHALIFOUX CORNER

We run "A Complete Men's Clothing Store": always did, always will—a store where a man can choose a suit, a coat, a raincoat, a pair of pants, a hat, a tie, a collar, a pair of shoes, a pair of suspenders, a shirt, a pair of socks, a belt, an umbrella,—anything a man need in the clothing line, and you don't have to pay us outlandish prices for the things you buy here. We are out for volume of business; our object is to sell you something that will make you want to come again. Try our goods—they're great—best for the money you ever saw.

Chalifoux's

BUNTING ATHLETIC MEET

CAPT. PHILIP MCNULTY
President

FRED HUMPHRIES
Of Athletic Committee

Best Ever Held in Lowell—Marathon Seen by 25,000—Duffy Won Ten Mile Handicap Race

Jim Duffy, the Sligo runner, now residing at Hamilton, Ontario, lived up to his reputation as the world's greatest long-distance runner Saturday afternoon when at the formal opening of the new Bunting Cricket Club park, he easily won his heels to Fred Fuller and Toi Lilley of the North Dorchester A. C. in a special ten mile handicap race. Beating Fuller a quarter of a mile and Lilley 600 yards, Duffy cantered past the post in 57.26. The Marathon champion had given Fuller a start of 350 yards and Lilley one of 220. Lilley was a member of the last American Olympic team and a year ago finished third in the Boston Marathon. Fuller is a distance runner of note. The air was exceedingly sultry and the track somewhat soft when the starter sent the men away. With the flash of the pistol Duffy bounded away and shot after Lilley, the nearer man before the 10 minutes and 30 seconds in which he completed the first mile had elapsed he had compressed the distance between himself and Lilley materially. Duffy after his first mile up space and after having covered three miles was running shoulder to shoulder with the Olympic athlete. Soon he was a stride ahead, then another, and finally left Lilley far in the rear.

During the progress of this athletic duel the crowd had a splendid opportunity of sizing up the famous Irish Canadian. He was the personification of speed and endurance. Like a finely adjusted piece of mechanism, with a rhythmic lunge and with head as erect as that of a thoroughbred, he raced around the five lap track, never faltering for an instant. His dark hair, flashing black eyes and bronzed skin, contrasted with the white, green-trimmed athletic suit with its resplendent maple leaf upon the breast. It would require but little imagination to set the young Irishman in another age and another civilization and to see in him one of the ancient Olympians whom the ancient Greek historians have immortalized.

While the packed stands and grounds were urging Duffy on, Fuller running with rare judgment, was being pulled along by Lilley, who, a few steps in front, catered to the spectators. The unadmitted it was evident that the two Bostonians were working together in an effort to defeat the youngster from the land of the shamrock and of the maple leaf. Duffy, however, leaped along and was content to take things easy and give the crowd an exciting race. He did not wait for two miles to go, Duffy started to really run. Faster and faster flew his legs, nearer and nearer drew Fuller and Lilley. As he raced after the Bostonians Duffy seemed to be possessed of the stride of the gentleman with the seven leagued foot. With more than a half a mile still to go he tore along like a greyhound, dashed by the tired Boston twin and cantered smilingly around the oval to an easy finish.

The Irish Canadian flyer apparently has a predilection for winning races on Decoration day for it was on that day of last year that in a temperature of 95 in the shade and in intense humidity he easily defeated a field of over one hundred New York athletes in the great Yonkers A. C. Marathon of that city.

25,000 Saw Marathon

Festus J. Madden, another Irishman but from South Boston, won the 13-mile Marathon race from Lawrence to Lowell without encountering any serious opposition. His time was 1 hour, 20 minutes and 42 seconds. Arthur B. Roth of Dorchester was second and Roy Davis of Exeter, N. H., third. The finishing of none of these men, however, excited the interest of the crowd as much as that of Billy Salmon, a 52-year-old runner, who captured sixth prize and was the second local man to finish. The gray haired runner received a vociferous welcome as he entered the grounds and when he finished he was enthusiastically congratulated by Jim Duffy, the Marathon champion, on his remarkable showing. All the other runners finished strong and in good condition. Their names and positions follow:

Fourth—F. Barnaby, Methuen.
Fifth—Albert Nebes, Lowell.
Seventh—Fred Couture, Lowell.
Eighth—John O'Neill, Forge Village.
Ninth—James F. Carr, Lowell.
Tenth—George McAlpin, Methuen.
Eleventh—George Goddard, Lowell.
Twelfth—Richard Hayes, Salem.
Thirteenth—John N. Barnaby, Methuen.
Fourteenth—Herbert Dennett, Lowell.
Fifteenth—William Groves, Forge Village.

Twenty-five thousand people, scattered between the Bunting park and the Lawrence road, saw the Marathon runners toil over the 13-mile distance. Twenty runners started. From the crack of the pistol Madden led the field with Roth, Davis and Ticoni of Lawrence well up at five miles. Following these were Couture of Lowell, Wick, Barnaby, Salmon and Nebes of Lowell, McAlpin, Goddard, Carr of Lowell, O'Neill and Groves of Forge Village and Hayes, Snelder and Dennett of Lowell. When Stanley's horse in sight a light rain pattered the ground and made running much less exhausting. At the first street hill Madden was leading Roth by a comfortable distance, with Davis third. Ticoni had dropped out. As Madden entered through Merrimack square past The Sun office, he was given a great cheer by about 2000 people in the vicinity. He smiled and plucked forward. Up the long hill on Central street the young Irishman toiled and then jogged with easy stride into Lawrence street. A victory in collecting thoroughfare and from every house he was given enthusiastic welcome. Madden entered the Bunting grounds with a lead of 200 yards over Roth and another 200 over Davis. This he kept until he crossed the tape. Roth was a very tired boy on finishing, having nothing left but his indomitable grit.

The Track Events

The results of the track events follow:

One mile handicap—Won by Spencer, North Reading; 2nd, McNeely, Boston; 3rd, Stuart Dickson, Lowell.

220 yards hurdle—Won by W. H. Meaux, B. A. A.; 2nd, A. M. Bowser, Lynn; 3rd, Cecil Dodge, Lowell.

Two yards hurdle—Won by W. H. Meaux, Boston A. A.; 2nd, George Nicholson, Methuen; 3rd, George C. Libbee, Lowell high school.

50 yards sack race—Won by George Nicholson, Methuen; 2nd, Thomas L. Hartley, Lowell; 3rd, R. B. Greene, Duxbury, Mass.

One mile relay—Won by B. A. A. team; 2nd, Lowell picked team; 3rd, Lawrence picked team.

Mr. Thomas Thompson, trainer of Jim Duffy, was invited by the Bunting club to act as official judge. The work was not new to Mr. Thompson, who is an old-time athlete himself.

Mayor Murphy Presented Prizes

Mayor Murphy presented the prizes to Duffy, Madden and the other winners and place-getters. His Honor congratulated Duffy and the other athletes on their victories and expressed the hope that they would win many more. Besides the mayor, Commissioners George H. Brown, Charles J. Morse, James E. Donnelly and James H. Carmichael were present.

High Praise for Bunting

In the opinion of Jim Duffy, who has completed the most successful season in the world's largest athletic meet, that conducted by the Bunting Cricket & Athletic association was one of which the people of Lowell should be proud. Such, too, was the opinion of Mr. Thompson, his trainer, and of Madden and all the other athletes who can appreciate a well conducted athletic meet. The prizes were of far greater value than those given by the average athletic club and were even openers to the visiting Boston athletes. As an athletic field, the grounds "The Bunting" pulled off the biggest athletic meet this Decoration day that has ever been attempted in Lowell.

Welcome to Duffy

Jim Duffy, the world's champion marathoner from Hamilton, Ont., who he decisively won the ten-mile handicap race at the Bunting park Saturday afternoon was welcomed to Lowell Friday night by Mayor Dennis J. Murphy and Commissioners Morse and Brown. The reception was held in the parlors of the New American hotel.

In a short address Mayor Murphy congratulated Mr. Duffy on his wonderful success as an athlete and he also spoke in a most complimentary manner about the good work being done by the members of the Bunting club. At the conclusion of this, Mr. Duffy was presented to the large gathering, thanking them for their kind expressions, and shook hands with all.

After the gathering had dispersed he and his trainer, Mr. Thompson with some friends, were the guests of Keith's theatre. Friday afternoon the marathon champion and Mr. Thompson took in the New England league game at Spalding park and were shown every courtesy by Managers Gray and Burkett. Duffy, who is a ball player of no mean ability himself, enjoyed the game immensely and had much to say in commendation of the work of the local players. Saturday morning he and Mr. Thompson looked over the athletes at the Y. M. C. A. games on the South common, both gentlemen being warm in their praises of the work of instilling a love for athletics into the younger generation. It was at a set of such games as these, Mr. Duffy said, that he first realized he had some capabilities as an athlete.

After winning the ten-mile race Mr. Duffy and his friends were the guests of Mr. Thomas Hoban of the Richardson hotel. In his large touring car, Mr. Hoban showed the party all of the attractive spots of Lowell, so that when the visitors return to Canada they will tell their friends of the beauty of the Spindle City and its environs and of the hospitality of its people.

BUNTING NOTES

After the sports Jimmie Duffy and his manager, Mr. Thompson, were the guests of Proprietor Thomas F. Hoban, at the Richardson hotel. They left for Boston on an early evening train, returning direct to Hamilton, as Duffy is to run in a five-mile race at Kingston, Ont., on Wednesday.

It wouldn't have been a Bunting affair without Sam Dean on deck. Sam is a most energetic worker.

The water department auto containing Commissioner Carmichael and others struck a small boy and knocked him over. Fortunately the machine was going at a snail's pace and the youngster was not injured.

REV. ROSARIO JALBERT

CELEBRATED HIS FIRST MASS AT ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH ON SUNDAY MORNING

Rev. Rosario Jalbert, O. M. I., son of Mrs. Napoleon Jalbert of 27 James street, this city, who was ordained to the priesthood at Boston Saturday by Rev. G. Joseph Anderson, celebrated his first mass at St. Joseph's church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The church was literally filled for the occasion, a large number of the young clergyman's relatives and friends being in attendance.

Fr. Jalbert was assisted by Rev. Joseph Bolduc, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Louis Bolduc, O. M. I., as subdeacon. The master of ceremonies was Rev. C. A. Paquette, O. M. I., rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Bro. Merrill, O. M. I. The sermon was delivered by the pastor of the parish, Rev. J. H. Racine, O. M. I., Ph. D., who took for his subject "The Sacraments in Aeternum." The clergyman dwelt on the duties of a priest and spoke at length on the sacrifices the young clergyman may be called upon to make. He also congratulated the young priest's mother who occupied a front row, and in behalf of the parish he extended Fr. Jalbert his best wishes.

The choir under the direction of Telephone Male rendered Turner's St. John Baptist mass, the solos being sustained by E. J. Dupont and Arthur Giroux. At the offertory Miss Clemence Simard sang Cherubini's "Ave Maria." Mrs. J. A. Bernard presiding at the organ. At the conclusion of the mass a family dinner was served at the home of the young priest's mother, Mrs. Jalbert, 27 James street.

END WAKEFIELD STRIKE

COMPANY AGREES TO INCREASE WAGES—400 A. F. OF L. MEN ACCEPT TERMS

BOSTON, June 1.—The strike at the Heywood Brothers & Wakefield rattan factory practically was settled last night when the 400 A. F. of L. members adopted a plan devised by Commissioner Charles G. Wood of the state board of conciliation and arbitration. The plan is substantially the same as the one rejected by the strikers last week, except that definite assurances are given that there shall be an increase in wages and that the increase shall date from the time the men return to work. The men will return tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT OF ST. MARY'S

ST. MARY'S, Kas., June 1.—The Rev. William J. Wallace, S. J., formerly of St. Xavier college, Cincinnati, Ohio, was installed as president of St. Mary's college today. He succeeds the Rev. Aloysius Breen, S. J., president for the last seven years.

RESOLUTE AND VANIT

NEW YORK, June 1.—Two of the three cup class yachts, the Resolute and Vanite, today were ready for the first trial in the series of races of the America's cup which will terminate the August for the selection of a defender of the America's cup. The third yacht, the Defender, will not be prepared to meet her rivals until the last of the week, perhaps not until June 12, owing to a delay in the repairs which are being made to her top hamper.

Fair weather with moderate westerly winds was the prediction for tomorrow's contest.

HONOR GERMAN AMBASSADOR

BALTIMORE, Md., June 1.—Count J. H. Von Bornstorff, the German ambassador, will be given the honorary degree of doctor of laws, and Henry R. Evans of the bureau of education of Washington will receive the degree of doctor of letters at the annual commencement this afternoon of the university of Maryland.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

The unusual values offered at this opening of JUNE SALE are worthy of the attention of every economical house wife and home furnisher, and they are but a foreword of the bargains which we shall bring to your attention during the next thirty days.

JUNE CLEARANCE SALE RUG AND DRAPERY DEPT.

SWEeper-VAC.

The Best Known
VACUUM AND CARPET
SWEEPER

made for your home cleaning without spreading dust throughout your house, guaranteed, easiest to operate, can be used individually, Vacuum or Sweeper, $9.50 and $12.00

Vacuum Sweeper Domestic

Combination with sweeper attachment, rubber cushion tires, ball bearings, extra fine suction and easy running at the special low price$10.00
Pleased to demonstrate same.

Lace Door Panels—Slightly soiled, sample, white, cream and Arab.....25c to 98c Each
Regular price 50c to $2.00.
Also a fine assortment from.....98c to $2.00 Each

Ready-Made Sash Curtains—Good quality, white muslin, 36 in. wide, 29 in. long, figured or plain hemstitched, ready to slip on rods.
25c a Pair
8 different styles to select.

Ready-to-Hang Laces for Sash Curtains—The latest patterns—
37 1-2c Madras.....25c a Yard
49c Madras.....35c a Yard
25c Scotch Lare.....19c a Yard
35c Scotch Lare.....25c a Yard
49c Scotch Lare.....35c a Yard
These are made in new panel design and very handsome for windows.

Plain Serim—40 in. wide, perfect, in white, cream and Arab, regular 15c to 19c grade,
10c a Yard
For all kinds of curtains.

Fancy Woven Borders—Curtain Serims, regular 15c to 19c goods.....12 1-2c a Yard
White, cream and Arab

Madras Lace—Genuine Imported White and Ecru, nothing made to hang that will wear better—
29c quality, 36 in. wide.....19c a Yard
35c quality, 36 in. wide.....25c a Yard
39c quality, 36 in. wide.....29c a Yard
42c quality, 36 to 40 in. wide.....35c a Yard
49c quality, 36 to 45 in. wide.....42c a Yard
59c quality, 45 in. wide.....45c a Yard
62c quality, 48 in. wide.....49c a Yard

Some very fine designs being used for the Shirt Waists.....62c to 89c a Yard

500 Yards New Fancy Serims—Hemstitched border effect or fine insertion effect, goods that sell everywhere 37c to 40c a yard. Special clearance prices.....25c and 35c a Yard
These are all new and perfect goods.

Upholstering—Repps and Tapestries,
49c to $2.50 a Yard
All 50 in. wide and fast.

Quality Leatherette—50 in. wide, in red, brown, green, black or Spanish, $1.50 to $2.00 quality.....79c and 98c a Yard
For carriages and automobile cushions and coverings.

Rope Portieres—Very nice for summer use, $1.98 to $7.50
Leather Rope Portieres.....$6.50 a Pair

For Your Bungalow, Camp or Summer Home—Coverings or hangings, 1 yard wide burlaps, all colors.....17c a Yard
1 yard wide Denims.....25c a Yard
All plain colors.
50 in. wide Monks Cloth, in green, brown and natural.....59c a Yard
For Portieres and Couch Covers

Best 36 in. Silkline for summer hangings, bordered and all-overs.....10c a Yard
New Cretonnes.....19c to 75c a Yard

Light Sunfast Fabric.....49c to 98c a Yard
30, 32 and 50 in. wide.

Ruffled Muslin Curtains....39c, 49c to 98c Pair

Flat Muslin Curtains.....49c, 69c to $1.49 a Pair

Cheap Couch Covers.....98c to $1.98
Values unequalled.

New Lots Silk Rag Rugs—
30x60, $1.19; 36x72, $1.69; 4x7, $2.98
Worth $2.75. Worth $3.00 Worth $5.00

Washable Cotton Rag Rugs—All sizes from 24x48 to 4x7 feet, at, special, 49c to $2.98

Wool and Fibre Small Rugs—
27x63, 79c, reg. $1.25; 36x63, 98c, reg. $2.00
East Section.

Largest Assortment Serim Curtains—White, cream and Arab.....49c, 75c, 98c to $15.00 a Pair
At special bargain prices.
Second Floor.

BIGELOW CARPET MILLS

Continued

all, Mass., there were evidences that a transaction out of the ordinary is under way. None of the executive officers were at the local office and it was said there that they would return today, although their whereabouts was not made known, nor was any explanation of the absence of so many officials at one time given.

It is said unofficially, however, that a number of the overseers and head clerks in the various departments of the Hartford Carpet company have been sent to the mills in question to assist in the taking of inventories there and this report is borne out in part by the fact that several automobiles containing bosses and other employees of the local company were seen in the vicinity of Main street early yesterday afternoon, presumably about to set out on the trip to Lowell or Clinton. It is further rumored that special inventories in some of the departments of the Hartford Carpet company have been ordered to be completed before Tuesday night.

Rumor of the reported deal spread rapidly in the village and much interest was created, there being much speculation as to what affect the transaction if consummated, could have on the working of the local plant. It is anticipated, however, that the increasing of the holdings of the Hartford Carpet company would improve the local industrial conditions rather than cause an suspension of operations in local departments. It is said that officials of the Hartford Carpet company have been closely watching the Clinton and Lowell mills for some time.

The Hartford Carpet company is the town's leading industry, employing in the neighborhood of 3000 hands. During the recent business depression when many textile plants throughout the country were providing little work for their operatives, the local plant was in much better condition and worked much longer hours a week than in most places, although for a few weeks the mills have operated on short time. Immediately when free wool came in, however, the company sent agents to New York and other cities to rush shipments through to Thompsonville and hundreds of cars of wool were received here daily for some time, since which time operations at the mill have continued uninterrupted on full time.

TWO KILLED

BOSTON, June 1.—Two men were killed and five others dangerously injured by an explosion of sewer gas at the East Boston sewage pumping station today.

UTILIZE "PLUCKED" MEN

REP. BRITTEN WANTS NAVAL OFFICERS RETIRED BY "PLUCKING" BOARDS TO EARN THEIR PAY

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Assenting that naval officers retired by "plucking" boards now draw pay of nearly half a million dollars annually without giving any return to the government, Representative Britten of Illinois planned to introduce a bill today to authorize the secretary of the navy to utilize the service of officers who have been "plucked." Representative Britten who is conducting a fight in congress to eliminate the naval plucking board says it is not only unbusinesslike and unnecessary, but decidedly unfair to the government which situated the officers at great expense to have to pay those "plucked" without any return.

The bill which would amend the navy personnel act of 1899, provides that officers who are plucked in the future would not be permitted to draw retired pay without performing service.

THE GILBRIDE CO.

PLAN TO BUY Summer Wash Goods THIS WEEK

The values we have gathered for the coming week will acquaint thousands of women with the fact that we have here for your selection, the best styles and values the world has to offer, due to our aggressive merchandising methods.

- 12 1-2c Flowered Organdies. Special value.....10c a Yard
- 27 Inch Crepe, all colors. Special value.....12 1-2c a Yard
- 25c, 40 Inch Costume Voile, all colors. Special value 19c a Yard
- 19c Fancy Ripplette, fast colors. Special value, 12 1-2c a Yard
- 39c Bates Crepe, fancy plaids and Roman stripes, remnants from 2 to 8 yards. Special value.....19c a Yard
- 39c, 40 Inch Chiffon Crepe, all colors. Special value 25c a Yard
- 19c Mercerized Pongee, all colors. Special value.....10c a Yard
- 29c Fancy Waistings, warranted fast colors. Special value, 19c a Yard
- 19c Linen Finish Suiting, in all the leading colors. Special value, 12 1-2c a Yard
- 25c, 27 Inch and 31 Inch Fancy Ratine, fast colors. Special value.....15c a Yard
- 38 Inch Fabric De Laine, its texture avoids the awkwardness of added clothing to underline the sheerness of summer fabrics. Its special adaptations are for suits, gowns, coats and trimmings. We carry all the leading colors, regular price $1.00. Sale price.....69c a Yard
- 36 Inch White Ratine, regular price 59c. Sale price 39c a Yard
- 27 Inch, 36 Inch and 45 Inch Imported Dress Linens, all colors. Special value.....25c, 39c and 10c a Yard
- 27 Inch and 45 Inch Embroidered Batiste, regular price 69c and $1.25. Sale price.....50c and $1.00 a Yard
- 27 Inch, 36 Inch and 45 Inch Imported White Crepe. Special value.....25c, 39c and 59c a Yard
- 30 Inch Cross Bar Nainsook, imported, regular price 50c. Sale price.....29c a Yard
- 27 Inch Silk Flowered Crepes, regular price 59c. Sale price 29c a Yard
- 45 Inch Imported Dress Patterns, regular price $4.50 and $5.00. Sale price.....$3.25 and $3.49 Each

A LITTLE NONSENSE

GOOD REASON.
The Little One—Funny we ain't ketching none yet in all dis time! The Other One—Yes, it is funny, p'raps it's cause I ain't got no hook on!

A LONG WAIT AHEAD.
I ain't taking no chances this year, I'm goin' to sit here an' watch it up there.

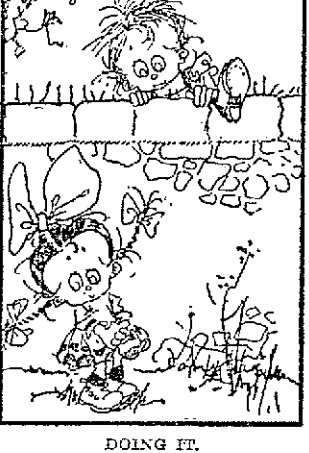

WOMAN'S INGRATITUDE.
The Lass—Oh, Oswald! You've gone an' left the very prettiest one up there.

PLAY NOT WORK.
My, what a big field you've dug! You're quite an agriculturist! Agricul't yer granny! I'm trying to git a denim' worm or two!

DOING IT.
She—Oh, Egbert! Why don't you perform some noble and despit deed for my sake?

THE MAN IN THE MOON.
The Kid—O-on me WHAT, Ma?

THE MAN IN THE MOON

A fire that breaks out about midnight, good natured one. It gathers to be and threatens to do extensive damage, entertained and the bigger the fire the is always an object of great interest. I some- and if it's right down in the business- times think that at a fire there is mani- fested in a modern crowd somewhat of the barbaric spirit which animated Nero who is said to haveiddled while Rome was burning. At first at any- rate, it delights in seeing the fire get ahead of the firemen and howls with delight when fire breaks out in an un- expected quarter. It is not their fault—it is only fun. It is not their fault—it doesn't cost them a cent. As much as it may criticize the fire- men it thoroughly believes in their efficiency and will finally commend as loudly as it found fault. The fire in the Hildreth building a week and last Saturday night came just right for the crowd. It found plenty of people down town and the number was great- ly increased by those who looked in from a distance on the strike of the second alarm. That the firemen did a good job in subduing what might have been a very serious fire was ex- pectant. Talk about some members of the fire department being too old to fight a fire. From the busyness-like way and efficient manner in which several fire boats worked worked last Saturday night I cannot help re- calling the remark of former Chief Thom- mer who said that he would give more for one of these so-called old men than half a dozen young ones whom he could name. And I guess the old chief knew something about what he was talking. While things were most interesting a week and Saturday night there came a call for assistance from Christmanford where a lively fire had raged. With his hands full of work, Chief Saunders couldn't do any- thing for the old mother town, but a few automobile parties thinking they might help a little by looking on and thinking, too, that they might as well make a night of it, sped away for the scene of the new fire and after seeing on wrong roads and getting on again they at last arrived where the fire was freing fast and furiously. They got back home after a highly discomf- night's pleasure—Well, well, an old- man's blessing be upon them! It is not to be wondered at that young blood gets stirred at the sight of a good blaze, the clang of the bells and the siren bang and shrieks of the fire apparatus. When I was a young fellow I would run for miles to be at a fire, but now, as old age comes creep- ing on the sound of the fire bells in the still night does not disturb me. If I am ever awakened by them I simply turn over and am again sleeping be- fore the round is finished. Thus it is that young men for fires, old men for bed, young men for war and old men for counsel, young men for ac- tion, old men for repose. Amen.

Canobie.
Beautiful Canobie! It is hard to find a spot anywhere more so, nor of a day to journey there any more delightful than last Sunday was. While many people visited the lake on that day there was absence of crowds such as will be soon later. Lowell people who visit Canobie are few compared with the numbers that hail from Lawrence or even Haverhill. Yet not a few Lowell folks have camps on the lake and all are loud in their praises of Canobie. I strolled over the park and ground upon the lake and came away with some regret. The ride on the trolleys that go to Canobie is ever an exhilarating one. There's a certain "get up and get" way with the cars of the southern New Hampshire lines that you do not find on other lines. The men who operate these cars are an- capacious and courteous body and notwithstanding what they are fre- quently up against I don't recall with- out the slightest deviation from good manners when on their job.

Popular Ponds.
Grand Pond, Corbett's, and Gumpus Pond are much visited by Lowell peo- ple, many of whom have cottages which they either own or rent. The attractions possessed by these spots of water are scarcely inferior to simi- lar bodies anywhere. The fact that they are located far from the trolley lines ends an added attraction where many a one is able to pass a peaceful summer or a Sunday amid surroundings that appeal to him away from curious crowds, discordant sounds and a hundred things that jar upon his sensibilities and destroy his idea of true enjoyment.

7-20-4
10c CIGAR
Thirty-nine years' continuous in- creased sales tells its own story. Factory, Manchester, N. H.

Up the Stony Brook way are several ponds of easy access and which are fine places to go to after the day's work is done. I went up to Flushing's the other evening and incidentally did a little fishing and once more proved the reputation I have as a Jonah. We didn't catch enough for even a small fry. Yet in spite of this hard luck the visit was very enjoyable. Flushing too, is beautiful. As we sat wait- ing for the fish that didn't bite we were entertained by the songs of birds, one neighborly cat-bird when he wasn't meowing like a kitten, gave us a song such as made old Jim forget to cuss his luck and remark that that feller was some singer.

Saturday Half Holiday

The municipal council of the city of Danvers, Iowa, which enjoys a charter giving it very early vacation, did not consider that closing its city hall on Saturday afternoons during the summer months was a policy of economy and reform. The city clerk of that city says, "We are glad to inform you that our city hall is closed on Saturday afternoons during the summer months. We are glad that your city has adopted the commission form of government and see no reason why you should not follow the old custom of closing likewise. We think that the public will be well served, and therefore has no kick to register. I believe that other cities hereabouts follow the same custom." Now, the public register- ing no kick reflecting upon the faithfulness, courtesy and efficiency of our city hall office employees, just why should our high-salaried commis- sioners fail to pass an order which would mean so much to the clerks and which is a very little thing for the commissioners to do? The public fa- vors the Saturday half holiday—what's the reason the commissioners don't?

Arrest Celestials

A small army of blue coats headed by the gigantic superintendent, de- scended upon Suffolk street Tuesday evening and attracted much attention. A great many first thought an inci- dent riot was pending, and others openly declared that the police were mobilizing for a raid across the Rio Grande. But they were all wrong; for it soon transpired that the object of such spectacular force was simply di- rected toward the subjugation of a Chinese laundry and whatever it might contain. After a strong force had been placed in the rear, on both sides, on top and in front of the stronghold of the Chinese laundry, the "Charge Chester charge" was given and presently two small sized gentlemen from the celestial republic emerged in the clutch- es of several burly policemen and were escorted to the tango wagon. It is alleged that opium was found. It was one of those clever captures we read so much about.

An Ideal Sunday

What a day last Sunday was! Clear and bright and with an atmosphere just right for driving, you walked or rode your nostrils were greeted with air fragrant with odors from the lilacs and apple blossoms until you thought you must be going through a conserva- tory—and you were. May looked her prettiest in dress of freshest green, re- lieved by the white of orchard bloss- oms, trimmed with the gold of the dandelion and wearing at her throat violets of pale blue. All this in an atmosphere like April's and set against a sky like June's. And do you wonder that most everybody was out to enjoy it all? You encountered them in the field, in the wood, on the road, by the lakeside and upon the lake whose waters, filling it to the brim, sparkled in the bright sunshine of a perfect day. Later you may have met them at church.

There are few trees in this region that rival the horse-chestnut in the beauty and lavishness of its bloom. As a shade tree it is unsurpassed. It is among the first to bud and leaf and it is among the last to cast its leaves. It is beautiful in form and sustains with vigor the drought of summer and the rigors of winter. It is a tree of much individuality and is generally admired. It bears with equanimity the small boys' assaults and yields up its treas- ures as though it loved to. It grows in the streets and upon the lawns in all sections of the city. It is a fine tree. Long may it wave! The park commission should pass around the hat for the purpose of setting but a few hundreds of this most useful and or- namental tree, the horse-chestnut.

Decorating the Graves

Whoever first placed flowers upon the graves of his dead did a most beau- tiful and gracious act. It does not mat- ter when or how he lived, but he es- tablished a custom that has come down to us that could be but look over the centuries that have gone after him, he would see one great country setting apart one day in the most beautiful season of the year, devoted to decorat- ing the graves of its dead and consecrat- ing anew their memory. The day has become more than what it may have been specifically created for—to memorialize the dead of the soldiers who fought in the war of the early centuries. It is a day on which all en- deavor to make a pilgrimage to the resting places of the dead and to place there tributes of love and remembrance. In spite of the day's desecration by pleasure-seekers and which adds en- couragement in continued authorities, Decoration day loses nothing of its sig- nificance, but rather gains in meaning. Just as sober thought and consecra- tion even make about folly and selfish enjoyment. The day is still peculiarly that of the surviving soldiers of the Civil war, their comrades giving it an impressiveness that is all their own. As they march by or gather in groups around the graves of their old com- rades, our eyes are lively to fill, as we mark the steady declination yearly goes on in their ranks. The veterans whom you saw in Saturday's parade are not much like the boys who left Lowell away back in '61. Perhaps the spirit is there, but somehow they can't seem to march just like the boys of Co. C. But never mind. When the last surviving old veteran walks the streets of Lowell he will not have to wonder how he is going to decorate all the boys' graves alone. Should he live to be as old as Methuselah he would see that job bravely accomplished by the descendants of the men who pre- served this union.

THE MAN IN THE MOON.

The dwelling, barn and wagon shed owned by Warren P. Sweetser and lo- cated in Westford, were totally de- stroyed by fire Friday. The loss is estimated at $25,000, it being partly in- sured by Fred C. Church.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ADELBERT AMES CAMP

SPANISH WAR VETERANS' BAN- QUET—ELABORATE POST PRAN- DIAL EXERCISES

There was a big time and a good time at the banquet of Adelbert Ames camp, held in Odd Fellows hall in Mid- dlesex street after the Memorial day parade. The women of the Ladies' auxiliary were present by invitation, and occupied one of the four tables which were spread the length of the hall.

The post prandial exercises were presided over by Camp Commander, Gilbert W. Hunt. A letter of respect was read from Gen. Adelbert Ames, in which the following toast was pro- posed: "My country, my country, right or wrong, still my country." Brig. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson was introduced as the first speaker and was given a rousing reception. Referring to his recent defeat in the fight for Ohio, Mr. Pearson said he was not yet dead and that he had not yet ceased fighting. In the course of his address Mr. Pearson said: "One is apt to forget that in Lowell there are 17,000 men subject to military duty. It is never too young to be im- pressed with his duty to his country, and it was a splendid thing to in- volve foreign clubs and societies to partici- pate in parade. Middlesex county, the home of Ladd and Whitney and the Old Sixth, is a most propitious place to foster that patriotic spirit with which we are all imbued and of which we all are proud. It is an excellent thing to keep alive the spirit of patriotism, especially at a time when there are war clouds on the horizon."

The next speaker was Commissioner George H. Brown, who represented the city. He said that in watching the parade he had felt that the patriotic spirit shown by the cosmopolitan peo- ple taking part meant for America a new birth. Mr. Brown said that the Grand Army, Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies' auxiliaries were doing much to educate and nurture a love of country.

After Commissioner Brown had fin- ished, Toastmaster Hunt announced

Doctor Tells How to Shed Bad Complexion

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead—remove the degenerated tissue. Not by surgical means, however, as the un- derlying tissue is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Ap- plying ordinary mercurized wax will gradually absorb the offending tissue. By degrees, a new, youthful skin ap- pears, a skin soft and delicately tinted, as a fresh petal.

No lady need hesitate to try this. Secure an ounce of mercurized wax of the druggist. Spread on a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed. An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an ounce of powdered exfolite in a half pint of water. Bathing the face in the solution brings prompt and remarkable results.—Dr. B. Mackenzie in Popular Medicine.

that upon him devolved the very pleas- ant task of decorating Comrades Gen. E. Worthen and Arthur Salmon with the insignia of honorary members. Both recipients expressed their appre- ciation of the honor conferred.

The final speaker of the evening was Rev. Calhoun E. Fisher, D. D., who spoke in humorous vein, and concluded with "God bless you all."

The entertainment included ver- y pleasing selections by the Mendelssohn male quartet and the Spindle City bar and excellent readings by Mrs. Bel Harrington-Hall.

CARRANZA AS PRESIDENT.

ASSUMES POSITION OF PROVISION- AL PRESIDENT—WILL DEMAND THAT MEDIATORS GIVE IN

EL PASO, June 1.—Advices from Durango yesterday say Gen. Venusti- ano Carranza virtually has assumed the position of provisional president of Mexico, an action he has persistently refused to take heretofore, although urged to do so by his political advisers.

Carranza, it is announced, will im- mediately establish the provisional government in the city of Saltillo and will demand of the Niagara Falls me- diators that they give into the hands of the constitutional provisional gov- ernment the work of establishing a permanent government in Mexico.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

LOWELL, MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1914

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

SUITS Marked Down

ALL ODD SUITS SELECTED FROM OUR STOCK TO CLOSE OUT TODAY AT $10.00

Among them are suits of superb quality serge, poplin, wool crepe, Bedford and other popular weaves, in misses' and women's sizes; only one or two suits of a kind in most cases. They're nicely tailored and good in every respect—all this season's most approved styles. Marked down from $18.50, $22.50 and $25.00.

Suits and Coats Marked Down to $5.00

One reel of about 20 suits and 20 coats, marked down to close out. Original prices: $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00.

BALMACAAN COATS

$7.50

Original Prices: $10.00 and $12.50

About 50 Balmacaan coats in mixtures and black and white checks, marked down to close out. Original prices $10.00 and $12.50. Monday

CLOAK DEPT.

SECOND FLOOR

UNDERPRICE BASEMENT

DRY GOODS SECTION

Special for Today

6000 YARDS OF FINE RATINE AT HALF PRICE—Just received from the mill, 6000 yards of fine ratine remnants, printed in very handsome patterns, also plain colors; remnants easily matched in dress patterns, very popular fabric for summer wear, 19c value on the piece, at only

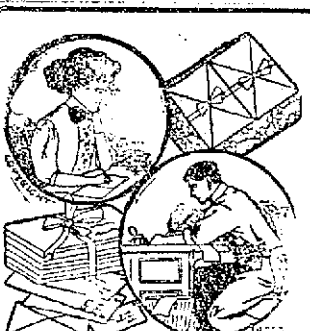

CHILDREN'S SOCKS—75 dozen children's socks, mill samples at half price, full fashioned, spliced heel and toe, large variety of combinations of colors, 25c value, at

READY-TO-WEAR SECTION

MERRIMACK STREET BASEMENT

RIPPLETTE PETTICOATS—Petticoats made of best quality of cream ripplette, 50c value, at

CHILDREN'S DRESSES—60 dozen children's dresses, odd lots from the manufacturers, made in the latest styles, fine gingham, gala- teas and linens, $1 to $1.50 val., at 79c Each

As You'd Expect

Two fond hearts are bound to cor- respond. Their epistles are sweet- est and language used more expres- sive when writing on

SUPERFINE WRITING PAPER ARTISTICALLY BOXED

It will be the "real thing" if pur- chased here.

PRINCE'S

STATIONERY SHOP

106-108 Merrimack Street.

2 Places in City Where Happiness is Complete

THE TRADERS BANK

WHERE YOU GET YOUR MONEY

THE BROADWAY

WHERE YOU INVEST IT FOR GREATEST VALUES

WHOLESALE PRICES TO DEALERS AND MILLINERS ALIKE

HEMP AND CHIP BLACK HATS, WHITE HATS, AND COLORS

78c

BROADWAY WHOLESALE

196 MERRIMACK STREET

Permanent Salesrooms in New York, Boston, Haverhill, Lowell and Manchester.

UP ONE SHORT FLIGHT OVER A. L. BRAVS

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

THE SCHOOL AND THE MILL

At the graduation of the textile classes at the Bradford Duffie Textile school, Fall River, recently, some facts were brought out that though not particularly new are worthy of frequent repetition in Lowell which depends for the backbone of its prosperity on the mills to which it owes its foundation. One of these facts is that the graduate of a textile school, no matter how great his knowledge or his technical ability, has a competitor in the ordinary mill workman who has learned in the school of experience. Unfortunately some graduates of textile schools force, this fact. Having had no early experience in the mills and knowing little of the real mill atmosphere, they acquire a splendid technical education, two-thirds theory, and then expect to get a position at the head of a manufacturing establishment, despite the fact that for some years after graduation they may not be a very profitable asset to the employing company.

The one great advantage that the school trained operative has over the untrained mill operative is, that the better educated employee is not restricted to any one department but knows something at least about the various processes. This knowledge is essential to one who hopes to climb in the textile industry, and though some get it in a superficial fashion, a real student can acquire knowledge in a textile course such as that of the Lowell school which would afterwards prove invaluable. The skilled operative who has not attended a trade school may know a great deal about some one process; in a practical way he may understand something about the raw product, about machinery, oil, belling, harnesses and a thousand and one other things, but his ambition is limited by the walls of the room in which he weaves or spins or attends to any other textile process. The trained student on the other hand may be weak in some practical application of his knowledge at first, but if he be intelligent and industrious, he can always win out over his rival.

If there is any point in this statement of fact, it is that success in the textile industry waits in greatest measure for the operative who is already in the mill and who hopes to better his lot by trade education. A group of students coming from the textile school and a group of workers crowding out of the mills at 5.30 are not very much alike, and this is not the best thing in the world for the textile industry. Our textile schools are trade schools, and they should aim especially at turning out trained workers who will go into the mills of Lowell and other cities and raise the American textile industry to a far higher plane. It should be the aim of the trustees of the local institution and all connected with it in an official position to attract the young operative in preference to the aimless young high school student who does not quite know whether to take up a textile course or a course in elocution.

Even at the risk of repetition it may be well again to state that until the Lowell school makes a stronger appeal to Lowell boys, and until its Lowell graduates can get positions in our local mills, the textile school of this city will not be fulfilling its most useful mission. One of the stories told by textile students is of a young man who was so impressed with the pretty speech made by a high mill official at a local graduation, and particularly by that official's offer of aid, that he went to the mill in charge of the speaker and applied for a position. Some office employee went to the head and reported that a textile school graduate was outside "looking for a job." Promptly came the answer from the magnanimous mill head: "Tell him to keep on looking." Anything like this should not happen in a city which we like to feel is the greatest textile center in the world and in which is situated a school that is proudly claimed as the greatest textile school in the world.

EMPRESS OF IRELAND

Not since the terrible Titanic tragedy has the world been thrilled by a sea catastrophe of such magnitude as the loss of the Empress of Ireland in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, carrying almost 1000 to their death. In both cases a great liner sank shortly after a collision, but the Titanic met a giant iceberg coming from the north and the ill-fated Empress was rammed by a coal barge which must have been going at an enormous rate of speed for a gash was torn amidships which sent the liner to the bottom with her shuddering freight of souls in fourteen minutes. Apparently there was little time for the launching of life boats or night else, and it is probable that most of those who lost their lives scarcely knew what had happened until the waters were on them. There will be the usual investigations and recommendations such as followed the Titanic and other disasters, but for the present one can do little but express heartfelt sorrow for the thousands who will lament their loved ones on both sides of the Atlantic.

near land where many steamers may be encountered, were a passenger steamer and a coal collier in the same route, going at a high rate of speed. It does not seem proper that two great vessels should thus have been so dangerously near without either being aware of the other's existence. Had the coal collier been equipped with wireless, each boat could have provided against the collision, but instead there was a mad plunge in the dark, a crash, and death to a thousand. How vain and empty sound the claims of the great ocean companies before such a calamity as the loss of the Empress of Ireland. And how unavailing are words to fully describe the horrors of such a tragedy!

It is yet too soon to place the responsibility where it fully belongs, but enough has been revealed to justify the assumption that the captain of the Stord must eventually bear most of the blame. His story differs materially from that of the captain of the Empress, but it is not convincing. In the last analysis any regulations adopted by steamship companies for the safety of passengers may be grouped under two heads: that of mechanical excellence, and that having to do with the human equation. No matter how perfect may be the arrangements of double hull, or wireless, or lifeboat, all will be vain if those in control do not observe the laws of navigation to the letter. The sinking of the great liner so speedily shows the futility of depending on aids after the collision, and in the future the efforts of all who would make sea travel safer must be directed to prevention. When the first shock of the calamity is over an investigation of the most thorough character should be started, for in this age of progress the wrecks of the Titanic and the Empress of Ireland show that safety at sea is far from being assured.

Appropos of steamer travel, Charles S. Mellen testified a few days ago before the Interstate commerce commission that the Sound steamers are merely "tinners," and owing to his statement Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce has ordered an investigation by officials of the steamboat inspection service at New York. The investigation may be expected to call forcibly to the public attention that while trains have been improved on all leading railroads at the demand for public safety, many of the steamers operating on the best known lines are still a menace to life. Only in a very few recent instances have even the great passenger liners been built with an eye to safety as well as to luxury. "It takes things such as Mellen's testimony and the sinking of the 'Empress of Ireland' to convince the world that the day of the 'tinners' ship and the 'unshrinkable' ship is still far distant.

OIL FOR STREETS

If, as Commissioner Morse asserts, and it is his business to know, the streets of Lowell can be treated with a coating of oil instead of being constantly sprinkled with water, without increased expense, the citizens will undoubtedly approve of the change, for the dust nuisance in some sections is almost intolerable. Through Belvidere and where streets of heavy automobile traffic are located, clouds of dust blow constantly all summer long to the inconvenience of householders. For this condition watering is not satisfactory, owing to the fact that the moisture dries so easily, leaving matters worse than before the visit of the sprinkler. In all the more progressive cities and even far outside city limits, wherever automobile traffic is heavy, officials are turning more and more to oil treatment as the ideal dust layer in the warm season. The first application may seem costly, but time will easily demonstrate if the improvement is sufficient to warrant any increased expenditure that may be found necessary eventually.

Another consideration that makes an oil coating desirable is that it tends to protect the street surface, which is not so with water applications. Then again, the labor is not so great, for whereas water must be used almost continuously, oil may be used sparingly in comparison, necessitating far less labor. As the comparative cost of both systems is demonstrable, it is to be presumed that the commissioner of streets is sure of his ground in making the change, and if it does not involve an increased outlay, it may be expected to meet with the approval of the great majority of Lowell citizens. The oil trust will not be the only beneficiary.

AUTOS AT CROSSINGS

Fifteen minutes observation at the main street crossings in the heart of the city will convince anybody that Lowell has still a great deal to learn with regard to its traffic regulations, especially at crossings and street turnings. During the busiest part of the day automobilists repeatedly come through Merrimack square or turn into Central street without the slightest attempt to watch out for the rights of passengers. It is to be presumed that before people stop off the sidewalks at such places they look around to see that no auto is in the immediate vicinity, but having stopped onto the street, they surely have a right to cross without being scared by a tooting horn and compelled to run so as to avoid danger. Many people are absolutely careless, but on the other hand many automobile drivers are inconsiderate if not reckless. Some local drivers that frequently stop without a murmur at Tremont street, Boston, when the traffic policeman holds his hand up about through our own street as though all who would impede them should get off the earth. Automobilists have some rights, but the fellow who walks from choice or necessity has some rights too, and these rights will not be clearly defined until we have a traffic policeman or two in the congested parts of the city with a knowledge of local traffic regulations and a sincere desire to enforce them with equality to all. Meantime let chauffeurs understand that the frantic tooting of a horn when nearing a crossing does not imply that pedestrians must jump for their lives.

FOREIGN TRADE

Senator Smoot who does not like the low tariff bill of the administration recently went looking for trouble in export and import statistics, and he found it, or pretended to find it, basing his hasty observations on the figures for a single month. He found that there are fewer exports and more imports for April this year than for last April, and so he declared that the tariff bill is the enemy of prosperity. Those who may care to look a little farther back than one year will find that there was still a greater increase and decrease respectively in the imports and exports of 1912 as compared with 1911, and at that time the Payne-Aldrich bill was flourishing. Even if the figures quoted in congress by Senator Smoot are correct, they have no direct bearing on the tariff bill, for our low tariff does not explain for a moment why foreigners have bought less from us this year than last. This is a matter quite outside any aspect of tariffs. What the figures do prove is that there is some depression universally, due to many considerations, for Europe also testifies to a slight stagnation of trade. It is a little weakness of politicians to ascribe trade conditions to political moves, but in reality, trade does not depend on politics half so much as men of the type of Senator Smoot allege.

SEEN AND HEARD

ON WITH THE DANCE

Judge Harris, of the supreme court of Missouri, in a recent homicide case, characterized the common or garden variety of country dance, as it is known in Missouri, in this wise: "Both defendant and decedent attended this dance. There was also present in person that ubiquitous guest 'John Barleycorn,' with whom it would seem to be impossible to properly carry on or 'pull off' the genus country dance with the requisite pomp and circumstance."

ONE BITE AT A BADGER

No longer may dogs delight to bark and bite in the state of Wisconsin, if they would show the vaunted and proper dog-like devotion to their masters. The dog, his rights, his bites, have been fruitful sources of litigation, from early badgerings that he was not a subject of absolute property rights to that famous edict of the dog by the late Senator Vest, and now in Wisconsin the dog has been shorn of a privilege long enjoyed, under a custom surely more honored in breach than in the observance; for there the courts hold that it is no longer necessary in order to hold an owner of a dog liable for a personal injury inflicted by the dog, that the dog lay a proper predicate by first biting another person, thus charging his owner with notice of his viciousness. Under a statute of that state it is held that recovery may be had for injury inflicted by a dog, without alleging that the dog was vicious or mischievous; the court remarking that the law no longer "follows a dog's first bite," as was said to be the case before the passage of the law abolishing proof of scienter.

VERY GOOD REASONING

"Oh, yes, Martha sings in the choir

AMUSEMENT NOTES

H. K. KEITH'S THEATRE
The biggest bargain in Lowell this week will be found at the H. K. Keith Theatre, where for five and ten cents one can see a standard modern play interpreted in motion pictures by a standard company, with Dustin Farnum in the leading role. Through an arrangement with the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company, masterpieces of the modern stage will be put on the screen daily at the Keith theatre. "The Squaw Man" will be the opening production, this running today, Tuesday and Wednesday. On Thursday, Edmund Breese in "The Master Mind" will be the attraction. For the benefit of those who are not conversant with the ways of motion picture makers it may not be amiss to let just a little light in on the way things are done. Edwin Milton Royle's play, "The Squaw Man," fairly bristles with action. Now the greater part of the play takes place in the western part of the United States. That every stage presentation should be placed on the screen is a necessity, for the picture form to make 24 scenes, some of which as many as 125 persons appear. A few of the earlier scenes and along the scenic coast. Lasky insisted that everything be shown in an absolutely faithful manner. His western scenes were taken in Wyoming, and in the southern part of Massachusetts. His scenery is English scenery, as any person at all familiar with the south of England can testify.

In order that the leading character should receive the very best interpretation, he sought out Dustin Farnum, who has been starring in "The Squaw Man" for two seasons, and allowed him to pick his chief support. Lesley went to his famous Players series to show his right. The initial outlay for the making of this picture alone was of the order of $100,000. First, he got a large company of English actors, and two weeks. Then the films were cut, with the prologue scenes. After that he shipped Farnum and the company to a ranch in Wyoming, where the major portion of the picture was taken. Real cowboys and a real Indian girl are made use of in the scenes. The character of Nat-El-Ritch, the squaw who marries the Englishman Wynegate, stands out beautifully in a number of the films. The picture is in six parts, and the only will you get the most intense situations pictured by the author, Royle, when he penned his play but you will find it right in the country of sage brush. The fact that the acquisition is merely nominal ought to suffice to pack the theatre at every performance. Remember also, that the cooling plant in the house is always in working order, and that at all times one can be perfectly comfortable. Music will be furnished by a string orchestra.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
In connection with the presentation of the wonderful interesting French feature stage play, "The Ironmaster," is to be given this week by the Merrimack Square Theatre Players, will be the instruction for the first time on a local stage of colored roles, the women members of the cast. Each will correspond with the color of the costume worn. This novel feature should prove a big attraction, more especially to the women folk. The play itself is one of the best of the superior French dramas and should provide ample opportunity to all members of the company to show their musical dramatic skill. The first presentation will be this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Remember this theatre is the "coolest spot in Lowell."

THE ROYAL THEATRE
The Royal is offering a fine program for today and tomorrow, the special feature being "Shadows of Yesterday," a story of a past life that came again. Other features are "In Royal Ranks," a two-reel Pathé play, and "A Prince of the Desert," a one-reel play of color from the studios, with Mary Fuller and Marc McDerby in the leading parts. Many other good films are also booked. "War in Mexico" in three parts is coming.

WOMEN HAVE TO SMILE

In a great many cases and try to make those around them happy, while they are racked with the pain of organic trouble. Few men realize how common such hypnosis is. The remedy for this condition is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, which for forty years has been overcoming the most obstinate ill of women. Every woman suffering from family to give it a fair trial.

GO TO COBURN'S

—FOR—

PICNIC SEASON NECESSITIES

PARAFFINE PAPER

For doing up lunches.

12 Sheets 5c

WHITE TABLE PAPER

For the festive board.

Pound 10c

PLAIN CREPE PAPER

For table hangings. Roll 10c

FANCY CREPE PAPER

Decorated in fast colors.

Fold 15c

PLAIN CREPE PAPER NAPKINS

Useful and inexpensive.

Hundred 15c

FANCY CREPE PAPER NAPKINS

Varied and beautiful.

Hundred 40c

Free City Motor Delivery

C. B. COBURN CO.

63 MARKET ST.

The demonstration of Enamels will continue throughout this week.

telegram was received last Friday that this picture, direct from the battlefields of Mexico was to be released, and the management secured the booking at once. You can see the first at Putnam & Son Co., the soldier in peace and war, a truthful presentation of the war as seen through the trusty camera. The usual run of good pictures will also be shown on Friday and Saturday. Remember it's the coolest theatre in Lowell.

THE OWL THEATRE

Being rich sometimes is more of a curse than a blessing, and it seems so when you witness the three-reel Warner feature entitled "The Idle Rich," a dramatic story of modern methods and modern ways. It is a really clever story well worth seeing. Among the other good features for Monday and Tuesday will be found "The Alarm," a story in a clear and convincing manner. These features are shown besides many other good photo-plays. Jack Dalton will sing some new songs, and the sliding roof will keep you guessing whether it's summer or fall time. Announcement is made by the management that Daniel Foshman will soon present his galaxy of stars in motion pictures at a near date. Watch for the first play to be booked.

VOYONS

Today's feature is a Kalem release, entitled "A Man's Soul." This is an interesting story of the making over of a man.

Soon after his marriage Richard's firm requests his resignation. He has had habit of drinking; then his wife leaves him and he goes from bad to worse. Finally landing in a western mining camp, his wife is shown teaching the prairie school and during a big fire her husband gives her his horse to save herself but when he is overcome she rescues him and they finally are reunited.

Another two-reel feature, "The Conqueror's Story," will also please as well as a comedy called "A Lucky Vost," and a single reel drama, "Quintrell's Son." Mr. Foshman sings two songs.

BILLERICA WAR VETERANS

TOOK PART IN SHOR' MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

A large number of residents of Billerica paid tribute to the memory of their dead comrades on Memorial day with appropriate exercises held on the Billerica common, the South cemetery and the town hall. The program was carried out under the direction of the Civil War veterans and the Sons of Veterans while an excellent repast was served to veterans and invited guests after the ceremonies.

Shortly before 2 o'clock the Billerica veterans and the Sons of Veterans formed in line on the common and preceded by the Reading band marched to the cemetery in South Billerica where exercises were held over the graves of the comrades who have passed away. Following the services at the cemetery the parade wended back to the centre and after short exercises on the common all entered the town hall where an eloquent address was given by Rev. Edward H. Newcomb. A short musical program was then given after which the veterans, Sons of Veterans, and a number of guests assembled in the dining room where supper was served by the ladies of the G. A. R.

FRENCH CABINET FIRM

DECLINES TO RESIGN—RESOLUTION TAKEN AT CABINET COUNCIL TODAY

PARIS, June 1.—The French cabinet under the premiership of Gaston Doumergue has declined to resign. The resolution was taken at a cabinet council today.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL REGIMENT

We are ready with everything required for FIELD DAY

Regular White Duck Trousers.....75c
Regulation Military Leggings (Brown Duck).....30c
White Military Gloves.....12 1-2c
Company Letters, each.....5c

Putnam & Son Co., 166 Central Street.

LAURENCE IRVING AND WIFE AMONG EMPRESS OF IRELAND'S PASSENGERS

MR. and MRS. LAURENCE IRVING

Among the passengers on the ill-fated Empress of Ireland, which sank in the St. Lawrence river with great loss of life, were Laurence Irving, son of the late Henry Irving, the famous actor, and his wife. Mr. Irving followed his famous father in a stage career and was returning to England after an engagement in the Dominion. His wife was Mabel Hackney, an actress. Laurence Sydney Broadbent Irving was the second son of Henry Irving. He made his first appearance on the stage in 1893. He was in his illustrious father's company in 1900-04. He first toured with his wife in 1904-5. He wrote several works on the drama.

LEFT LEG BROKEN

Cambridge Fire Auto

Driver Seriously Hurt

Speeding to Fire

CAMBRIDGE, June 2.—James Crawford driver of a district fire chief's automobile was badly hurt while speeding to the chief's home after an alarm for

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Fitch

Someone Waiting to Hear From You?

IT'S you, Harry. This is a fine surprise! Little Billie was just wishing he could say good-night to Papa. It is not going to be so hard to have you away if you will only talk with me each night. It won't be so lonely, now, and you won't seem to be so far away, either. You are going to New York, also?—well, you will call me, won't you? Now the kiddies want to talk to you.

There is no charge on a toll call if you don't get the person asked for

NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

By CLARE VICTOR DWIGGINS

WYMAN'S EXCHANGE

G. F. KEYES, Auctioneer.

ANCHOR POINT STRUCK EMPRESS

ANOTHER HOLE IN THE PARK COMMISSION INQUIRY INTO DISASTER WHICH COST 969 LIVES

Dr. Mignault Resigns and Sends Caustic Letter—Says Board is Useless if Not Malignant and Should be Amputated From the Government

There's another hole in the park board. Dr. Mignault has resigned and that means a pretty big hole for Dr. Mignault is a pretty big man. The municipal council may endeavor to patch the hole at tomorrow's meeting of the municipal council. Dr. Mignault's letter of resignation reached Mayor Murphy's office this forenoon and it is "some" letter. The doctor doesn't think very well of the board and in the language of his profession, declares that it should be amputated. This very serious operation he turns over to the mayor and other members of the municipal council, stepping out himself, he says, to render the operation less difficult and perhaps less painful. The letter:

Lowell, Mass., June 1st, 1914.

To His Honor the Mayor and the Honorable Members of the Municipal Council of the City of Lowell.

Gentlemen: After a year's study and service as a member of the park commission of Lowell I have come to the conclusion that said commission is a useless, if not an actually malignant, appendix to the government of the city.

Continued on page ten

FOR SALE

UNITED FRUIT CO. 5 PER CENT. NOTES

$100-$500-$1000

At 90 1/4, to net 5.20 per cent.

NORTHERN ELECTRIC CO.

5 PER CENT. BONDS

$100-$500-$1000

At 95, to net 5.35 per cent.

NIAGARA, LOCKPORT & ONTARIO POWER CO. 5 PER CENT. BONDS

At 95, to net 5.30 per cent.

AMERICAN TEL. & TEL. CO. 5 PER CENT. SAVINGS BANK BONDS

At 89 1/4, to net 4.70 per cent.

HARVARD BREWERY STOCK

To net over 7 1/2 per cent.

And a New Tax-Exempt Preferred

To net 7 per cent.

OLIVER STEVENS

34 Central Block.

Telephone 2810.

First Communion Photos

25 Per Cent. Discount

The Marion Studio

Chalifoux Building

TUBERCULOSIS CAMP OPENS

The tuberculosis camp of the Lowell General Hospital opens Wednesday next, June 3rd. A special examination for entrance to the camp will be held tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock. Hereafter, there will be an examination every Thursday morning at eleven o'clock until all vacancies are filled.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE MASS MEETING

ASSOCIATE HALL,

Tomorrow Night, 7.45

Hear Mrs. Teresa Crowley, Mrs. Maud Wood Park, Mrs. Winona H. Pinkham and other notable speakers.

MEN ESPECIALLY URGED TO ATTEND.

From Official Figures

taken from the last report of the Bank Commissioner, the

MERRIMACK RIVER SAVINGS BANK

417 MIDDLESEX STREET,

Shows the

LARGEST SURPLUS

In proportion to its deposits of any Savings Bank in Lowell.

October 31, 1913:

Deposits$2,832,735

Surplus 252,401

Per Cent. of Surplus.....8.90

The past six months show a substantial increase over these figures. All new accounts are welcome and welcome.

TRADERS BANK DEPOSITORS

Will find this Bank a particularly desirable one in which to deposit their dividends.

Established 1871—43 years of successful business.

Present Rate 4%

N. G. LAMSON, President,

F. E. JOHNSON, Treasurer.

ARE YOU AWARE

THAT THE

MECHANICS SAVINGS BANK

202 Merrimack St.

Is the only Savings Bank in Lowell where money deposited now will draw interest from June 6th.

Present Rate 4%

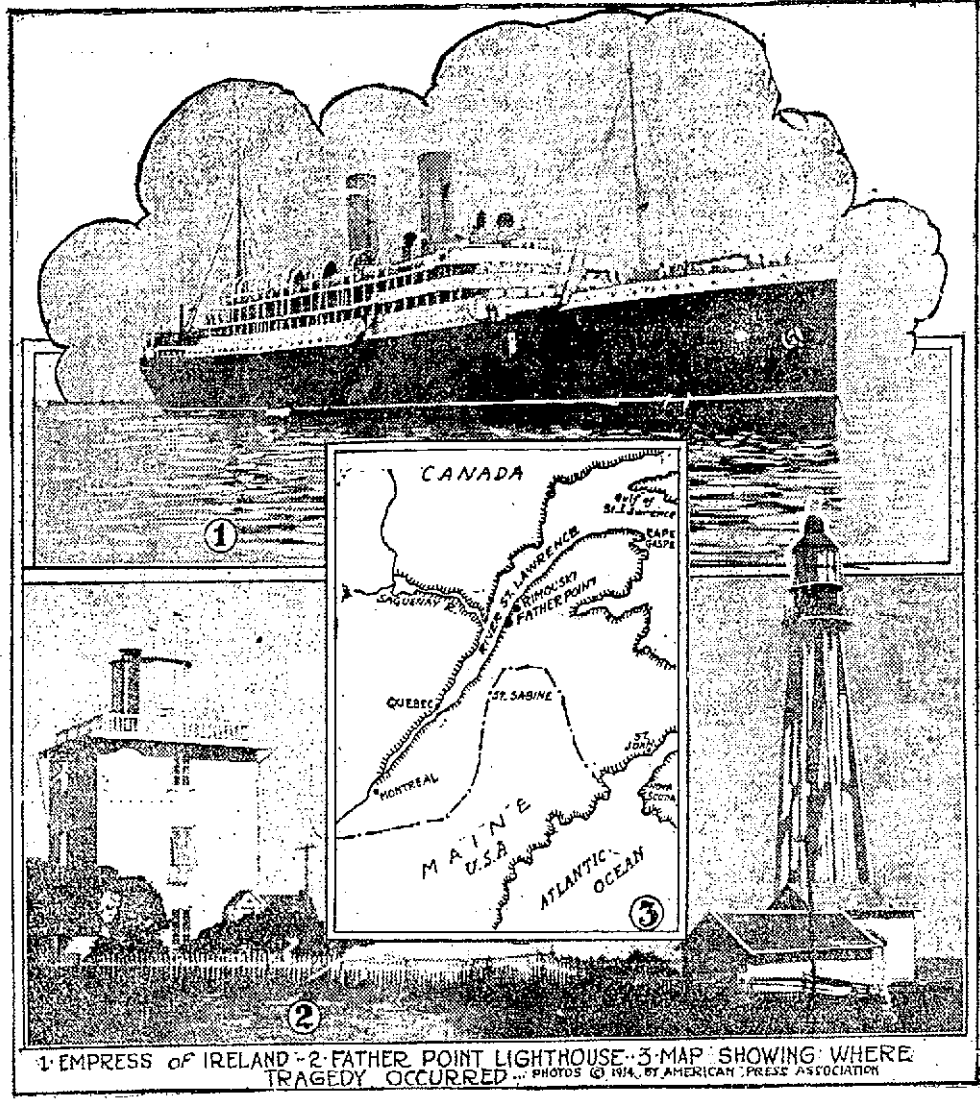

A. G. CUMMINS, Pres.

C. H. CLOSTON, Treas.

CHALIFOUX CORNER

We run "A Complete Men's Clothing Store"; always did, always will—a store where a man can choose a suit, a coat, a raincoat, a pair of pants, a hat, a tie, a collar, a pair of shoes, a pair of suspenders, a shirt, a pair of socks, a belt, an umbrella, anything men need in the clothing line, and you don't have to pay us outlandish prices for the things you buy here. We are out for volume of business; our object is to sell you something that will make you want to come again. Try our goods—they're great—best for the money you ever saw.

Chalifoux's

British and Canadian Governments Cooperate to Fix Responsibility—Inquiry by Royal Commission on June 9—100 of 188 Bodies at Quebec Identified

MONTREAL, June 1.—The sharp point of an anchor projecting from the twisted bow of the Norwegian collier Storstad may explain why that vessel did such terrible execution when she rammed the Empress of Ireland early last Friday morning in the lower St. Lawrence. An examination today of the collier's shattered plates revealed the anchor jammed in a position where it could have ripped through the hull of the Empress like a great can opener. The anchor points and portions of the battered steel surrounding it bore stains of blood.

Preparations were begun here today for inquiry into the disaster which cost at present reckoning 969 lives. The inquiry will be conducted by a joint committee of Canadian and British shipping experts. The arrangements for the inquiry, which will be held either here or in Quebec are being made by Captain Lindsay, Dominion wreck commissioner.

Pilot Nault, who navigated the Storstad up the St. Lawrence from Quebec said today that Captain Kendall told him that Anderson, his first officer and Pilot Lechance who brought the Storstad from Father Point to Quebec were on the bridge at the time of the collision.

One of the officers of the Storstad said today:

"At the time of the accident I was lying in my bunk. I was awakened by a shock and at first thought a ship had struck a rock. I ran to the deck and looked over the side. The Storstad was going full speed astern. The water around was filled with struggling men and women shouting for help. Boats were immediately lowered and there was not a man on the Storstad who did not do his utmost to help rescue the people in the water. We in the boats brought the survivors to the deck of the Storstad. From there they were taken into the engine room, the warmest place on board. Some of the survivors had been so numbed by the ice cold water that they leaned up against the cylinders of the engines until their flesh was blistered."

offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., owners of the lost vessel.

The investigation will be conducted by a board composed of two judges of the Canadian admiralty to be appointed by the Dominion government and one member of the British admiralty appointed by the imperial government.

THOROUGH INVESTIGATION INTO SINKING OF EMPRESS

OTTAWA, Ont., June 1.—The British and Canadian governments are cooperating to make the most thorough possible investigation into the sinking of the steamer Empress of Ireland.

The disaster will be inquired into by a royal commission of three. The

Continued to page seven

Miss Ella Burke, the well known milliner, is showing a number of very attractive and fashionable light summer hats that should be seen by all the ladies. They are well worth inspection. Call at her display room, Ballard building, Palmer street, up one flight.

MEDIATION CONFERENCE RESUMED AT NIAGARA

NIAGARA FALLS, June 1.—The question as to whether General Carranza would be represented in the settlement here of the Mexican problem hung in the balance when the South American mediators and the American delegates met in conference today.

Unless the American representatives insisted that negotiations be reopened with the constitutionalist chief for his participation in the conference the mediators intended to continue their preparation for a two-party protocol in behalf of the Washington and Huerta governments. They are understood to have informed the American delegates that Carranza's new communication expressing surprise that he had not been asked to send delegates to the conference had not changed the situation at all and that he should be willing to declare an armistice during mediation proceedings.

The American delegates were delayed in reaching the Canadian side by the receipt of a long cipher message from Washington in relation to constitutionalist representation. The American delegates, it was reported, would await the decision of the mediators on this point before delivering the Washington government's answer to the essentials of the peace plan previously outlined.

The Mexican delegates also received a long message today from their government in which Gen. Huerta was understood to have given his views on proposals already made and to have added other suggestions.

The Mexican delegates had reported to Mexico City the situation brought about by the injection of the constitutionalist phrase in the negotiations.

Second Edition

FOR LATER LOCAL AND TELEGRAPHIC NEWS AND TODAY'S STOCK MARKET REPORT SEE NEXT EDITION

REBELS MUST AGREE TO ARMISTICE WITH HUERTA

Before Being Admitted to Mediation Preliminaries—Must Also Come Prepared to Discuss Internal as Well as International Phases of Situation

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 1.—After a two-hour conference between the mediators and the American delegates today the question of admitting the constitutionalists into the discussion about the settlement of the Mexican problem was undecided.

It was learned here, however, that the question of having the constitutionalists heard before a final agreement is signed has impressed the three mediators and they are taking a more favorable view of it.

After today's conference Justice Lamar dictated the following statement: "We had a conference this morning in which we continued the discussion of a point on which we had not agreed on Saturday. The matter is still under discussion, but we found in our talk this morning that we were not so far apart in our construction of certain phases and we are still quite hopeful."

The mediators have taken the position that they will admit the constitutionalists if they are ready to agree to an armistice with Huerta and will come prepared to discuss internal as well as international phases of the situation.

CARRANZA'S STATUS IN NIAGARA CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, June 1.—How far the Washington government might go in urging that the constitutionalists be given a part in mediation preliminaries was anticipated here today as the next big move in the Niagara conference. The American delegates were prepared to argue for some form of constitutionalist representation and today they awaited definite instructions from President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

The South American envoys virtually arranged to proceed with plans for reconciling differences between Huerta and the United States temporarily ignoring General Carranza. That course might be disturbed, however, by a direct intimation from Washington that it would withhold approval of the program for a new provisional government unless disposition were made of the proposition of Carranza's participation.

Administration officials declined to reveal the tenor of their exchanges with the American delegates but it was believed that their instructions soon would result in a definite understanding over Carranza's status in the conference.

YOUR BACK PORCH

Do your ironing on your back porch.

Try it tomorrow.

Take home an electric flat iron today.

THE LOWELL FIVE CENT SAVINGS BANK

ESTABLISHED 1854

The first dividend in liquidation is now being paid by the Traders National Bank.

Those in receipt of this dividend are invited to open an account in The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank, Corner of John and Merrimack streets.

Deposits placed on interest the first Saturday of July.

Deposits over $5,000.00, Surplus and interest over $10,000.

AUSTIN K. CHADWICK, President.

CHARLES A. RICHARDSON, Treas.

For 65 Years

City Institution for Savings

LOWELL, MASS.

Never paid less than

4%

Interest Begins July 1

CENTRAL STREET

ELCHO

10-CENT CIGAR

HON. JOHN F. FITZGERALD Says:

"The Elcho Cigar is the best 10-cent cigar in New England because it is a pleasant blend of choice Havana and Sumatra leaf."

DRISCOLL & FITZGERALD

Mfrs. Boston

GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATION AT QUEBEC ON JUNE 9

MONTREAL, June 1.—The government investigation of the sinking of the Empress of Ireland with the loss of 950 souls will be held in Quebec, and will begin Tuesday, June 3. This announcement was made today at the

BUNTING ATHLETIC MEET

CAPT. PHILIP MCNULTY
PresidentFRED HUMPHRIS
Of Athletic Committee

Best Ever Held in Lowell—Marathon Seen by 25,000—Duffy Won Ten Mile Handicap Race

Jim Duffy, the Sligo runner, now residing at Hamilton, Ontario, lived up to his reputation as the world's greatest long distance runner Saturday afternoon when at the formal opening of the new Bunting Cricket club park, he easily showed his heels to Fred Fuller and Tom Lilley of the North Dorchester A. C. in a special ten mile handicap race. Beating Fuller a quarter of a mile and Lilley 600 yards, Duffy cantered past the post in 27.26. The Marathon champion had given Fuller a start of 350 yards and Lilley one of 220. Lilley was a member of the last American Olympic team and a year ago finished third in the Boston Marathon. Fuller is a distance runner of note.

The air was exceedingly sultry and the track somewhat soft when the starter sent the men away. With the flash of the pistol Duffy bounded away and shot after Lilley, the nearest man before the 5 minutes and six seconds in which he completed the first mile had elapsed he had comprehended the distance between himself and Lilley materially. Stride after stride he ate up space and after having covered three miles running shoulder to shoulder with the Olympic athlete. Soon he was a stride ahead, then another, and finally left Lilley far in the rear.

During the progress of this athletic duel the crowd had a splendid opportunity of seeing up close the Irish Canadian. He was the personification of speed and endurance. Like a finely adjusted piece of mechanism, with a rhythmic lunge and with head as erect as that of a thoroughbred, he raced around the five lap track, never looking for an instant. His dark, dashing black eyes and bronzed skin were contrasted with the white, green-trimmed athletic suit with its resplendent maple leaf upon the breast. It would require but little imagination to set the young Irishman in another age and another civilization and to see in him one of the ancient Olympians whom the ancient Greek historians have immortalized.

While the packed stands and grounds were urging Duffy on, Fuller running with rare judgment, was being pulled along by Lilley, who a few days in front acted as pacemaker. Even to the uninitiated it was evident that the two Bostonians were working together in an effort to defeat the youngster from the land of the shamrock and of the maple leaf. Duffy, however, looked along with content to take things easy and give the crowd an exciting finish. He did. With two miles to go, Duffy started to really run. Faster and faster flew his legs, nearer and nearer drew Fuller and Lilley. As he raced after the Bostonians Duffy seemed to be possessed of the stride of the gentleman with the seven leaved boots. With more than a half a mile still to go he tore along like a greyhound, flashed by the tired Boston twain and cantered smilingly around the oval to an easy finish.

The Irish Canadian, by apparently having a preselection for running races on Decoration day for it was on that day of last year that in a temperature of 95 in the shade and in intense humidity he easily defeated a field of over one hundred New York athletes in the great Vonkers A. C. Marathon of that city.

25,000 Saw Marathon

Festus J. Madden, another Irishman but from South Boston, won the 13-mile Marathon race from Lawrence to Lowell without encountering any serious opposition. His time was 1 hour, 20 minutes and 43 seconds. Arthur E. Roth of Dorchester was second and Roy Davis of Exeter, N. H., third. The finishing of none of these men, however, excited the interest of the crowd as that of Duffy's. Duffy, a 23-year-old runner, who captured sixth place and was the second local man to finish. The gray haired runner received a vociferous welcome as he entered the grounds and when he finished he was enthusiastically congratulated by Jim Duffy, the Marathon champion, on his remarkable showing. All the other runners finished strong and in good condition. Their names and positions follow:

Fourth—F. Barnaby, Methuen.
Fifth—Albert Noyes, Lowell.
Seventh—Fred Couture, Lowell.
Eighth—John O'Neill, Forge Village.
Ninth—James E. Carr, Lowell.
Tenth—George McAlpin, Methuen.
Eleventh—George Goddard, Lowell.
Twelfth—Richard Hayes, Salem.
Thirteenth—John N. Barnaby, Methuen.
Fourteenth—Herbert Dennett, Lowell.
Fifteenth—William Groves, Forge Village.

Twenty-five thousand people, scattered between the Bunting park and the Lawrence Y. M. C. A., saw the Marathon runners toll over the 13-mile distance. Twenty runners started. From the crack of the pistol Madden led the field with Roth, Davis and Elliott of Lawrence well in at the mile. Following these were Couture of Lowell, Wick, Barnaby, Salmon and Noyes of Lowell, McAlpin, Goddard, Carr of Lowell, O'Neill and Groves of Forge Village and Hayes, Sheldner and Dennett of Lowell. When Madden gave in sight a light rain spattered the ground and made running much less exhausting. At the first street hill Madden was leading Roth by a comfortable distance, with Davis third. Ticoni had dropped out. As Madden cantered through Merrimack square past The Sun office he was given a great cheer by about 2000 people in the vicinity. He smiled and plucked forward. Up the long hill on Central street the runner Irishman tolled and then jogged with easy stride into Lawrence street. Intersecting thoroughfare and from every house he was given enthusiastic welcome. Madden entered the Bunting grounds with a lead of 200 yards over Roth and another 200 over Davis. This he kept until he crossed the tape. Roth was an excited boy on finishing, having nothing left but his indomitable grit.

The Track Events

The results of the track events follow:

One mile handicap—Won by Spicer, North Reading; 2nd, McNulty, Boston; 3d, Stuart Dickson, Lowell.
220 yards hurdle—Won by W. H. Meakin, E. A. A.; 2nd, A. Bowser, Lynn; 3d, Rodger, Lowell.
100 yards handicap—Won by W. H. Meakin, Boston A. A.; 2nd, George Nicholson, Methuen; 3d, George C. Libbee, Lowell high school.

80 yards sack race—Won by George Nicholson, Methuen; 2nd, Thomas E. Hartley, Lowell; 3d, R. B. Greene, Duxbury, Mass.

One mile relay—Won by B. A. A. team; 2nd, Lowell picked team; 3d, Lawrence picked team.

Mr. Thomas Thompson, trainer of the Bunting club, was acting as official judge. The work was not new to Mr. Thompson, who is an old-time athlete himself.

Mayor Murphy Presented Prizes

Mayor Murphy presented the prizes to Duffy, Madden and the other winners and place-getters. His Honor congratulated Duffy and the other athletes on their victories and expressed the hope that they would win many more. Besides the mayor, Commissioners George H. Brown, Charles J. Morse, James E. Donnelly and James H. Carmichael were present.

High Praise for Handicaps

In the opinion of Jim Duffy, who competed in and witnessed many of the world's largest athletic meets, that conducted by the Bunting Cricket & Athletic association was one of which the people of Lowell should be proud. Such, too, was the opinion of Mr. Thompson, his trainer, and of Madden and all the other athletes who can appreciate a well conducted athletic meet. The prizes were of far greater value than those given by the average athletic club and were eye-openers to the visiting Boston athletes. As an old-time athletic follower remarked when leaving the grounds "the Buntings pulled off the biggest athletic meet this Decoration day that has ever been attempted in Lowell."

Welcome to Duffy

Jim Duffy, the world's champion marathoner from Hamilton, Ont., who so beautifully won the ten-mile handicap race at the Bunting park Saturday afternoon was welcomed to Lowell Friday night by Mayor Dennis J. Murphy and Commissioners Morse and Brown. The reception was held in the parlors of the New American hotel.

In a short address Mayor Murphy congratulated Mr. Duffy on his wonderful success as an athlete and he also spoke in a most complimentary manner about the good work being done by the members of the Bunting club. At the conclusion of this, Mr. Duffy was presented to the large gathering, thanking them for their kind expressions and shook hands with all.

After the gathering had dispersed he and his trainer, Mr. Thompson with some friends, were the guests of Keltie's theatre. Friday afternoon the marathon champion and Mr. Thompson took in the New England league game at Spaulding park and were shown every courtesy by Managers Gray and Burket. Duffy, who is a ball player of no mean ability himself, enjoyed the game immensely and had much to say in commendation of the work of the local players. Saturday morning he and Mr. Thompson looked over the athletes at the Y. M. C. A. games on the South common, both gentlemen being warm in their praises of the work of instilling a love for athletics into the younger generation. It was at a set of such games as these, Mr. Duffy said, that he first realized he had some capabilities as an athlete.

After winning the ten-mile race Mr. Duffy and his friends were the guests of Mr. Thomas Hoban of the Richardson hotel. In his large touring car, Mr. Hoban showed the party all of the attractive spots of Lowell, so that when the visitors return to Canada they will tell their friends of the beauty of the Spindle City and its environs and of the hospitality of its people.

BUNTING NOTES

After the sports Jimmie Duffy and his manager, Mr. Thompson, were the guests of Proprietor Thomas F. Hoban, at the Richardson hotel. They left for Boston on an early evening train, returning direct to Hamilton, as Duffy is to run a five-mile race at Kingston, Ont., on Wednesday.

It wouldn't have been a Bunting affair without Sam Dean on deck. Sam is a most energetic worker.

The water department auto containing Commissioner Carmichael and others struck a small boy and knocked him over. Fortunately the machine was going at a snail's pace and the youngster was not injured.

REV. ROSARIO JALBERT

CELEBRATED HIS FIRST MASS AT ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH ON SUNDAY MORNING

Rev. Rosario Jalbert, O. M. I., son of Mrs. Napoleon Jalbert of 27 James street, this city, who was ordained to the priesthood at Boston Saturday by Rt. Rev. G. Joseph Anderson, celebrated his first mass at St. Joseph's church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The church was literally filled for the occasion, a large number of the young clergyman's relatives and friends being in attendance.

Fr. Jalbert was assisted by Rev. Joseph Bolduc, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Bro. Louis Richard, O. M. I., as subdeacon. The master of ceremonies was Rev. C. A. Paquette, O. M. I., rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Bro. Merrill, O. M. I. The sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. Fr. H. Racette, O. M. I., Ph. D., who took for his subject, "Tu Es Sacerdos in Aeternum." The priestman dwelt on the duties of a priest and spoke at length on the sacrifices the young clergyman may be called upon to make. He also congratulated the young priest's mother who occupied a front row, and in behalf of the parish he extended Fr. Jalbert his best wishes.

The choir under the direction of Telesphore Main rendered Turner's St. John Baptist mass, the solos being sustained by E. J. Dupont and Arthur Giroux. At the offertory Miss Clarence Elmdorf sang Cherubini's "Ave Maria." Mrs. J. A. Bernard presiding at the organ. At the conclusion of the mass a family dinner was served at the home of the young priest's mother, Mrs. Jalbert, 27 James street.

END WAKEFIELD STRIKE

COMPANY AGREES TO INCREASE

WAGES—600 A. F. OF L. MEN ACCEPT TERMS

BOSTON, June 1.—The strike at the Helywood Brothers & Wakefield rattle factory practically was settled last night when the 600 A. F. of L. members adopted a plan devised by Commissioner Charles G. Wood of the state board of conciliation and arbitration. The plan is substantially the same as the one rejected by the strikers last week, except that definite assurances are given that there shall be no increase in wages and that the increase shall date from the time the men return to work. The men will return tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT OF ST. MARY'S

ST. MARY'S, Kas., June 1.—The Rev. William J. Wallace, S. J., formerly of St. Xavier college, Cincinnati, Ohio, was installed as president of St. Mary's college today. He succeeds the Rev. Aloysius Bruen, S. J., president for the last seven years.

RESOLUTE AND VANITE

NEW YORK, June 1.—Two of the three cup class yachts, the "Resolute" and "Vanite," today were ready for the first trial heats in the long series of races which will terminate in August for the selection of a defender of the America's cup. The third yacht, the "Defiance," will not be prepared to meet her rivals until the last of the week, perhaps until June 12, owing to radical alterations which are being made in her top hamper.

Fair weather with moderate westerly winds was the prediction for tomorrow's contest.

HONOR GERMAN AMBASSADOR

BALTIMORE, Md., June 1.—Count J. H. Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will be given the honorary degree of doctor of laws, and Henry R. Evans of the bureau of education of Washington will receive the degree of doctor of letters at the annual commencement this afternoon of the university of Maryland.

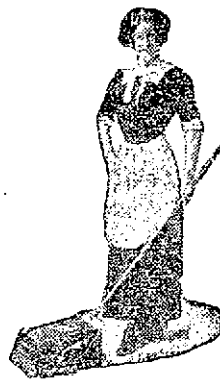

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

The unusual values offered at this opening of JUNE SALE are worthy of the attention of every economical house wife and home furnisher, and they are but a foreword of the bargains which we shall bring to your attention during the next thirty days.

JUNE CLEARANCE SALE

RUG AND DRAPERY DEPT.

SWEEPER-VAC.

The Best Known
VACUUM AND CARPET
SWEEPER

made for your home cleaning without spreading dust throughout your house, guaranteed, easiest to operate, can be used individually, Vacuum or Sweeper, $9.50 and $12.00

Vacuum
Sweeper
Domestic

Combination with sweeper attachment, rubber cushion tires, ball bearings, extra fine suction and easy running at the special low price$10.00
Pleased to demonstrate same.

Lace Door Panels—Slightly soiled, sample, white, cream and Arab.....25c to 98c Each
Regular price 50c to $2.00.
Also a fine assortment from...98c to $2.00 Each

Ready-Made Sash Curtains—Good quality, white muslin, 36 in. wide, 29 in. long, figured or plain hemstitched, ready to slip on rods.
25c a Pair
8 different styles to select.

Ready-to-Hang Laces for Sash Curtains—The latest patterns—
87 1-2c Madras.....25c a Yard
49c Madras.....35c a Yard
25c Scotch Lace.....19c a Yard
35c Scotch Lace.....25c a Yard
49c Scotch Lace.....35c a Yard
These are made in new panel design and very handsome for windows.

Plain Scrim—40 in. wide, perfect, in white, cream and Arab, regular 15c to 19c grade,
10c a Yard
For all kinds of curtains.

Fancy Woven Borders—Curtain Series, regular 15c to 19c goods.....12 1-2c a Yard
White, cream and Arab

Madras Lace—Genuine Imported White and Ecru, nothing made to hang that will wear better—
29c quality, 36 in. wide.....19c a Yard
35c quality, 36 in. wide.....25c a Yard
39c quality, 36 in. wide.....29c a Yard
42c quality, 36 to 40 in. wide.....35c a Yard
49c quality, 36 to 45 in. wide.....42c a Yard
59c quality, 45 in. wide.....45c a Yard
62c quality, 45 in. wide.....49c a Yard

Some very fine designs being used for the Shirt Waists.....62c to 89c a Yard

500 Yards New Fancy Scrim—Hemstitched border effect or fine insertion effect, goods that sell everywhere 37c to 49c a yard. Special clearance prices.....25c and 35c a Yard
These are all new and perfect goods.

Upholstering—Repps and Tapestries,
49c to $2.50 a Yard
All 50 in. wide and fast.

BIGELOW CARPET MILLS

Continued

all, Mass., there were evidences that a transaction out of the ordinary is under way. None of the executive officers were at the local office and it was said that they would return today, although their whereabouts was not made known, nor was any explanation of the absence of so many officials at one time given.

It is said unofficially, however, that a number of the overseers and head clerks in the various departments of the Hartford Carpet company have been sent to the taking of inventories there and this report is borne out in part by the fact that several automobiles containing bosses and other employees of the local company were seen in the vicinity of Main street early yesterday afternoon, presumably about to set out on the trip to Lowell or Clinton. It is further rumored that special inventories in some of the departments of the Hartford Carpet company have been ordered to be completed before Tuesday night.

Rumor of the reported deal spread rapidly in the village and much interest was created, there being much speculation as to what affect the transaction, if consummated, could have on the working of the local plant. It is anticipated, however, that the increasing of the holdings of the Hartford Carpet company would improve the local industrial conditions rather than cause an suspension of operations in local departments. It is said that officials of the Hartford Carpet company have been closely watching the Clinton and Lowell mills for some time.

The Hartford Carpet company is the town's leading industry, employing in the neighborhood of 1000 hands. During the recent business depression when many textile plants throughout the country were providing little work for their operatives, the local plant was in much better condition and worked much longer hours a week than in most places, although for a few weeks the mills here operated on short time. Immediately when free wool came in, however, the company sent agents to New York and other cities to rush shipments through to Thompsonville and hundreds of cars of wool were received here daily for some time, since which time operations at the mill have continued uninterrupted on full time.

TWO KILLED

BOSTON, June 1.—Two men were killed and five others dangerously injured by an explosion of sewer gas at the East Boston sewage pumping station today.

UTILIZE "PLUCKED" MEN

REP. BRITTEN WANTS NAVAL OFFICERS RETIRED BY "PLUCKING" BOARDS TO EARN THEIR PAY

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Assenting that naval officers retired by "plucking" boards now draw pay of nearly half a million dollars annually without giving any return to the government, Representative Britten of Illinois planned to introduce a bill today to authorize the secretary of the navy to utilize the service of officers who have been "plucked." Representative Britten who is conducting a fight in congress to eliminate that officers who are plucked in the future would not be permitted to draw retired pay without performing service. The bill which would amend the navy personnel act of 1899, provides that officers who are plucked in the future would not be permitted to draw retired pay without performing service.

THE GILBRIDE CO.

PLAN TO BUY

Summer Wash Goods THIS WEEK

The values we have gathered for the coming week will acquaint thousands of women with the fact that we have here for your selection, the best styles and values the world has to offer, due to our aggressive merchandising methods.

- 12 1-2c Flowered Organdies. Special value.....10c a Yard
- 27 Inch Crepe, all colors. Special value.....12 1-2c a Yard
- 25c, 40 Inch Costume Voile, all colors. Special value 19c a Yard
- 19c Fancy Ripplette, fast colors. Special value, 12 1-2c a Yard
- 39c Bates Crepe, fancy plaids and Roman stripes, remnants from 2 to 8 yards. Special value.....19c a Yard
- 39c, 40 Inch Chiffon Crepe, all colors. Special value 25c a Yard
- 19c Mercerized Pongee, all colors. Special value.....10c a Yard
- 29c Fancy Waistings, warranted fast colors. Special value, 19c a Yard
- 19c Linen Finish Suiting, in all the leading colors. Special value, 12 1-2c a Yard
- 25c, 27 Inch and 31 Inch Fancy Ratine, fast colors. Special value15c a Yard
- 35 Inch Fabric De Luine, its texture avoids the awkwardness of added clothing to underline the sheerness of summer fabrics. Its special adaptations are for suits, gowns, coats and trimmings. We carry all the leading colors, regular price $1.00. Sale price.....69c a Yard
- 36 Inch White Ratine, regular price 59c. Sale price 39c a Yard
- 27 Inch, 36 Inch and 45 Inch Imported Dress Linens, all colors. Special value.....25c, 39c and 50c a Yard
- 27 Inch and 45 Inch Embroidered Batiste, regular price 69c and $1.25. Sale price.....50c and $1.00 a Yard
- 27 Inch, 36 Inch and 45 Inch Imported White Crepe. Special value.....25c, 39c and 59c a Yard
- 30 Inch Cross Bar Nainsook, imported, regular price 50c. Sale price29c a Yard
- 27 Inch Silk Flowered Crepes, regular price 59c. Sale price 29c a Yard
- 45 Inch Imported Dress Patterns, regular price $4.50 and $5.00. Sale price$3.25 and $3.49 Each

HOME RUNS WIN GAME

Lowell Defeats Worcester 3-2 in Friday's Contest—Pitcher Ring Allows But Five Hits

Pitcher Jimmy Ring proved too much for Jesse Burket's Worcester team Friday when he pitched them from the mound at Spalding Park and down the line to the home plate. The game was a close one, but the home team won by a score of 3-2. The contest was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

stop the Worcester players from yelling from the bench. Carroll went out, but he was too late. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Box Score for Lowell vs Worcester

AB	R	H	E	PO	A
Lowell	10	5	1	2	0
Worcester	10	4	1	2	0

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

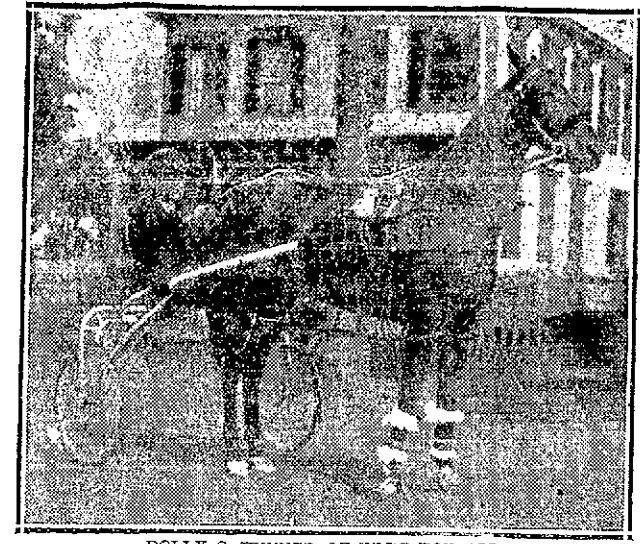

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

Lowell clinched the contest in the third inning when Ring pitched a ball to the home plate. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four. The game was a pitchers' duel, with Ring allowing but five hits and Burket allowing but four.

HORSE RACING EVENTS

DOLLY C. WINNER OF FREE FOR ALL

Fine Sport on Boulevard Enjoyed by Crowd of Over 2000 Persons—Record of the Events

Over 2000 persons witnessed the horse races at the Pawtucket boulevard Saturday afternoon and everybody enjoyed them. The races were held under the auspices of the Lowell Driving Club and the club has every reason to feel proud of its endeavors.

Free for all trot, four heats—Won by M. L. Hazlawood, O'Brien, second, Hapley, Stiles; third, Kenwood Belle, Newton.

Class C trot, three heats—Won by Lady Pralcy, Ryan; second, Prudential King, Varnum; third, Blondie Wilkes, Dewel.

Class B trot, three heats—Won by Stiletto, Costello and Barney; second, McVey, Clark; third, Major, Moran.

Class A trot, three heats—Won by Jackson, Greene; Cochato, Barrett (drawn).

Free for all race, three heats—Won by Dolly C. Healey, second, County Beater.

WITH THE PADDED MITTS

Freddie Welsh, the British light-weight champion, is training in New York for his bout with Jack Britton, which takes place in New York next week.

The showing that Charley White made against Champion Willie Ritchie enables him to demand a bout with the champion over the marathon route for the championship of the world. From all accounts, White did about what he pleased with the champ and had him groggy on several occasions but could not slip over the final punch.

Bob McAllister and Jack Dillon will meet in Butte, Mont., June 13, in a 10-round affair. Dillon, on past performance ought to win the popular verdict as no decision is given in Montana.

That draw at Turners Falls the other night looked like a case of not training hard enough on the part of Walter Mohr. Although Joe Phillips is a lively specimen of high-weight boxing, Mohr is the much better performer, for he can hit harder and oftener than the Providence boy. A few weeks ago Mohr gave Phillips a ground beating in his home state.

George K. O. Brown, the Chicago middleweight, demonstrated to Boston fight fans his superiority over Bob Mohr at the Atlas club when the two went 12 rounds. Mohr was badly outclassed by the Greek slugger in all but two of the sessions. Brown is a right hand swing to good effect, this blow landing many times on Mohr's neck, jaw and face.

Wild Bill Fleming of Oldtown, Me., lost the decision in his fight Wednesday night with Mike Glover of South Boston at Webster. Fleming kept things even up to the sixth but Glover's stamina wore him down after that round. At the end of the 12th there was no dispute as to who was the winner.

Evidently the Wolgast-Rivers bout for the fourth of July at Los Angeles has been clinched beyond dispute. Tom McCarley had quite a job coming to terms with the ex-champion but finally landed him. The bout will be run off over the 20-round route and will probably draw an immense crowd.

The Porky Flynn-Joe Jeannette bout in Boston this week will pull a far larger attendance than it would have a few weeks ago on account of the fact that Porky landed out such a bad beating to Jim Johnson. There were few middle men expected to see Johnson beaten. Jeannette, if he is in any kind of shape, should beat Flynn but a rugged battle is looked for.

Lowell lost two games Memorial day to Louis Pieper's pennant contenders, both contests being close. In the morning game at Spalding park ten innings were required to decide the winner and in the afternoon Lowell threatened to turn the tables in the last inning. The score of the morning session was 5-4. Lawrence scoring three runs in the first half of the tenth. The afternoon game ended in a 5-1 victory for the downriver club. Sherk worked the first game and Weaver was on the firing line in the afternoon.

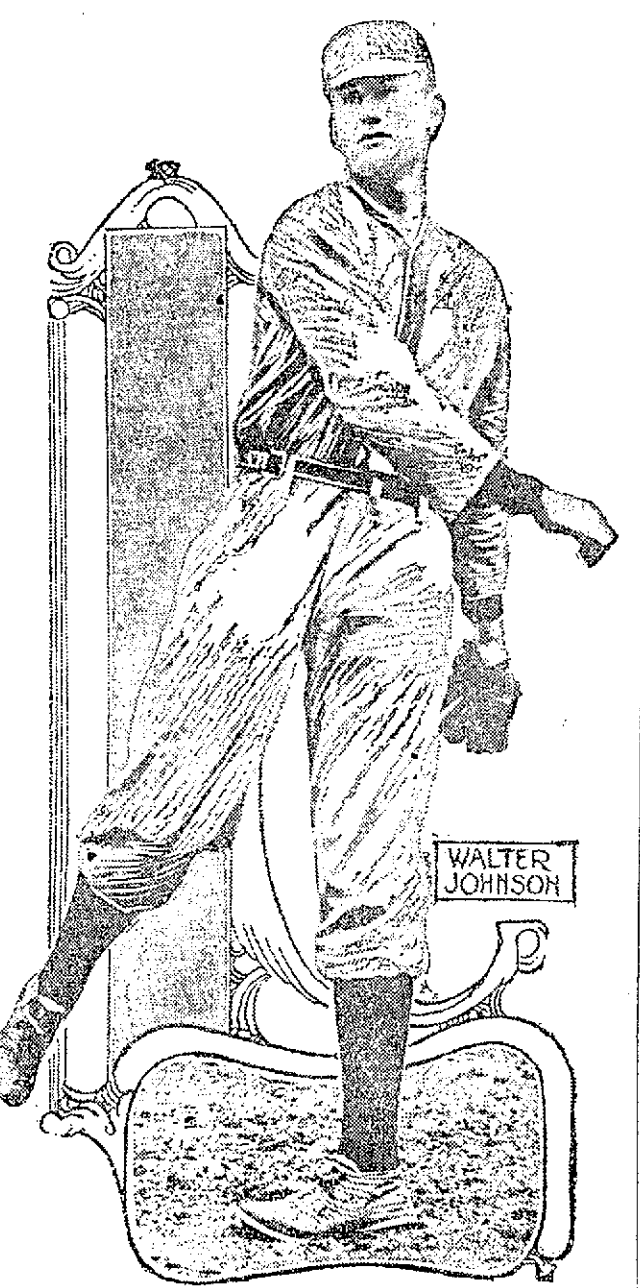

Empire Black officiated, or rather attempted to officiate, in both games and his work was miserable all the way through. The majority of the poor decisions which he rendered were against the Lowell team, both here and in Lawrence.

O'Connell of Lawrence featured the afternoon game with six stolen bases, a new season's record for the league. "Buck" Weaver connected safely three times, one of his trips to the plate resulting in a double. The scores for both games:

Box Score for Lowell vs Lawrence

AB	R	H	E	PO	A
Lowell	10	5	1	2	0
Lawrence	10	4	1	2	0

JOHNSON, GREATEST PITCHER, COULD GET $100,000 FROM THE FEDERALS

Walter Johnson, the stellar pitcher of the Washington American league baseball team, has got back into his best form—and you know what that means. In other words, he is mowing down opposing batsmen with deadly monotony. It is said that the Federal league would pay Johnson $100,000 for a three year contract if he would jump.

GOOD GOLF SATURDAY

Mount Pleasant Club and Vesper Country Club hold nine hole contests.

The new course of the Mount Pleasant Golf club was opened for the first time Saturday by a driving contest and a selected nine hole play. W. O. Winner won the former contest with a drive of 212 yards, while the second contest resulted in a tie between Benton Mills, Howard Morton and T. C. Corcoran each taking 36 strokes for the nine holes.

A selected nine hole contest, medal handicap, was also played off at the Vesper Country club. The cards turned in were as follows:

Box Score for Golf Contests

NAME	GROSS	HANDICAP	NET
C. E. Farnsworth	35	9	26
H. J. Corwin	31	8	23
A. H. Morton	34	5	29
S. C. Marchand	41	12	29
T. C. Corcoran	35	10	25
W. L. Carter	35	7	28
Lincoln Clark	39	8	31
J. A. Gutheim	41	10	31
H. O. Hooten	35	7	28
C. L. Knapp	37	6	31
J. M. Eaton	41	9 1/2	31 1/2
F. E. Bramhall	41	9	32
E. R. Armstrong	42	8	34
T. C. Allen	42	8	34
John Kerr	45	12	33
F. S. Clark	44	10	34
O. M. Chadwick	38	1	37
H. E. Burt	43	12 1/2	35 1/2
J. Peabody	43	12 1/2	35 1/2
G. E. McClintock	48	10	38
E. E. Hathaway	58	15	58
T. T. Clark	45	5	50

Lowell High swamped Concord High in their game in the New Hampshire city Memorial day afternoon by a score of 18-0, the home team refusing to continue the game after the eighth inning.

Hobson was on the mound for the local schoolboys and his work was excellent. His teammates connected for no less than 16 safe wallpops, all of which counted in the run-getting. Richards, Duffy and Falls provided the batting features of the contest. The score:

Box Score for Lowell High vs Concord High

AB	R	H	E	PO	A
Lowell	25	18	2	14	2
Concord	10	0	0	0	0

Lowell High swamped Concord High in their game in the New Hampshire city Memorial day afternoon by a score of 18-0, the home team refusing to continue the game after the eighth inning.

Hobson was on the mound for the local schoolboys and his work was excellent. His teammates connected for no less than 16 safe wallpops, all of which counted in the run-getting. Richards, Duffy and Falls provided the batting features of the contest. The score:

Box Score for Lowell High vs Concord High

AB	R	H	E	PO	A
Lowell	25	18	2	14	2
Concord	10	0	0	0	0

Lowell High swamped Concord High in their game in the New Hampshire city Memorial day afternoon by a score of 18-0, the home team refusing to continue the game after the eighth inning.

Hobson was on the mound for the local schoolboys and his work was excellent. His teammates connected for no less than 16 safe wallpops, all of which counted in the run-getting. Richards, Duffy and Falls provided the batting features of the contest. The score:

Box Score for Lowell High vs Concord High

AB	R	H	E	PO	A
Lowell	25	18	2	14	2
Concord	10	0	0	0	0

5th—Macartney's Anniversary Sale—5th

THE FINALS

We have been having the preliminaries for the last eight days at a fast clip. Now for the grand climax, at full speed

Values Still Greater The Last Week Prices Still Lower

During the last eight days we have been selling good merchandise at exceptionally low prices. On account of the sale's great success and Saturday coming as it did on a holiday, we are running it one more week.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS EXTRA VALUES EXTRA LOW PRICES

Various lots of merchandise have been practically cleaned out. All these have been filled in by better goods, taken from the next lot above. Still greater values in Men's Suits, all kinds in a big variety of extra quality fabrics.

MEN'S SUITS

$8. and $10 SUITS. Now.....$5.37	$15, $18, $20 SUITS. Now....$14.37	The $15, $20 and $25 Blues and Black Excluded.
$10 and $12.50 SUITS. Now....$7.87	$18, $20, $22.50 SUITS. Now....$16.87	SPECIAL—$10 and $15 Norfolks. $7.87
$12.50 and $15 SUITS. Now....$9.87	$22.50 and $25 SUITS. Now....$19.37	SPECIAL—Extra quality Blue
$15 SUITS. Now.....$12.37	About One Hundred of Our Very Best Grades.....$21.87	Serges; all models.....$10

HATS AND CAPS

SOFT HATS in extra quality, values $2 and $3 Hats.....39c, 3 for $1.00
CAPS—In good variety. Line of 50c Caps.....35c
Line of 50c CAPS.....2 for $1.00

GOOD BARGAINS IN CHILDREN'S HATS

STRAW HATS

Imported and Domestic Creations—All kinds of straw from the plain to the finest grade leghorn or panamas.....$1.00 to $4.95
A shape to fit every face and fancy.

BOYS' DEPT.

Greatest bargains ever offered in BOYS' SUITS, double breasted and Norfolk styles, at smashing prices.....87c, $1.87, $2.87
Lot of 25 SUITS, which were formerly as high as $6.00, double breasted, knickerbocker pants. Now.....87c
Lot of 50 SUITS, all wool, double breasted, cheapest suit, formerly sold for $5.00. Now.....$1.87
Lot of 100 SUITS, strictly all wool, lined pants, double breasted and Norfolk.....$2.87

FURNISHINGS

SHIRTS

Bigger reductions in Shirts—hundreds of good styles, all the newest and most popular fabrics, 50c and 59c Shirts, coat style, attached cuffs, made from fast color percales.....39c

$1.00 fine Negligee Shirts, made from Harmony percales, in all new fast colorings.....69c, 3 for $2.00

$1.50 and $2.00 Whitman Pride of the West Madras Shirts $1.09, 3 for $3.00

$1.00 and $1.50 Percale Shirts, the best wearing percale made into shirts; while they last.....79c, 2 for $1.50

HOSIERY

12 1-2c Cotton Half Hose.....7c

19c Silk Lisle Half Hose.....12 1-2c

50c Thread Silk Half Hose, 35c, 3 for $1.00

Ladies' 50c Thread Silk Hose.....45c

UNDERWEAR

25c Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers 19c

39c Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers 29c

50c Poroknit Shirts and Drawers 37c

50c Nainsook Athletic Sleeveless Shirts, knee length drawers.....37c

$1.00 Nainsook Athletic Union Suits, 74c

$1.00 Knitted Union Suits.....74c

$1.00 Poroknit Union Suits.....87c

59c Athletic Union Suits.....45c

NECKWEAR

25c Washable Four-in-Hands.....11c

25c Silk Four-in-Hands.....17c

50c All Silk Four-in-Hands.....29c

25c Boston Garters.....15c

25c Suspenders.....17c

50c Suspenders.....36c

50c President Suspenders.....36c

$1.00 Pajamas.....87c

$1.50 Pajamas.....$1.35

SPECIAL

We bought from a large manufacturer of boys' clothing several lots of High Grade Suits at less than one-half the former price, and will sell them during this Anniversary Sale at.....$2.87

MACARTNEY'S "Apparel Shop" 72 MERRIMACK STREET

MISS FOLEY DIDN'T SPEAK

Went to the Billerica Car Shops But the Officials Did Not Care to Permit Campaigning

Miss Margaret Foley, the far famed leader of the suffragist party in Massachusetts, who was slated to speak at the Boston & Maine repair shops today was not allowed to speak by the officials of the shops. Their reason, which seemed only fair to Miss Foley, was that if they allowed her to speak they would be besieged with members of other suffrage parties. They did, however, allow her to distribute literature among the employees in the different shops.

"The woman's suffrage cause is gaining headway every day," she said, "and we expect that the year 1915 will see the women of Massachusetts marching joyfully to the polls with the members of their now warring sex. The women in ten states of the union are now voting and if the men would only look into the matter and see what the women in those states have done towards raising the standard in politics and everyday conditions in life, they would not hesitate to vote to accord women the right to vote."

she thought of the methods of their English sisters, she replied that it was none of their business. "Here is one thing in which you will at least agree with me and that is that everyone knows that nothing was ever won off 'Johnny Bull' unless the people at first punched his head," she replied. "We are being told that the place for women is in her home. And what is expected of women. Merely to stay in her home and watch over and feed her children? Yes, that is one of her duties, but she is useless, if she cannot do something more and that something is to see to it that the food that her children eat is pure and wholesome. She must clean her home, but if her neighbors are allowed to live in dirt and filth she has no power to make them stop the odors and germs that permeate the air. And I could go on and relate proof after proof why women should vote, and see to it that man made laws that have become antiquated be lifted up to the standard of modern times."

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ST. ANTHONY'S

The Little Folks Danced Pleasingly at Lincoln Hall

A charming May party in aid of St. Anthony's church was held Friday evening in Lincoln hall, with a large attendance present, including a great many children. The exercises of the evening, comprising a rose march, Jap dance, old fashioned minuet, and other numbers, were delightfully carried out by the children, who were gowned in pleasing costumes appropriate to the occasion. Little Miss Katherine Shea made a most charming Queen of May, and her royal robes were greatly admired. Her maids of honor were Misses Elizabeth Reynolds and Dorothy McCarthy, while Misses Dorothy Eastman and Leona Boise bore the train of the little governess, whose passage was cleared by very pretty flower girls in the persons of Misses Rose Connor, May McLann, Annabelle Higgins and Marion Curtin.

The rose march was a delight to the eye, the various steps and evolutions being carried out with a grace and precision that reflected great credit to Mrs. M. A. Shea, under whose direction the little folks danced. Little Miss Helen Shea led the Japanese dance which was one of the features of the evening. One of the most attractive numbers on the program was the minuet. In this dance 12 little "tots" participated, attired in the old time costumes of our forefathers. They were as follows: Helen Shea and George Sheehan, Muriel Rogers and John White, Madeline Day and Leo Kivell, Helen Guthrie and William Moran, Beatrice Vice and Celia Foley, Esther Ringwood and Helen Burns. The refreshment table was in charge of Mrs. M. A. Shea. The ladies who served under her were Mrs. George Barbers, Mrs. Cora Ray, Mrs. John McQuaide and Mrs. Thomas Moloney. Too much credit cannot be given to Bishop Da Silva, who labored untiringly to make the event the success it was. In the morning His Reverence took part in the ordination in Boston, and in the evening at the party was busy listening to words of praise from his many parishioners. He undoubtedly went home a very tired man. Saturday he journeyed to Dorchester to be present at the confirmation of the children of many parishes.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

At the 9.30 o'clock mass yesterday in St. John's church, a class of 13 girls and 14 boys received their first communion. The boys were neatly attired with black suits and each wore a flower and the girls wore white veils and white dresses.

During the mass hymns were sung by the children. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Fr. Mitchell who, during the sermon, took occasion to speak to the children upon their first communion day being the happiest of their lives and one that would always be looked back upon. He took occasion also to thank the good Sisters of Notre Dame for the attention that had been given the children and also congratulated the children in having the sisters to instruct them. Previous to the benediction of the blessed sacrament in the afternoon the children were enrolled in the scapular and the temperance pledge administered to them by Fr. Mitchell. The forty hours' devotion will open next Sunday at 9.30 o'clock mass and close on Tuesday morning. The usual procession in honor of the Blessed Sacrament will be held at the opening of the devotion. The operetta, "A Nautical Knot," will be repeated in the town hall by the members of St. Catherine's choir. Grantville for the benefit of St. John's parish on Thursday evening.

LEPER HUNT IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, June 1.—Hoffman Island, a little patch in New York bay where the government isolates immigrants afflicted or suspected of having contagious diseases, was the scene yesterday of a leper hunt.

Angelo Magloras, a young Greek removed from the steamer Laconia, May 17, and held there pending deportation, was the leper. Before daylight he escaped from the isolation ward of the hospital, leaving behind a note in which he said that rather than run the risk of giving the disease to others he intended to drown himself. Marks of his bare feet were found leading to the beach and a row boat was set out to look for his body.

After five hours Magloras was found calmly watching the searchers from a hiding place among the boulders on the seawall.

LOWELL and LAWRENCE

Rapid Transit Line

Pleasure, speed and comfort combined. Amos P. Best, president of the new motor bus line between Lowell and Lawrence, announces his running schedule between the two cities. The big motorbus, clean and comfortable as a touring car, will leave from the corner of Paige and Bridge streets, week days as follows: 5.40 a. m. and promptly on the hour until 7 p. m. and then every half hour. The last car for Lawrence will leave at 11.40 p. m. and the last car from Lawrence to Lowell at midnight. The early morning car is for the accommodation of Lowell people employed in Lawrence. Cars will stop at Stanley's on the Merrimack, going and coming. Sundays and holidays the cars will run every 15 minutes. Through fares each way 15 cents. To Stanley's, 10 cents.

ENDED HIS LIFE

John Norris, Formerly of Lowell, Shot Himself in Tyngsboro

John Norris, aged 63 years, who formerly conducted a wholesale grocery store on Market street, committed suicide at his home in Tyngsboro by shooting himself in the head with a .32 calibre revolver early this morning. His body was found by his wife a few minutes after the shooting and Medical Examiner Meigs viewed it a short time later and pronounced death due to suicide.

Mr. Norris was well known in this city as for many years he was a partner in the well known firm of Norris Bros., which did a wholesale grocery business on Market street. Some years ago the firm failed up and a short time afterward the deceased moved to a farm in Tyngsboro, near Dunstable, where he had lived ever since.

TUG CAPTURES SCHOONER

ON BOARD THE U. S. CALIFORNIA, Mazatlan, May 31, via wireless to San Diego, Cal., June 1.—The tug Hercules, emboldened by its successes under cover of darkness last night when provision barges were captured entered Mazatlan harbor today and captured the schooner Garibaldi, which had a cargo of sugar for the United Sugar Co. of Los Merchis.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

TO DEFINE A GENTLEMAN

LIVERPOOL, June 1.—An inquiry is being conducted here to determine the definition of a gentleman as contemplated by the Workmen's Insurance act.

According to the reading of the act anyone who earns more than $300 yearly and does no manual labor, is a gentleman. This definition, simple enough on its face, has caused infinite dispute in shipping circles, and the Liverpool Steamship Owners' association is trying to solve the question by the present inquiry, but it is likely that whatever the decision, an appeal will be carried to the chancellor of the exchequer.

A prominent labor union official declares that the definition creates undesirable class distinctions in the mercantile marine. Under the existing ruling on big vessels the captain, mate, second officer and every one in the engine room down to the sixth assistant are gentlemen under the act, but the line must be drawn at the seventh engineer. The steamship owners say the amount of food and lodging allotted to their officers must count in determining their status under the act.

On board smaller craft the question is more acute, for only manual workers are receiving benefits, so no matter how low their stipend the officers, who do not work with their hands, do not profit by the act.

Therefore the Gibertian situation is created that if a man, though a manual worker, should by promotion get another man to do his manual labor, he at once becomes a gentleman. The quartermaster, by steering, always qualifies under the act, but misses being a gentleman, although he may mess with the rest of the officers.

The question is of such supreme importance, affecting as it does every British vessel registered from a home port, that some of the most eminent lawyers in the kingdom have been retained to conduct the inquiry.

CHURCH BUILT IN 1538 DESTROYED BY MILITANTS

Arson Squad Wrecks Historic Parish Church of St. Mary's, Wargrave—Monument of Thos. Day Ruined—Fire Mansion in Windsor

HENLEY, England, June 1.—An arson squad of militant suffragettes today destroyed by fire the historic parish church of St. Mary's, Wargrave, three miles from here on the Thames.

All that remains of the church, which was built in 1538, is a portion of the tower and the scorched stone walls.

Inside the building was a monument to Thomas Day, author of "Sandford and Merton."

Two strange women were seen in the neighborhood early in the morning and just inside the ruins the firemen found a hammer and a heap of suffrage literature with a paper on which was written "Stop Persecuting Women."

MANSION DESTROYED

WINDSOR, England, June 1.—Another fire whose origin is attributed by the authorities to the wild women today destroyed a mansion near here which was formerly the residence of the Duchess of Sutherland.

A SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN

MANY RALLIES ARRANGED FOR THIS CITY TODAY AND TOMORROW

The chairman of ward committees, in charge of the suffrage rally today and tomorrow, have done splendid work, and the meetings are expected to develop a great deal of interest in the suffrage work in Lowell and vicinity. For today, the schedule of meetings is as follows:

Ward 1—Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, 4 p. m. Mrs. Teresa Crowley, speaker.

Ward 2—Highland hall, French street, 4 p. m. Mrs. Margaret Foley, speaker.

Ward 3—Davis square, open air meeting at 5:30 p. m. Miss Florence Laseomb, speaker.

Ward 4—Crown Moody and Allen streets, open air meeting at 5:30 p. m. Mrs. Teresa Crowley, speaker.

Ward 5—Open air meeting at the residence of Mrs. E. H. Hall, 48 Wampanoag street, 5:30 p. m. Mrs. Ellwood Spear, speaker.

Ward 6—Highland grammar school, hall, 4 p. m. Mrs. W. H. Pinkham, speaker.

Ward 7—Two meetings. Residence of Miss N. P. H. Robbins, 412 East Berriman street, Mrs. Lewis J. Johnson, speaker. Residence of Mrs. Thomas Wilson, 1118 Lawrence street, Mrs. Ellwood Spear, speaker. Four p. m.

There and other meetings, precede the mass meeting to be held in Association hall on Tuesday night. Men are specially urged to attend all meetings, and are invited to ask questions.

The chief local interest will centre in the big general meeting in Association hall Tuesday night, when the best of all the women speakers will be heard. The meeting is at 7:45. One of the speakers, Mrs. Wenona H. Pinkham, was for several years a voter in Colorado, and she will be prepared to answer any questions that may be troubling the honest doubter, relative to results of equal suffrage in that state. Men are especially invited to be present at all of the meetings.

Tuesday forenoon and afternoon a workers' conference will be held in the Middlesex Women's club rooms, and luncheon will be served there. During the mid-day recess some of the speakers will scatter throughout the city and hold out-door meetings.

STEAMERS ARRIVE

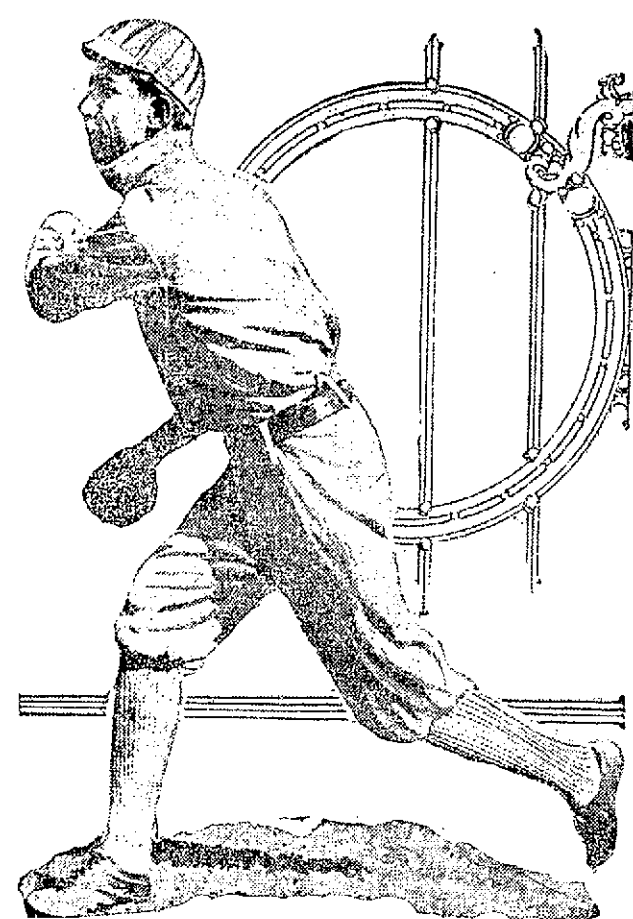

NEW YORK, June 1.—Arrived steamer Minniewaska from London; Kristinbjorn, from Bergen.

Cape Race, June 1.—Steamer Chicago, Havre for New York, 1055 miles east of Sandy Hook 3:50 p. m. May 31. Dock 5 p. m. Wednesday.

HUGGLANDERS BUY MEARS

NEW YORK, June 1.—The release of Charles Mearns, outfielder of the Perth Amboy club of the Atlantic league, has been purchased by the New York Americans, according to announcement made today. Mearns will report immediately.

PALMERO, PROMISING CUBAN PITCHER OF THE N. Y. GIANTS

Palmero, the snappy player of the New York National Baseball club, is one of the three Cubans who are shining in our favorite game on big league teams. Palermo is a pitcher, and McGraw states that hot weather will bring him into most effective form.

ATHLETES AND ATHLETICS

Jimmy Duffy can't run a little bit, can he? It was amusing to watch Lilly coaching Fuller along after Lilly realized that he himself did not have a chance to win. "You're holding your own and he can't run on you," yelled Lilly to Fuller as the two men passed the spot where Tommy Thompson, Duffy's manager, was standing. Lilly will bring you down in another mile," announced Thompson and he was right for Duffy's legs began to stretch out on the next lap and Fuller was a beaten man. The Canadian made a great impression on all those who saw him in action.

Dobson, who started off for the Y. M. C. A. against the B. A. A., ran a great race, beating his opponent by 19 yards. Dobson ought to be able to run a fast quarter. He has a good stride and is strong enough to ensure a finish.

The club left this morning for a four days' trip to the two Maine cities, Portland and Lewiston. It is their first, by the way, and here's hoping that it is an effective one for their standing.

The release of Smith Saturday night was expected. Smith has not been hitting and has shown no adaptability around the second sack. Still

There has been some talk of pulling in Mathews from the outfield and stationing him at the pivotal sack. Mathews was originally an infielder and a good one from all accounts.

With a pitcher of "Buck" Weaver's hitting ability a pinch hitter will not be in much demand by the locals. "Buck" could be used in the outfield, too, on a pinch for he has performed in the outer gardens before joining the Lowell club.

Lack of co-operation is the reason why last year's champions are losing so many close games apparently. Individually the team is very nearly on a footing with the clubs up around the top, although they are not hitting the ball as hard as they should. Nevertheless they have climbed the horseshoe with frequency enough to stand much higher in the race than the bottom provided that this was the only drawback.

"Dutch" Pottelger has caught on with Burke's Climbers and is playing ing centre field. Steward has been taken out and Old Jesse announces that he is going to make a pitcher out of him. Worcester now has two excellent players, Pottelger and "Pete" Wood.

Caldwin's win in the half, McCurdy's defeat in the two-mile and Ted Meradith's sensational sprint, which nosed out Barron in the quarter were the features of the intercollegiate run-off at the stadium Saturday. Two records went by the board, the half and two-mile and the meet all through was one of the most successful ever staged. Cornell will now hold permanent possession of the $1900 trophy.

LEAGUE STANDING

N. E. League	Won	Lost	P. C.
Lynn	18	8	69.2
Worcester	14	9	60.9
Portland	14	10	58.3
Lewiston	13	11	54.2
Haverhill	13	13	49.8
Pittsburg	11	16	40.7
Lewiston	10	15	40.0
Lowell	8	16	33.3

Am. League	Won	Lost	P. C.
Philadelphia	21	13	61.8
Pittsburg	21	14	60.0
St. Louis	15	15	50.0
Chicago	15	15	50.0
Boston	17	19	47.2
New York	16	19	45.7
Chicago	18	22	45.0
Cleveland	13	25	34.2

Nat. League	Won	Lost	P. C.
New York	21	11	65.6
Cincinnati	22	15	59.5
Pittsburg	21	14	60.0
Philadelphia	15	15	50.0
St. Louis	19	23	45.2
Chicago	18	22	45.0
Brooklyn	14	18	43.8
Boston	10	22	31.3

GAMES TOMORROW

New England League
Lowell at Portland.
Haverhill at Lewiston.
Pittsburg at Lawrence.
Worcester at Lynn.

American League
Washington at Boston.
Philadelphia at New York.
Chicago at Detroit.
St. Louis at Cleveland.

National League
Boston at Brooklyn.
New York at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at St. Louis.
Pittsburg at Chicago.

Federal League
Indianapolis at St. Louis.
Buffalo at Pittsburgh.
Baltimore at Brooklyn.
Chicago at Kansas City.

STRUCK ON HEAD BY BALL

ROY MINNIS DIED A FEW MINUTES AFTER HE HAD BEEN HIT IN BASEBALL GAME

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 1.—Roy Minnis, 38, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

GIVE LIVES FOR OTHERS

THREE YOUNG MEN JUMP INTO RIVER TO LIGHTEN BOAT AND DROWN

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Sacrificing their lives in order that the lives of four companions, two of them girls, might be saved, three young men, none of whom could swim, leaped into the Delaware river from a sinking rowboat late Saturday and drowned. The story of their sacrifice was told yesterday by the survivors. The dead

RUMORED TRANSFER OF BIGELOW CARPET MILLS

The Hartford Carpet Corporation the Alleged Purchaser—The Stock Has Recently Jumped From 155 to 186—The Connecticut Story

Rumor has it that the Hartford Carpet corporation has purchased the immense plants of the Bigelow Carpet Co. in this city and Clinton. Judging from the reports from the different quarters interested there would seem to be considerable foundation in fact for the rumor. H. G. Wadley, agent of the Bigelow Carpet Co. in this city, admits that there are many rumors current but he could not state that they were true.

It is stated, however, and has not been denied, that General Manager Alvin D. Higgins, Supt. Charles L. Wilson, Purchasing Agent H. B. Erland, Traffic Manager Julius Roth and 15 expert carpet men of the Hartford Carpet corporation, have been in Lowell for the past few days engaged in taking inventory.

The general expectation is, that the contemplated deal will be consummated. James M. Abbott, banker and dealer are: John Mouchie, Raymond Tinney and John Murphy. The saved are: George German, Sarah German, Mary German and John Nevill. All resided in Philadelphia, and ranged in age from 16 to 26 years.

The party visited Cramer Hill, on the New Jersey side of the river, yesterday, and hired a large rowboat. They were more than 100 yards from the shore when it was noticed that the craft was rapidly sinking. Despite their efforts to limit the boat, it became evident that unless the load was lightened the boat would sink before the shore could be reached, so Tinney, Mouchie and Murphy sprang overboard.

In spite of the heroic sacrifice, the boat capsized shortly after the three men had disappeared in the water and the four other occupants were thrown into the river. Nevill and German clung to the overturned craft, grasping the girls as they were about to sink and held them until the party was rescued by a motorboat.

AVIATOR FELL 2000 FEET

HARRY BENKSTROM KILLED AT DENVER, COLORADO, YESTERDAY STRAP BROKE

DENVER, Col., June 1.—Harry Benkstrom, aeronaut, fell 2000 feet and was killed here yesterday. A strap that connected his wrist with the parachute bar is believed to have broken when he cut loose from his balloon and caused the accident.

AD Steamers arrive
Sable Island, June 1.—Str. Kronprinz Wilhelm, Bremen for New York, 650 miles east of Sandy Hook at 7:50 a. m. Dock 5 p. m. Tuesday.

COMMANDER OF MARINES

CHAS. F. HUGHES TAKING PROMINENT PART IN NAVAL OPERATIONS AT VERA CRUZ

VERA CRUZ, June 1.—Commander Charles F. Hughes is taking a prominent part here in the naval operations on the Mexican east coast. He is a commander of marines under Admiral Badger and participated in the capture of Vera Cruz. Commander Hughes was stationed on the flagship Wyoming until the craft was ordered into drydock for repairs.

COMMANDER HUGHES

We Do Prompt DEVELOPING

5c a Roll

Work left before 8 a. m. Monday will be delivered at 7 p. m. same day.

RING'S, Kodak Headquarters
110 Merrimack Street

HOW UNCLE SAM'S SIGNAL CORPS OPERATES IN MEXICO

1. HELIOGRAPH APPARATUS - 2. FIELD TELEPHONE

VERA CRUZ, June 1.—The United States army signal corps is doing effective work in the defense and occupation of Vera Cruz by Uncle Sam's forces. The illustration shows regulars operating a heliograph, by which signals are flashed by sunlight reflected from mirrors, and also an officer in uniform operating a field telephone.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

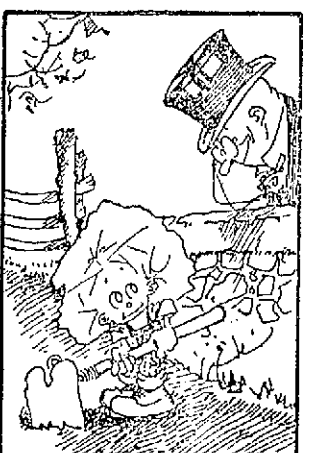

GOOD REASON.
The Little One—Funny we ain't ketchin' none yet in all dis time!
The Other One—Yes, it is funny, praps it's cause I ain't got no hook on!

A LONG WAIT AHEAD.
I ain't taking no chances this year! I'm goin' to sit here an' watch it 'til it gets ripe.

WOMAN'S INGRATITUDE.
The Lass—Oh, Oswald! You've gone an' left the very prettiest one up there.

PLAY NOT WORK.
My, what a big field you've dug! You're quite an agriculturist! Agh! all yer crams! I'm trying to get a flamin' warm or two!

PLAY NOT WORK.
His Mother—I hope I've impressed that on your mind.
The Kid—O-on me WHAT, Ma?

DOING IT.
She—Oh, Egbert! Why don't you perform some noble and desprit deed for my sake?
He—Well!!! An' me climbin' this wall with me best pants on?

7-20-4
10c CIGAR
Thirty-nine years' continuous increased sales tells its own story. Factory, Manchester, N. H.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

A fire that breaks out about midnight and threatens to do extensive damage is always an object of great interest; and if it's right down in the business district so much the better. Nothing is more effective in drawing a crowd and the second alarm is sounded. The fire is simply waiting to be seen. It soon becomes big and dense. A good big crowd of this kind is always a good natured one. It gathers to be entertained and the bigger the fire the better the entertainment. I sometimes think that at a fire there is manifested in a modern crowd somewhat of the barbaric spirit which animated Rome when it was first at any rate, it delights in seeing the fire get ahead of the firemen and howls with delight when fire breaks out in an unexpected quarter. It is nothing to it—it is only fun. It is not their funeral—it doesn't cost them a cent. As much as it may criticize the firemen it thoroughly believes in their efficiency and will finally commend as loudly as it found fault. The fire in the Hildreth building a week ago last Saturday night came just right for the crowd. It found plenty of people down town and the number was greatly increased by those who hurried in from a distance on the striking of the second alarm. That the firemen did a good job in subduing what might have been a very serious fire was evident. Talk about some members of the fire department being too old to fight a fire! From the businesslike way and efficient manner in which several gray haired veterans worked last Saturday night I cannot help recalling the remark of former Chief Hosmer who said that he would give more for one of those so-called old men than half a dozen young ones whom he could name. And I guess the old chief knew something about what he was talking. While things were most interesting a week ago Saturday night there came a call for assistance from Chelmsford where a lively fire had started. With his hands full of course Chief Saunders couldn't do anything for the old mother town; but a few automobile parties thinking they might help a little by looking on and thinking, too, that they might as well make a night of it, sped away for the scene of the new fire and after getting on wrong roads and setting off again there at last arrived where the fire was blazing fast and furiously. They got back home after a highly delightful night's pleasure—Well, well, an old man's blessing be upon them! It is not to be wondered at that young blood gets stirred at the sight of a good blaze, the clang of the bells and the alarm bang and shrieks of the fire apparatus. When I was a young fellow I would run for miles to be at a fire, but now, as old age comes creeping on the sound of the fire bells in the still night does not disturb me. If I am ever awakened by them I simply turn over and am again sleeping before the round is finished. Thus it is that young men for war and old men for counsel, young men for action, old men for repose. Amen.

Canobie

Beautiful Canobie! It is hard to find a spot anywhere more so, nor of a day to journey there any more delightful than last Sunday was. While many people visited the lake on that day there was absence of crowds such as will be seen later. Lowell people who visit Canobie are few compared with the numbers that hail from Lawrence or even Haverhill. Yet not a few Lowell folks have craved on the lake and all are striding in their praise of Canobie. I strolled over the park and roved upon the lake and came away with some regret. The ride on the trolleys that go to Canobie is ever an exhilarating one. There's a certain get up and get away with the cars and the New Hampshire lines that you do not find on other lines. The men who operate these cars are an expeditious and courteous body and notwithstanding what they are frequently up against I don't recall witnessing the slightest deviation from good manners when on their job.

Popular Ponds

Island Pond, Corbett's, and Gumpus Pond are much visited by Lowell people, many of whom have cottages which they either own or rent. The attractions possessed by these sheets of water are scarcely inferior to almost any bodies anywhere. The fact that they are located far from the trolley lines ends an added attraction where many a one is able to pass a peaceful summer or a Sunday amid surroundings that appeal to him away from curious crowds, dirt roads and a hundred things that jar upon his sensibilities and destroy his idea of true enjoyment. Up the Stony Brook way are several ponds of easy access and which are fine places to go to after the day's work is done. I went up to Flushing Pond one evening and incidentally did a little fishing and once more proved the reputation I have as a Jonah. We didn't catch enough for even a small fry. Yet in spite of this hard luck the visit was very enjoyable. Flushing too, is beautiful. As we sat on the shore and didn't bite we were entertained by the songs of birds, one neighborly cat-bird when he wasn't meowing like a kitten, gave us a song such as made old Jim forget to curse his luck and remark that that fellow was some singer.

Saturday Half Holidays

The municipal council of the city of Des Moines, Iowa, which enjoys a charter very similar to ours, evidently does not consider that closing its city hall on Saturday afternoons during the summer works against a policy of economy and reform. The city clerk that city says, "I am glad to inform you that our city hall is closed on Saturday afternoons during the summer months. We are glad that your city has adopted the commission form of government and see no reason why you should not follow the old custom of closing like us. We find that the public is well served, and therefore has no kicks to register. I believe that other cities hereabouts follow the same custom." Now, the public registering no kick reflecting upon the faithfulness, courtesy and efficiency of our city hall office employees, just why should our high-salaried commissioners fall to pass an order which would mean so much to the clerks and which is a very little thing for the commissioners to do? The public favors the Saturday half holiday—what's the reason the commissioners don't?

Arrest Celestials

A small army of blue coats headed by the gigantic superintendent, descended on Suffolk street Tuesday evening and attracted much attention. A great many first thought an inelegant riot was pending, and the police were openly declared that the police were mobilizing for a raid across the Rio Grande. But they were all wrong; for it soon transpired that the object of such spectacular force was simply directed toward the subjugation of a Chinese laundry and whatever it might contain. After a strong force had been sent to the rear, on both sides, on top and in front of the stronghold of the chinks the order to "Charge Chester" was given and presently two small sized gentlemen from the celestial republic emerged in the clutches of several burly policemen and were escorted to the tango wagon. It is alleged that opium was found. It was one of those clever captures we read so much about.

An Ideal Sunday

What a day last Sunday was! Clear and bright and with an atmosphere just right. Whenever you walked or rode, your nostrils were greeted with air fragrant with odors from the lilacs and apple blossoms until you thought you must be going through a conservatory—and you were. May looked her prettiest in dress of freshest green, relieved by the white of orchard blossoms, trimmed with the ogle of the dandelion and wearing at her throat a violet of pale blue. All this in an atmosphere like April's, and set against a sky like June's. And do you wonder that most everybody was out to enjoy it all? You encountered them in the field, in the wood, on the road, by the lakeside and upon the lake whose waters, filling it to the brim, sparkled in the bright sunshine of a perfect day. Later you may have met them at church.

There are few trees in this region that rival the horse-chestnut in the beauty and lavishness of its bloom. As a shade tree it is unsurpassed. It is among the first to bud and last to lose its leaves. It is beautiful in form and sustains with vigor the drought of summer and the rigors of winter. It is a tree of much individuality and is generally admired. It bears with equanimity the small boys' assaults and yields up its treasures as though it loved to. It grows in the streets and upon the lawns in all sections of the city. It is a fine tree and may it live! The park commission should pass around the hat for the purpose of setting but a few hundreds of this most useful and ornamental tree, the horse-chestnut.

Decorating the Graves

Whoever first placed flowers upon the graves of his dead did a most beautiful and gracious act. It does not matter when or how he lived, but he established a custom that has come down to us that could he but look over the centuries that have gone after him, he would see one great country setting apart one day in the most beautiful season of the year, devoted to decorating the graves of his dead and consecrating anew their memory. The day has become more than what it may have been specifically created for—to memorialize the dead of the soldiers who fought in the war of the early sixties. It is a day on which all endeavor to make a pilgrimage to the resting places of their dead to place there tributes of love and remembrance. In spite of the day's desecration by pleasure-seekers and which finds encouragement in constituted authorities, Decoration day loses nothing of its significance, but rather gains in meaning—just as sober thought and consecration ever rises above folly and selfish enjoyment. The day is still peculiarly that of the surviving soldiers of the Civil war, their ceremonies giving it an impressiveness that is all their own. As they march by or gather in groups around the graves of their old comrades, our eyes are lively to fill, as we mark the steady declination yearly going on in their ranks. The veterans whom you saw in Saturday's parade are not much like the boys who left Lowell away back in '61. Perhaps the spirit is there, but somehow they can't seem to march just like the boys of '61. But never mind. When the last surviving old veteran walks the streets of Lowell he will not have to wonder how he is going to decorate all the boys' graves alone. Should he live to be as old as Methuselah he would see that job lovingly accomplished by the descendants of the men who preserved this union.

THE MAN IN THE MOON.

STATE-WIDE PRIMARIES

IOWA SELECTING NOMINEES FOR U. S. SENATOR, CONGRESS AND STATE AND COUNTY TICKETS

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 1.—State wide primaries are in progress in Iowa today to select candidates for the republican, democratic progressive and socialist parties for United States senator, members of congress, governor, lieutenant-governor and full state and county tickets. Seven non-partisan candidates for supreme court are also seeking the three positions to be vacant.

Senator Albert B. Cummins is opposed for re-nomination on the republican side by A. C. Savage, a banker of Adair. John T. Hamilton of Cedar Rapids and V. R. McGinnis of Leon are democratic candidates.

FOR DEVELOPMENT BOARD

SEC. LANE WANTS ONE TO HAVE COMPLETE CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS IN ALASKA

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Secretary Lane's report to congress in which he strongly recommends the creation of a development board to have complete control over all government affairs in Alaska connected with the natural resources and development of that territory attracted considerable attention at the capitol today. The proposed board would consist of three members appointed by the president, its headquarters would be in Alaska, and it would do the work now done there by the general land officers, the forest service, the road commission, the bureau of mines, the bureau of education and the secretary of the interior and a part of the work and authority of the bureau of fisheries.

Secretary Lane in his report sharply arraigned red tape measures in the administration of government affairs in Alaska.

"Our present system of government in Alaska is heterogeneous," says the secretary. "Instead of one government, there are a number, interlocked, overlapped, cumbersome and confusing. Experience has demonstrated that efficient administration is best secured by centralizing responsibility and authority in the hands of a few men who can be held to strict accountability for the results of their actions."

CATHOLIC CHURCH NEWS

May Procession at Immaculate Conception—Touching Tribute to Late Fr. Donahue

Yesterday was a day of very special devotion at the church of the Immaculate Conception for the feast of Pentecost was celebrated with unusual solemnity at the morning masses, and in the evening the beautiful annual May procession was held in the grounds surrounding the church. As the Immaculate Conception church is especially dedicated to the Virgin Mary, this procession which closes the May devotions is one of the principal observances of the year.

The solemn high mass at 11 o'clock was celebrated by Rev. James McCartin, O. M. I., of the Tewksbury novitiate, with Rev. Frs. McQuaid and Phelan as assistants. Rev. Lawrence P. Tighe, O. M. I., the pastor, preached an eloquent sermon on the necessity for making the Easter duty, reminding the parishioners that the appointed time is rapidly drawing to a close. He also referred touchingly to the children of the parish who had made their first communion at the 7:30 mass.

The evening services preceding the procession were held at 6:30. The rosary was recited at first and appropriate hymns were sung. Then the various sodalities and church societies took up their positions in the aisles, and the impressive and beautiful procession formed, marching out into the lovely park and back into the church by a circuitous route. At the head of the procession came the cross bearer accompanied by acolytes. Then followed the children of Mary sodality, junior and senior branches, the Immaculate Conception sodality, the Third Order of St. Francis society, members of the sanctuary choir and the clergy. During the procession hymns to the Blessed Virgin were sung, and as the last of the marchers passed into the church the choir stationed on the church steps sang a special canticle of praise. During the procession the streets in the vicinity were crowded with people. The statue high up in the outer wall was illuminated until a late hour as on days of special solemnity.

Following the procession, benediction of the blessed sacrament was given by Rev. Fr. McQuaid, assisted by Rev. Frs. Phelan and McCartin. The church was wholly inadequate to hold the large crowd that attended. Not the least notable feature of the splendid observance was the fine musical program arranged jointly by Mr. Joseph P. Courtney, director and Mrs. Hugh Walker, organist.

St. Patrick's

The last mass at St. Patrick's church yesterday was celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Curtin, and the impressive sermon was delivered by Rev. Fr. Callahan. It was announced that the children of the parish will make their first communion next Sunday at 7 a. m. and in preparation for the event a special retreat for their benefit will be held, commencing next Thursday morning at the 8 o'clock mass. It was also announced that the Holy Hour services will be held next Friday, the first Friday of the month, as usual from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

The annual banquet of the Holy Name society of St. Patrick's will be held on Tuesday evening, and the committee in charge of the arrangements reports that all preparations have been made for a successful and memorable celebration. Many notable speakers will be present.

St. Peter's Church

Rev. Fr. Strauss, O. M. I., sang high mass at St. Peter's church yesterday and Rev. W. George Mullin preached the sermon, an instructive discourse on the significance of Pentecost, the descent of the Holy Ghost on the apostles. Just before the sermon proper, Rev. Fr. Mullin spoke feelingly of the death of Rev. Charles P. Donahue, but two short months identified with the activities of the parish. "Since his college and seminary days," said Fr. Mullin, "Rev. Fr. Donahue was gifted by nature with a splendid intellect, and his untimely death at a time when the future held out a promising career casts a gloom over the parish and a great grief to his associates in the priesthood. Coming to St. Peter's but two months ago, Rev. Fr. Donahue made a splendid impression, by his enthusiasm, his kindly interest in anything and everything proposed for the parish." Rev. Fr. Mullin spoke briefly of the mother of Fr. Donahue, his great love for her, contrasted the picture of his ordination day, and her supreme joy, with the spectacle of her son now cold in death. "Surely," he said, "none can exclaim, 'How pity on him have pity on me, for the hand of the Lord hath touched me.'" In closing Fr. Mullin asked the congregation to remember the deceased priest in their prayers, for as he ministered faithfully to God's flock on earth, so also will he sit at the right of the Eternal Father in heaven.

Sacred Heart

High mass at the Sacred Heart church was sung yesterday by Rev. Thomas Letourneau, O. M. I., one of the young priests who was ordained by Bishop Anderson at the Boston cathedral on Saturday. He was assisted by Rev. Bro. Burns, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Bro. Moriarty, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. Brother O'Sullivan sang mass. The sermon was preached by Rev. Robert McCoy, O. M. I., of the Tewksbury novitiate, who took for his subject the dignity of the priesthood. Many parts of the fine address were very touching, in view of the fact that Fr. Letourneau stood on the altar as the exemplification of the young Levite pictured by Fr. McCoy. A special musical program was given under the direction of John J. Kelly, a feature of which was the singing of Millard's "Ave Maria" by Miss Ellen Lynch.

In the large congregation were many relatives and friends of Fr. Letourneau and the priests of the Sacred Heart church, including Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, O. M. I., who sat within the sanctuary rail during the service. Last evening the May devotions were brought to a close with special services which were largely attended. On tomorrow evening a meeting of the general committee in charge of the parish picnic will be held in the school hall. The usual first Friday devotions will be held.

St. Michael's

Rev. Denis F. Murphy celebrated the high mass at St. Michael's yesterday, and an eloquent sermon on Pentecost was preached by Rev. Francis J. Mullin. It was announced that next Friday the holy hour will be held as usual and all the other devotions connected with the observance of the First Friday.

St. Columba's

The children of St. Columba's parish, to the number of about 40, received their first communion yesterday at the 8 o'clock mass, which was celebrated by Rev. Thomas Buckley, Rev. John A. Degan, the pastor, addressed the children, reminding them of the great happiness of the occasion and urging them to be always true to the resolutions and memories of their first communion day.

An announcement was made that the sodality and Tabernacle society will meet next Tuesday evening as usual at 8 o'clock. The first Friday devotions will also be held this week. The baseball team of the Holy Name society is leaving nothing undone to aid its open-air whist party which will be held in the church grounds a week from next Thursday.

St. Anthony's

A beautiful ceremony was again held yesterday at St. Anthony's church to celebrate the closing of the novena in honor of the Holy Ghost, which was begun nine days ago. At 11 o'clock solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Henriques Da Silva, D. D., assisted by Rev. Frs. O'Brien, O. M. I., sub-deacon and with Rev. Fr. Plaisance as master of ceremonies. Special music was sung by the choir, the solos being sustained by Mr. Wilkins, the Misses Mullin and Santos, and Messrs. Hiley, Kane and Dalton and at the offertory, Millard's "Veni Sancte Spiritus" was sung by Miss Katharine Mullin, Mr. Dalton, and Mr. Kane. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given at the close of the service, Bishop da Silva officiating.

In the afternoon a beautiful procession was held in honor of the Holy Ghost, attended by the parish societies, the children of the parish and the many other groups that make the events of St. Anthony's so picturesque. After the solemn services in the church the various societies marched to I. O. O. F. hall on Middlesex street where a banquet was served. Many out of town guests attended.

FLAGS AT HALF MAST

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR VERA CRUZ DEAD HELD BY ARMY AND NAVY AT NEWPORT, R. I.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 1.—Soldiers of the naval training station and sailors from Narragansett Bay forts attended in a body yesterday a memorial service in honor of the sailors and marines who fell at Vera Cruz. Officers of the army and navy on duty here were present also in full uniform.

Many of the clergymen of the city assisted at the exercises which were held at the United Congregational church. The roll call of the dead was read by Captain Roger Welles, commandant of the naval training station, taps being sounded as he finished. All flags were at half mast through the service.

CAMBRIDGE "WIDE OPEN"

MAYOR GOOD SAYS SO—WILL DRIVE OUT GAMBLERS AND STOP LIQUOR SALES

BOSTON, June 1.—Mayor Timothy W. Good of Cambridge threw a bombshell at a meeting of Cambridge council, Knights of Columbus, yesterday morning when he declared that gamblers who have been driven out of Boston, Revere and other places have come to the University City and are openly boasting that they have "struck a soft berth" that liquor is being sold illegally in drug stores and that the city as a whole is "wide open." This morning, he declared, he will issue an order to Director of Public Safety Henry J. Cunningham to clean up the gambling dens and liquor nuisances. Mr. Cunningham, in a statement issued last night that proved quite as startling as Mayor Good's strictures, intimated that the gamblers had even tried to reach him and the mayor with a business that had expired the indignation of both of them.

REV. FR. KEAN, S. J., DEAD

WAS ONE OF THE MOST PROMINENT CATHOLIC EDUCATORS OF THE COUNTRY

NEW YORK, June 1.—The Rev. William Keane, S. J., one of the most prominent Catholic educators of the country, died yesterday at Fordham hospital after a year's illness. Father Keane was for many years an instructor in Georgetown university, Washington. He was 44 years old.

CUT CRUDE OIL PRICE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 1.—Another cut in the price of crude oil was announced today at the opening of the market. New prices are: Pennsylvania crude, $1.50; Mercer Black and Newcastle, $1.35; Corning, $1.00; Cavell, $1.40.

The dwelling, barn and wagon shed owned by Warren T. Sweetser and located in Westford, were totally destroyed by fire Friday. The loss is estimated at $2500, it being partly insured by Fred C. Church.

ADELBERT AMES CAMP

SPANISH WAR VETERANS' BANQUET—ELABORATE POST PRANDIAL EXERCISES

There was a big time and a good time at the banquet of Adelbert Ames camp, held in Odd Fellows hall in Middlesex street after the Memorial day parade. The women of the Ladies' auxiliary were present by invitation and occupied one of the four tables which were spread the length of the hall.

The post prandial exercises were presided over by Camp Commander Gilbert W. Hunt. A letter of regret was read from Gen. Adelbert Ames, in which the following toast was proposed: "My country, my country, right or wrong, still my country."

Brig. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson was introduced as the first speaker and was given a rousing reception. Referring to his recent defeat in the fight for office, Mr. Pearson said he was not yet dead and that he had not yet ceased fighting. In the course of his address Mr. Pearson said: "One is apt to forget that in Lowell there are 15,000 men subject to military duty. A person is never too young to be impressed with his duty to his country, and it was a splendid thing to invite foreign clubs and societies to participate in the parade."

The children of St. Columba's parish, to the number of about 40, received their first communion yesterday at the 8 o'clock mass, which was celebrated by Rev. Thomas Buckley, Rev. John A. Degan, the pastor, addressed the children, reminding them of the great happiness of the occasion and urging them to be always true to the resolutions and memories of their first communion day.

An announcement was made that the sodality and Tabernacle society will meet next Tuesday evening as usual at 8 o'clock. The first Friday devotions will also be held this week. The baseball team of the Holy Name society is leaving nothing undone to aid its open-air whist party which will be held in the church grounds a week from next Thursday.

St. Anthony's

A beautiful ceremony was again held yesterday at St. Anthony's church to celebrate the closing of the novena in honor of the Holy Ghost, which was begun nine days ago. At 11 o'clock solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Henriques Da Silva, D. D., assisted by Rev. Frs. O'Brien, O. M. I., sub-deacon and with Rev. Fr. Plaisance as master of ceremonies. Special music was sung by the choir, the solos being sustained by Mr. Wilkins, the Misses Mullin and Santos, and Messrs. Hiley, Kane and Dalton and at the offertory, Millard's "Veni Sancte Spiritus" was sung by Miss Katharine Mullin, Mr. Dalton, and Mr. Kane. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given at the close of the service, Bishop da Silva officiating.

In the afternoon a beautiful procession was held in honor of the Holy Ghost, attended by the parish societies, the children of the parish and the many other groups that make the events of St. Anthony's so picturesque. After the solemn services in the church the various societies marched to I. O. O. F. hall on Middlesex street where a banquet was served. Many out of town guests attended.

FLAGS AT HALF MAST

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR VERA CRUZ DEAD HELD BY ARMY AND NAVY AT NEWPORT, R. I.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 1.—Soldiers of the naval training station and sailors from Narragansett Bay forts attended in a body yesterday a memorial service in honor of the sailors and marines who fell at Vera Cruz. Officers of the army and navy on duty here were present also in full uniform.

Many of the clergymen of the city assisted at the exercises which were held at the United Congregational church. The roll call of the dead was read by Captain Roger Welles, commandant of the naval training station, taps being sounded as he finished. All flags were at half mast through the service.

CAMBRIDGE "WIDE OPEN"

MAYOR GOOD SAYS SO—WILL DRIVE OUT GAMBLERS AND STOP LIQUOR SALES

BOSTON, June 1.—Mayor Timothy W. Good of Cambridge threw a bombshell at a meeting of Cambridge council, Knights of Columbus, yesterday morning when he declared that gamblers who have been driven out of Boston, Revere and other places have come to the University City and are openly boasting that they have "struck a soft berth" that liquor is being sold illegally in drug stores and that the city as a whole is "wide open." This morning, he declared, he will issue an order to Director of Public Safety Henry J. Cunningham to clean up the gambling dens and liquor nuisances. Mr. Cunningham, in a statement issued last night that proved quite as startling as Mayor Good's strictures, intimated that the gamblers had even tried to reach him and the mayor with a business that had expired the indignation of both of them.

REV. FR. KEAN, S. J., DEAD

WAS ONE OF THE MOST PROMINENT CATHOLIC EDUCATORS OF THE COUNTRY

NEW YORK, June 1.—The Rev. William Keane, S. J., one of the most prominent Catholic educators of the country, died yesterday at Fordham hospital after a year's illness. Father Keane was for many years an instructor in Georgetown university, Washington. He was 44 years old.

CUT CRUDE OIL PRICE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 1.—Another cut in the price of crude oil was announced today at the opening of the market. New prices are: Pennsylvania crude, $1.50; Mercer Black and Newcastle, $1.35; Corning, $1.00; Cavell, $1.40.

The dwelling, barn and wagon shed owned by Warren T. Sweetser and located in Westford, were totally destroyed by fire Friday. The loss is estimated at $2500, it being partly insured by Fred C. Church.

pecially at a time when there are war clouds on the horizon."

The next speaker was Commissioner George H. Brown, who represented the city. He said that in watching the parade he had felt that the patriotic spirit shown by the cosmopolitan peoples taking part meant for America a bright birth. Mr. Brown said that the Grand Army, Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies' auxiliaries were doing much to educate and nurture a love of country.

After Commissioner Brown had finished, Toastmaster Hunt announced

Doctor Tells How to Shed Bad Complexion

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead of by surgical means, however, as the underlying cuts is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary medical wax will gradually absorb the offending cuticle. By degrees, a new, youthful skin appears; a skin soft and delicately tinted as a rose petal.

A lady need hesitate to try this. Procure an ounce of mercurized wax of the drugist. Spread on a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed. An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an ounce of powdered saloxite in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings prompt and remarkable results. Dr. H. Mackenzie in Popular Medicine.

Keep alive the spirit of patriotism, ex-

that upon him devolved the very pleasant task of decorating Comrades Geo. E. Worthen and Arthur Salmon with the insignia of honorary members. Both recipients expressed their appreciation of the honor conferred.

The final speaker of the evening was Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, D. D., who spoke in humorous vein, and concluded with "God bless you all."

The entertainment included very pleasing selections by the Mendelssohn male quartet and the Spindle City band and excellent readings by Mrs. Belle Harrington-Jail.

GARRANZA AS PRESIDENT

ASSUMES POSITION OF PROVISIONAL MEDIATORS—WILL DEMAND THAT MEDIATORS GIVE IN

EL PASO, June 1.—Advices from Durango yesterday say Gen. Venustiano Carranza virtually has assumed the position of provisional president of Mexico, an action he has persistently refused to take heretofore, although urged to do so by his political advisers.

Carranza, it is announced, will immediately establish the provisional government in the city of Saltillo and will demand of the Niagara Falls mediators that they give into the hands of the constitutional provisional government the work of establishing a permanent government in Mexico.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

LOWELL, MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1914

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

SUITS Marked Down

ALL ODD SUITS SELECTED FROM OUR STOCK TO CLOSE OUT TODAY AT $10.00

Among them are suits of superb quality serge, poplin, wool crepe, Bedford and other popular weaves, in misses' and women's sizes; only one or two suits of a kind in most cases. They're nicely tailored and good in every respect—all this season's most approved styles. Marked down from $18.50, $22.50 and $25.00.

Suits and Coats Marked Down to

$5.00

One reel of about 20 suits and 20 coats, marked down to close out. Original prices: $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00.

BALMACAAN COATS

$7.50

Original Prices: $10.00 and $12.50

About 50 Balmacaan coats in mixtures and black and white checks, marked down to close out. Original prices $10.00 and $12.50. Monday

CLOAK DEPT. SECOND FLOOR

UNDERPRICE BASEMENT

DRY GOODS SECTION

Special for Today

6000 YARDS OF FINE RATINE AT HALF PRICE—Just received from the mill, 6000 yards of fine ratine remnants, printed in very handsome patterns, also plain colors; remnants easily matched in dress patterns, very popular fabric for summer wear, 19c value on the piece, at only

CHILDREN'S SOCKS—75 dozen children's socks, mill samples at half price, full fashioned, spliced heel and toe, large variety of combinations of colors, 25c value, at

READY-TO-WEAR SECTION

MERRIMACK STREET BASEMENT

RIPPLETTE PETTICOATS—Petticoats made of best quality of cream ripplette, 50c value, at

CHILDREN'S DRESSES—60 dozen children's dresses, odd lots from the manufacturers, made in the latest styles, fine ginghams, galateas and line, $1 to $1.50 val., at 79c Each Bright, Sears & Co.

WYMAN'S EXCHANGE
Bankers and Brokers

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

Southern Div.		Portland Div.
To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston
Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30
6:45	6:45	6:45	6:45
6:55	6:55	6:55	6:55
7:05	7:05	7:05	7:05
7:15	7:15	7:15	7:15
7:25	7:25	7:25	7:25
7:35	7:35	7:35	7:35
7:45	7:45	7:45	7:45
7:55	7:55	7:55	7:55
8:05	8:05	8:05	8:05
8:15	8:15	8:15	8:15
8:25	8:25	8:25	8:25
8:35	8:35	8:35	8:35
8:45	8:45	8:45	8:45
8:55	8:55	8:55	8:55
9:05	9:05	9:05	9:05
9:15	9:15	9:15	9:15
9:25	9:25	9:25	9:25
9:35	9:35	9:35	9:35
9:45	9:45	9:45	9:45
9:55	9:55	9:55	9:55
10:05	10:05	10:05	10:05
10:15	10:15	10:15	10:15
10:25	10:25	10:25	10:25
10:35	10:35	10:35	10:35
10:45	10:45	10:45	10:45
10:55	10:55	10:55	10:55
11:05	11:05	11:05	11:05
11:15	11:15	11:15	11:15
11:25	11:25	11:25	11:25
11:35	11:35	11:35	11:35
11:45	11:45	11:45	11:45
11:55	11:55	11:55	11:55
12:05	12:05	12:05	12:05
12:15	12:15	12:15	12:15
12:25	12:25	12:25	12:25
12:35	12:35	12:35	12:35
12:45	12:45	12:45	12:45
12:55	12:55	12:55	12:55

Sunday Trains		Portland Division
To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston
Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30
6:45	6:45	6:45	6:45
6:55	6:55	6:55	6:55
7:05	7:05	7:05	7:05
7:15	7:15	7:15	7:15
7:25	7:25	7:25	7:25
7:35	7:35	7:35	7:35
7:45	7:45	7:45	7:45
7:55	7:55	7:55	7:55
8:05	8:05	8:05	8:05
8:15	8:15	8:15	8:15
8:25	8:25	8:25	8:25
8:35	8:35	8:35	8:35
8:45	8:45	8:45	8:45
8:55	8:55	8:55	8:55
9:05	9:05	9:05	9:05
9:15	9:15	9:15	9:15
9:25	9:25	9:25	9:25
9:35	9:35	9:35	9:35
9:45	9:45	9:45	9:45
9:55	9:55	9:55	9:55
10:05	10:05	10:05	10:05
10:15	10:15	10:15	10:15
10:25	10:25	10:25	10:25
10:35	10:35	10:35	10:35
10:45	10:45	10:45	10:45
10:55	10:55	10:55	10:55
11:05	11:05	11:05	11:05
11:15	11:15	11:15	11:15
11:25	11:25	11:25	11:25
11:35	11:35	11:35	11:35
11:45	11:45	11:45	11:45
11:55	11:55	11:55	11:55
12:05	12:05	12:05	12:05
12:15	12:15	12:15	12:15
12:25	12:25	12:25	12:25
12:35	12:35	12:35	12:35
12:45	12:45	12:45	12:45
12:55	12:55	12:55	12:55

Sunday Trains		Portland Division
To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston
Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30	Low. Arr. 6:30
6:45	6:45	6:45	6:45
6:55	6:55	6:55	6:55
7:05	7:05	7:05	7:05
7:15	7:15	7:15	7:15
7:25	7:25	7:25	7:25
7:35	7:35	7:35	7:35
7:45	7:45	7:45	7:45
7:55	7:55	7:55	7:55
8:05	8:05	8:05	8:05
8:15	8:15	8:15	8:15
8:25	8:25	8:25	8:25
8:35	8:35	8:35	8:35
8:45	8:45	8:45	8:45
8:55	8:55	8:55	8:55
9:05	9:05	9:05	9:05
9:15	9:15	9:15	9:15
9:25	9:25	9:25	9:25
9:35	9:35	9:35	9:35
9:45	9:45	9:45	9:45
9:55	9:55	9:55	9:55
10:05	10:05	10:05	10:05
10:15	10:15	10:15	10:15
10:25	10:25	10:25	10:25
10:35	10:35	10:35	10:35
10:45	10:45	10:45	10:45
10:55	10:55	10:55	10:55
11:05	11:05	11:05	11:05
11:15	11:15	11:15	11:15
11:25	11:25	11:25	11:25
11:35	11:35	11:35	11:35
11:45	11:45	11:45	11:45
11:55	11:55	11:55	11:55
12:05	12:05	12:05	12:05
12:15	12:15	12:15	12:15
12:25	12:25	12:25	12:25
12:35	12:35	12:35	12:35
12:45	12:45	12:45	12:45
12:55	12:55	12:55	12:55

LOCAL NEWS

Best printing: Tobin's, 250 N. Main.

Real estate at public auction and private sale. C. E. Keyes. Phone 1133.

Bargains in trimmed and Panama hats. The Bonquet, 1000 Bridge street.

Miss Mary Bernard of 101 Fletcher street has returned home from St. John's hospital where she underwent a successful operation.

Fred C. Church carried the insurance on the building in the name of C. L. Gregory, 101-12 Cedar street court.

Owing to the holiday Saturday, the "Man in the Moon" will be held over until today, and "Lady Lookabout" will appear on Wednesday.

Mr. John J. Manchester of Willow street has engaged the C. A. Sweetser cottage at Nahant for the summer. Mr. Manchester and family will return to Lowell late in September.

A small fire on the Tremont street bridge, which started in a pile of dust, called out the members of Engine 4 about 8:45 o'clock last evening. No damage was done. A fire which started from an overheated chimney in a house in Cedar street court at 10:20 a. m. Saturday gave the members of Engine 1 a short battle, but the blaze was extinguished before any serious damage was done. The house is owned by Mr. Grosvenor.

Wolfgang P. Cairns, Jr., who was surprised last Friday evening when a number of his friends assembled at the home of Edmund J. Desmarais in Lakeview avenue and presented Mr. Cairns a fine quartered oak roll top desk. The presentation was made by Rev. J. H. B. Cairns, Jr., M. D., a former classmate of Mr. Cairns, in behalf of those present, who were all members of St. Joseph's college alumni of which Mr. Cairns is president. Mr. Cairns responded in fitting terms and the evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. A musical program was in order and refreshments were served. At the close of the evening a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Desmarais for their hospitality. The arrangements for the evening had been looked after by Mr. Desmarais.

Pupils of William McAlister gave a piano recital at the home of 221 Elm street, Saturday afternoon, at which parents and friends of the young musicians were present and invited guests. The pupils who took part and acquitted themselves beautifully were: Anna Kiefer, Walter Kiefer, Max Kiefer, Henry Corey, Nora Kiefer, Madeline Kennedy, Arthur Whitson, Anna Shaugnessy, Mary Eagan, John Hickox, Helen Quinn, Harvey Ashworth, Anna Leary, Anna McConary, John Leonard, Anna Mahan, William Harrington, Anna Dunn, Veronica McDermott, Ethel Winslow, Ella McDougall, Arthur Spencer, May Corey, Mary McDougall, Anna Grady, James Pollard, Mary Quinn, William Simpson and Grace Tobin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brodie of 17 Lawrence street observed the silver anniversary of their marriage at their home, 57 Lawrence street, a number of their most intimate friends being present. Light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Brodie were married in this city May 23, 1889, by Rev. O. E. Malloy and have lived here ever since. Mr. Brodie is a carpenter by trade and worked as a journeyman up to a couple of years ago when he went into business for himself. They have three children, Alfred, a pupil at the Moody school and Marion and Thomas, who are both stenographers. Mr. and Mrs. Brodie received a number of handsome pieces of silverware with the best wishes of all their friends.

While riding his bicycle up Central street shortly after noon, Saturday, John Deot of Lawrence was struck and knocked down by an automobile owned by a man named John Lacroix. The accident occurred near the corner of Jackson street and the force of the collision tossed Deot into the air and he landed on his face. He was taken into Goodale's drug store and later removed to St. John's hospital where his injuries were treated.

Floyd Jones, colored, was arrested Saturday forenoon while riding a bicycle through the South common and brought to the police station where he was looked for larceny of the bicycle from the Y. M. C. A. building on Friday evening. It is understood that the boy confessed to stealing the wheel and after hearing his story the police placed him in charge of Charles H. Richardson until Friday morning when he will appear in the juvenile session of court.

WELL KNOWN ARTIST DEAD
NEW YORK, June 1.—William Philip, formerly a well known artist of this city, died today at the home for disabled soldiers at Kearney, N. J. He was 57 years old.

At the beginning of the Civil war Mr. Philip was in Paris, France, studying art. When he learned that hostilities had begun he returned to America and enlisted in the first New York mounted rifle. He served as quartermaster of the staff of General Butler of Lowell, Mass.

An ideal day, one of the finest parades ever held in Lowell, fitting exercises at the Ladd & Whitney monument and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Next in line came the Lowell company and the chief marshal's staff. Then came Tabor's Sixth regiment band, Bert F. Tabor, conductor, and the local companies of the National Guard, Companies M and N, in command of Daniel M. Christian, in command; J. M. Melvin Master, G. Capt. Walter R. Jones and C. 6th regiment, Capt. George W. Peterson. The four companies made a fine appearance and Co. G greatly outnumbered the others. The men wore the blue dress uniform and white gloves and Captain James N. Greig of Co. K was acting major of the battalion.

Lowell, Anna Mahan, William Harrington, Anna Dunn, Veronica McDermott, Ethel Winslow, Ella McDougall, Arthur Spencer, May Corey, Mary McDougall, Anna Grady, James Pollard, Mary Quinn, William Simpson and Grace Tobin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brodie of 17 Lawrence

ANOTHER HOLE IN THE PARK COMMISSION

Dr. Mignault Resigns and Sends Caustic Letter—Says Board is Useless if Not Malignant and Should be Amputated From the Government

There's another hole in the park board. Dr. Mignault has resigned and that means a pretty big hole for Dr. Mignault is a pretty big man. The municipal council may endeavor to patch the hole at tomorrow's meeting of the municipal council. Dr. Mignault's letter of resignation reached Mayor Murphy's office this forenoon and it is "some" letter. The doctor doesn't think very well of the board and in the language of his profession, declares that it should be amputated. This very serious operation he turns over to the mayor and other members of the municipal council, stepping out himself, he says, to render the operation less difficult and perhaps less painful. The letter:

Lowell, Mass., June 1st, 1914.
To His Honor the Mayor and the Honorable Members of the Municipal Council of the City of Lowell.
Gentlemen: After a year's study and service as a member of the park commission of Lowell I have come to the conclusion that said commission is a useless, if not an actually malignant, appendix to the government of the

Continued to page ten

MT. LASSEN IN ERUPTION

NEW CRATER OPENED IN SIERRA NEVADA—ASHES COVER THE GROUND FOR THREE MILES

REDDING, Cal., June 1. Mount Lassen, a peak in the Sierra Nevada between Plumas and Shasta counties, Cal., is in eruption.

A new crater has opened in the side of the mountain with lateral fissures running in all directions. Ashes cover the ground for three miles.

Large boulders have been vomited from the crater. A cloud of smoke and steam hangs over the mountain.

IT WAS A DIFFERENT HORSE
In Friday's paper it was erroneously stated that Agent Richardson's horse ran away on East Merrimack street. The runaway was a different animal. Agent Richardson never leaves his horse unhitched.

REDS WANT ROESTNER
CHICAGO, June 1.—The Cincinnati Nationals are trying to obtain Pitcher Roestner from the Chicago Nationals. The Cincinnati Reds have made a tentative offer but said the deal was not complete.

GAMES POSTPONED
New England at Lewiston—Lewiston-Haverhill game postponed, rain.
New England at Lynn—Worcester-Lynn game postponed, rain.

ARE YOU AWARE

THAT THE MECHANICS
SAVINGS BANK

202 Merrimack St.
Is the only Savings Bank in Lowell where money deposited now will draw interest from June 6th.

Present Rate 4%
A. G. CUMMINS, Pres.
C. H. CLOGSTON, Treas.

For 65 Years

City Institution for Savings
LOWELL, MASS.
Never paid less than 4%
Interest begins July 11
CENTRAL STREET

CHALIFOUX
CORNER

We run "A Complete Men's Clothing Store"; always did, always will—a store where a man can choose a suit, a coat, a raincoat, a pair of pants, a hat, a tie, a collar, a pair of shoes, a pair of suspenders, a shirt, a pair of socks, a belt, an umbrella—anything men need in the clothing line, and you don't have to pay us outlandish prices for the things you buy here. We are out for volume of business; our object is to sell you something that will make you want to come again. Try our goods—they're great—best for the money you ever saw.

Chalifoux's

First Communion
Photos

25 Per Cent. Discount

The Marion Studio
Chalifoux Building

TUBERCULOSIS
CAMP OPENS

The tuberculosis camp of the Lowell General Hospital opens Wednesday next, June 3rd. A special examination for entrance to the camp will be held tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock. Hereafter there will be an examination every Thursday morning at eleven o'clock until all vacancies are filled.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE
MASS MEETING

ASSOCIATE HALL,
Tomorrow Night, 7:45

Hear Mrs. Teresa Crowley, Mrs. Maud Wood Park, Mrs. Winona H. Pinkham and other notable speakers.

MEN ESPECIALLY URGED TO ATTEND.

From Official Figures

taken from the last report of the Bank Commissioner, the MERRIMACK RIVER
SAVINGS BANK
417 MIDDLESEX STREET,
Shows the

LARGEST SURPLUS

In proportion to its deposits of any savings bank in Lowell.
October 31, 1913:
Deposits$2,882,735
Surplus 252,461
Per Cent. of Surplus.....8.90

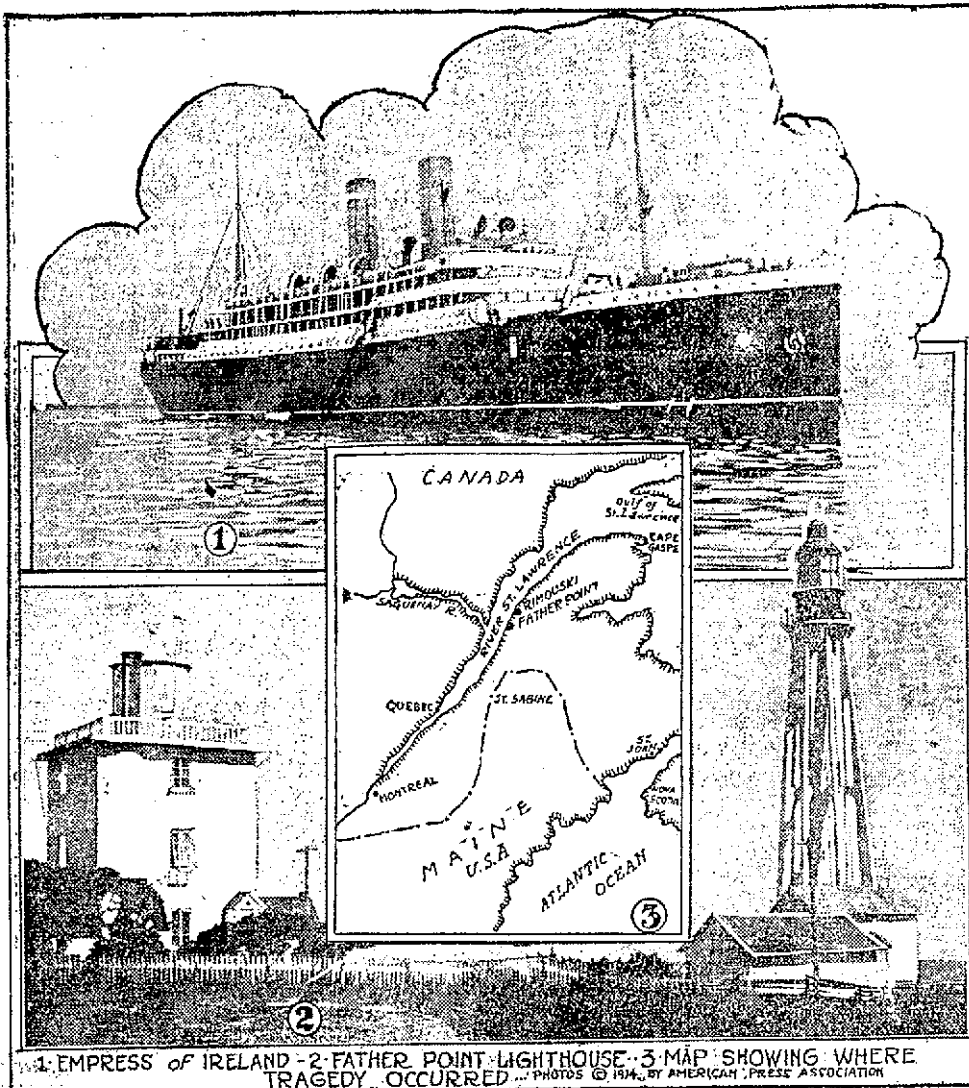

The past six months show a substantial increase over these figures. All new accounts are welcome and former

TRADERS BANK DEPOSITORS will find this bank a particularly desirable one in which to deposit their dividends.

Established 1871—43 years of successful business.

Present Rate 4%

N. G. LAMSON, President,
F. E. JOHNSON, Treasurer.

INQUIRY INTO DISASTER
WHICH COST 969 LIVESBritish and Canadian Governments
Cooperate to Fix Responsibility for Empress of Ireland Disaster — 100 of 188 Bodies at Quebec Identified —Wife of Capt. Anderson of the Storstad Tells of Collision

MONTREAL, June 1.—The sharp point of an anchor projecting from the twisted bow of the Norwegian collier Storstad may explain why that vessel did such terrible execution when she rammed the Empress of Ireland early last Friday morning in the lower St. Lawrence. An examination today of the collier's shattered plates revealed the anchor jammed in a position where it could have ripped through the hull of the Empress like a great can opener. The anchor points and portions of the battered steel surrounding it bore stains of blood.

Preparations were begun here today for inquiry into the disaster which cost at present reckoning 969 lives. The inquiry will be conducted by a joint committee of Canadian and British shipping experts. The arrangements for the inquiry, which will be held either here or in Quebec are being made

Wear Glasses

FITTED BY
EVERETT R. MERRILL
OPTOMETRIST & OPTICIAN
137 Merrimack St. Up One Flight
Gold Filled Glasses at $3.00

ELCHO

10-CENT CIGAR
HON. JOHN F. FITZGERALD Says:

"The Elcho Cigar is the best 10-cent cigar in New England because it is a pleasant blend of choice Havana and Sumatra leaf."

DRISCOLL & FITZGERALD
Sigs. Boston

by Captain Lindsay, Dominion wreck commissioner.
Pilot Nault, who navigated the Storstad up the St. Lawrence from Quebec said today that Captain Kendall told him that Anderson, his first officer and Pilot Lechance who brought the Storstad from Father Point to Quebec were on the bridge at the time of the collision.

One of the officers of the Storstad said today:
"At the time of the accident I was lying in my bunk. I was awakened by a shock and at first thought a ship had struck a rock. I ran to the deck and looked over the side. The Storstad was going full speed astern. The water around was filled with struggling men and women shouting for help. Boats were immediately lowered and there was not a man on the Storstad who did not do his utmost to help rescue the people in the water. We in the boats brought the survivors to the deck of the Storstad. From there they were taken into the engine room, the warmest place on board. Some of the survivors had been so numbed by the ice cold water that they leaned up against the cylinders of the engines until their flesh was blistered."

GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATION

AT QUEBEC ON JUNE 9
MONTREAL, June 1.—The government investigation of the sinking of the Empress of Ireland with the loss of 969 souls will be held in Quebec and will begin Tuesday, June 9. This announcement was made today at the offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., owners of the lost vessel.

The investigation will be conducted by a board composed of two judges of the Canadian admiralty to be appointed by the Dominion government and one member of the British admiralty appointed by the Imperial government.

IMPOSSIBLE TO SALVAGE

EMPRESS OF IRELAND
QUEBEC, June 1.—Commander Tweedie of his majesty's ship Essex which has been aiding in the search of the bodies has declared today that he believed it was impossible to salvage the Empress of Ireland. He expressed the belief that the hull of the Empress will have to be blown up with dynamite to prevent it from becoming a menace to navigation.

The services of marine divers of the Essex have been offered to the owners of the Empress. These divers may be used in an effort to recover

Continued to page eight

SEALED VERDICT GIVEN

IN CASE OF McKEARNEY VS. BRADEN—O'DOWD VS. STREET RAILWAY OPENED

Prior to the noon recess of the civil session of the superior court today the case of McKearney vs. Braden was given to the jury and at the opening of the afternoon session a jury was empaneled in the case of Henry O'Dowd vs. the Bay State Street Railway Co., an action of tort, to recover for alleged damages caused to the automobile of the plaintiff in an accident which occurred at the corner of Westford and Smith streets on Oct. 12, 1912. The plaintiff claims that while his servant, Victor H. J. Bello-Jelle, was crossing the car in operating the automobile, a car of the Bay State Street Railway Co. collided with the said automobile and badly damaged it. The damages claimed are $2000. The jury went out on a view of the premises where the alleged accident occurred and court adjourned until tomorrow morning.

James Stuart Murphy appears for the plaintiff and Trull & Wier for the defendant company. Shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon the jury in the case of McKearney vs. Braden rendered a sealed verdict which will not be opened until tomorrow morning.

Miss Ella Burke, the well known milliner, in showing a number of very attractive and fashionable light summer hats that should be seen by all the ladies. They are well worth inspection. Call at her display room, Ballard building, Palmer street, up one flight.

Third Edition
MERRIMACK RIVER BILL PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED

$1,000,000 Measure Provides for Widening and Deepening of River From its Mouth to Hunt's Falls at Lowell, the Appropriation Being Conditional

BOSTON, June 1.—The one million dollar Merrimack river development bill was passed to engrossment by the house this afternoon on a voice vote.

The bill provides for the widening and deepening of the river from its mouth to Hunt's Falls at Lowell, the appropriation being conditional upon congress granting an equal amount.

OIL TANK CATCHES FIRE

MANCHESTER, N. H., SHAKEN BY EXPLOSION OF BURNING FLUID IN THE RAILROAD YARD

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 1.—At 10:50 last night the city was shaken by a terrific explosion resulting from the ignition of the contents of a crude oil tank containing crude oil estimated at 1200 gallons. The tank was in the Boston & Maine yard and the oil was being warmed up before changing it to a distribution car.

It is supposed a spark from a fire kindled nearby, set the oil. The top of the tank was lifted many feet into the air. The oil scattered over a broad expanse and the flames at one time mounted to 15 and 20 feet in height.

Arthur Mechar, 33 years old, residing at 407 Rimmer street, an employe of the city, was standing near the tank at the time of the explosion, and was covered with burning oil. His face, head, shoulders and arms were severely burned. He was carried to a hospital where his name was placed on the dangerous list.

The fire department quickly extinguished the fire caused by the explosion, the damage resulting from this source being trifling.

LOCAL NEWS

Arthur and Arnes Dehette, sons of the late Arthur Dehette, left this morning for Worcester, where they will go into the furniture business.

The many friends of Mrs. Joseph Lechance will be grieved to learn she is confined to the Lowell hospital where she will undergo an operation, this to be the third within a year.

Mr. Trahan and Miss Eva Trahan and William Trahan from Central Falls, R. I., are the guests of Mrs. J. B. Roy, 274 High street, this city. Miss Blanche Carpenter from Pawtucket, R. I., is here for the summer months. The visitors arrived in Lowell Saturday night coming over the road in two automobiles.

Robert Campbell, head engineer and general utility man at the Bon Marche department store, will leave for Scotland tomorrow to enjoy a well earned vacation. His home is in Scotland.

LOWELL and
LAWRENCE

Rapid Transit Line

Pleasure, speed and comfort combined. Amos P. Best, president of the new motor bus line between Lowell and Lawrence, announces his running schedule between the two cities. The big motorbus, clean and comfortable as a touring car, will leave from the corner of Palace and Bridge streets, weekdays as follows: 5:30 a. m. and promptly on the hour until 7 p. m. and then every half hour. The last car for Lawrence will leave at 11:00 p. m. and the last car from Lawrence to Lowell at midnight. The early morning car is for the accommodation of Lowell people employed in Lawrence. Cars will stop at Stanley's on the Merrimack, going and coming. Sundays and holidays the cars will run every 35 minutes. Through fares each way 15 cents. To Stanley's, 10 cents.

THE LOWELL FIVE CENT
SAVINGS BANK

ESTABLISHED 1864

The first dividend in liquidation is now being paid by the Traders National Bank.

These in receipt of this dividend are invited to open an account in The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank, Corner of John and Merrimack streets. Deposits placed on interest the first Saturday of July.

Deposits over $5,000.00. Surplus and interest over $40,000.

AUSTIN K. CHADWICK, President,
CHARLES A. RICHARDSON, Treas.

land and everybody at the Bon Marche wishes him bon voyage. A delegation will see Mr. Campbell off to the land of the thistle and they will give him something to think about as he plows the raging main. Sometime during the trip across he will send a wireless to Lowell.

DEATHS

GALEZOWSKI—Adolf Galezowski, aged 26 years and five months, died this morning at his home in Dracut. He is survived by a wife.

SOLEWSKI—Joseph Solewski, aged 27 years, died Saturday at his home, 3 Front street. He is survived by a wife. Funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the home and service was held at the Holy Trinity church. Rev. Stanislaus Ogonski officiating. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

LOWELL AT PORTLAND

In the third inning of today's game between Lowell and Portland at the latter city the score was 1 to 1. Each team scoring in the opening session. The batteries for Lowell, Lohman and Greenidge for Portland, Williams and Hayden.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

Your Back Porch

Do your ironing on your back porch.

Try it tomorrow.

Take home an electric flat iron today.

Lowell Electric Light Corp.

50 Central Street.

UNIQUE MEXICAN ALBUM DR. MOSES G. PARKER

Property of Frank Holecek—Spoke Upon President Lincoln to Graphic Story of Ancient Aztec Dracut Audience at the Yellow
Ruins and Civilization Meeting House Last Evening

The Sun office had a very interesting visitor a few days ago in the person of Mr. Frank Holsack, a native of Bohemia, now working as a printer at the Merrimack Co. office. Mr. Holsack, who resides at 21 Fourth street, is a man of culture and education, and the object of his visit to this office was to give his impressions and views of Mexico, where he resided for 15 years, coming from there to Lowell about seven years ago. His opinions on Mexico and the Mexican situation are by no means superficial. For besides his knowledge of Spanish and English, and his personal experiences of many years' duration, he is thoroughly versed with the ancient and modern history of Mexico, its methods of government, the causes that led to its present state of disorder and the characteristics of its people. He has made a special study of the ancient ruins and has collected in the beautiful remains of a lost civilization, and in his residence in that country he gathered together many beautiful samples of Aztec art, some of which he brought to The Sun office. He also brought an intensely interesting album of pictures depicting the grandeur and the gloom of ancient and modern Mexico, its wonderful tropical vegetation, its primitive customs, its strange types in which Spanish and Indian are blended, its beauty, its rich, its gorgeous cathedrals, its patient mules and donkeys laden with pulque, and its beautiful women.

Some of the most interesting pictures, without tedious and tiresome use of ancient cutaneous of the Aztecs and Incas, tunneled under the mountains and with rows of grinning corpses standing in horrible array. The clothing has dropped to dust during the centuries, and the shrieked bodies stand, in shrunken nakedness, some grinning in a ludicrously horrible fashion. On looking at these pictures for a few moments is glad to turn to the lovely samples of symbolical art in the next page.

"Mexico, in 1848," commenced Mr. Hoke. "I left Bohemia and went to Mexico to follow my trade as calico printer, taking up my residence at Atlixcoates, not far from Poncebato. The climate there is wonderfully beautiful, and I got to love the country so much that I returned home, married, and brought my wife back to Mexico. We took a pretty little place at Orizaba, about 100 miles from Mexico City. The climate there is medium, and the vegetation is partly tropical. Mexico City is built on a high plateau rising gradually from Vera Cruz, and the trains from the seaport to the capital climb gradually up and up in a serpentine groove. In the plains, coffee and oranges grow in profusion; above on the plateau it is cool and the vegetation is quite different." Here Mr. Hoke took his album to show the groves of Mahoe trees at Orizaba, from which the natives make the national drink, a species of cacao wine. "Great plantations of these trees are to be seen on all sides," he said, "for the Mexicans are passionately fond of the fermented juice. The trees take 10 or 12 years to come to maturity. The bark is used as a dye for the famous red dyes. Little Elsewhere do I find trees and is sold at a very high price. The lower orders in Mexico are almost always drunk."

The Ancient Aztec Ruins

Going back into ancient Aztec days, and even earlier, Mr. Holzeck, continuing, "I do know that when the Spaniards came to Mexico Bay found a wonderfully developed civilization, art, science, and rich remains that drew the best artists of the world. Jewels, ornaments and the arts were practiced. In all the world there are not more beautiful ruins than are scattered there in the wilderness, and the preciousness of carving, statuary, and metal work recovered show marvelous skill and artistry. Here he produced a number of magnificent gold, silver, and little decorative arts and objects. His statement, "There," he said, "were recovered from old Indian tombs, and from the pyramids many of which are now covered with the as-

CRAZY WITH BURNING ITCHING ECZEMA

Face and Arms Entirely Covered,
Scratched and Caused Sores,
Clothes Irritated. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

R. F. D. No. 1 Mallette Bay, Vt.—"I suffered very much with eczema on my face and arms. It broke out in pimples and my face and arms were entirely covered with it. When I first noticed that I had it my face would itch and burn by spots. Sometimes it would itch so badly that I would scratch the pimpled and chapped areas. I resorted to therapy with the burning and healing of it. My clothes became so very much and I had to purchase my next suit so that my clothes would not touch the spots. I had one more on my arm as large as a 25-cent piece and it caused me very much trouble."

"I used two or three ointments which were recommended to me, but none of them helped me much. I was treated with ointments for over a year, but nothing helped. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I noticed my head and arms with Cuticura Soap twice a day, and also applied the Cuticura Ointment twice a day. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and a half box of Cuticura Ointment. I used them seven weeks and I was entirely cured."—Sister, Miss Nettie M. Carvaze, June 30, 1913.

Children who have shampooed with "Cuttara Soap" will find it best for skin and scalp.

cumulations of centuries and with palms and ferns growing on them. Diaz did a great deal to restore the old monuments. Noticing that two hills near Mexico City were unnaturally symmetrical and apparently artificial, he had the soil dug away, and two beautiful pyramids were revealed, splendid examples of the masonry of the old races. Within them were discovered many fascinating altars and beautiful remains. They are now known, as they were in the ancient days, as the pyramids of the Sun and the Moon.

When the Spaniards came to Mexico, all this magnificence was, of course, taken no interest in the country or its people and caring only for its wealth they despoiled and ravaged the great cities, broke down the standards of a lofty civilization and commenced the misrule that has resulted in the wretched Mexico of today. In Miraflores I worked with 50 or 60 Mexicans, most of whom could read or write. I used to teach them to read and after work I would give them a lesson in English. When I saw samples of the culture of the old order, I was filled with pity that there were no schools or practically none and that the arts were forgotten and lost!

Maximilian's Regime

Mr. Holck then reviewed the short regime of Maximilian for whom he has the highest respect, owing to the racial connection and the sympathy which the story of the brave and unhappy emperor will arouse in any student of Mexican affairs. In the allusion to the famous and picturesque of the sumptuous state of the emperor and ruler, and the place of his execution, Mr. Holck wears an opal tincture in the vicinity. He thinks that had Maximilian lived, he would have made Mexico prosperous and happy, for he was establishing schools, hospitals and modern systems of government.

Mr. Holck then said the interested student of Mexican affairs, which to impress on you the fact that for domination, Mexico will be a lawless and miserable country until this country takes charge as it did in Cuba and in the Philippines. To conquer Mexico would be a hard job, for the country is assailed by many but guerrilla warfare, and the many hands could have the advantage. Villains are only a handful, and most of the other generals are of the same type. The masses do not know the real situation and they follow their leaders blindly, not knowing and not caring what will be the result. To see what American interference would do for Mexico one would only have to compare the Vera Cruz of 15 years ago to the Vera Cruz of today. Now Vera Cruz is a modern and a beautiful city, due to American influence. We now hope that eventually America will intervene in Mexico for it is a rich and beautiful land with a thoroughly disorganized people.

INFANT SORE AND CHAFED

HEALED BY COMFORT POWDER
Mrs. C. M. Goff, a Trained Nurse of Taunton, Mass., says: "I recently used Comfort Powder on an infant that was very sore and chafed and it was quickly healed. I find Comfort Powder a sure preventive and cure for chafing, offensive perspiration and soreness and a perfect skin healing powder."

Dr. Moses G. Parker delivered a discourse upon President Lincoln to the people of Davenport at the Yellow Meeting House last evening. The doctor, with his experience in the Civil war, the occasion on which he met Lincoln, and the impressions received by the great statesman. He spoke in part as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: I am greatly pleased to be asked to speak to you this evening, for I was born in Davenport, grew up here and practiced medicine among you.

One of the earliest things I remember is coming to this church with my mother and father and sitting in a big pew. I was so little I could not see it. This was in the Old Yellow Meeting House, which was later burned. I remember the upper part being used for church services and the lower part for meetings, lectures and other things.

You have invited me to give some personal recollections of Abraham Lincoln whom I had the honor of meeting on several occasions.

I cannot think of this great man without associating him with George Washington.

Washington was educated with the best care—Lincoln educated himself. Washington owned thousands of acres of land—Lincoln not one. Washington owned 150 slaves—Lincoln none. Washington liberated his slaves at his death—Lincoln liberated all the slaves in the United States before his death. They were both large men, Washington weighed 220 pounds, Lincoln 5 ft. 2 in. without his high heels. As he himself said, Both had large heads, large hands, large hearts, and large brains. Both great moral giants and far-sighted leaders and were by the greatest presidents this country has ever seen.

SOME KNOWN FACTS

ABOUT RHEUMATISM

There are many things that are still unknown about rheumatism. The treatment of it is still far from satisfactory. Doctors realize this but nobody is more fully aware of it than the sufferers themselves.

A tendency to rheumatism once established, the pain often returns with every change of weather, showing that the person is still in the blood and needing favorable conditions to become active and cause trouble.

One fact is known and acknowledged by all medical writers and that is: the rapid thinning of the blood when the rheumatic poison invades it. Building up the blood is the best remedy for rheumatism as the enriched blood is able to overcome or throw off the

A book, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free on request by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. It contains directions regarding diet, baths and hygiene for rheumatic patients.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists everywhere.

That you may know how I came to meet President Lincoln I propose to give you a short history of my army life.

After attending lectures at Long Island Medical college and Bellevue Medical college in New York, I graduated from Harvard Medical college, March, 1864. The next week I passed both the army and navy medical examinations and was immediately assigned as Surgeon General Dole to the 57th Massachusetts regiment, then in camp near Worcester.

waiting for my uniform. General Butler telegraphed to Dr. Kimball of Lowell to send three surgeons,—my name being mentioned as one of these. I was transferred to Fortress Monroe and was immediately mustered into the United States service for three years as assistant surgeon of the 2nd Cavalry and was ordered to join the regiment there.

The first night I slept in a hammock overcoats and boots on. It rained hard and in the morning there was from two to three inches of water over the swamp, making it impossible to remain longer. Col. Cole ordered the regiment out into higher land even the risk of bringing on an engagement which it did, and the fight at Sunset followed; then back to Fortress Monroe for a review and march up the Peninsula, stopping long enough at Yorktown to see the old revolutionary battlefields and the old revolutionary

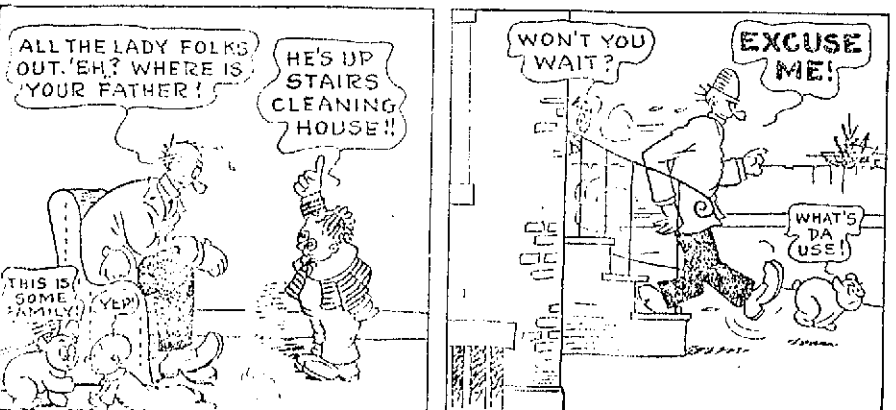

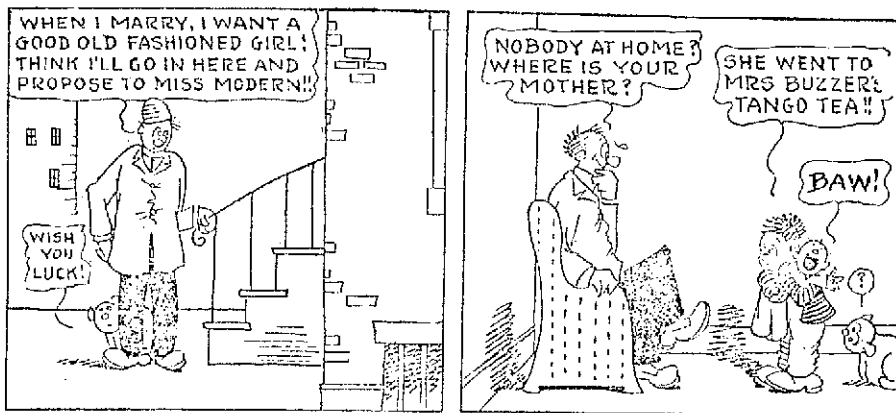

Next day we went on to Williamsburg where we camped on the old battlefield of 1862. Soon we were ordered to the peninsula to check the enemy. This we did on the Chickahominy river with a small fort on the Richmond side. The two colored regiments were drawn up in line of battle to charge. Nearly a mile over a level plain, a fort on the opposite side of the river.

Captain Dillard had dismounted his company of colored cavalry, fouled the ground up and at a given signal sent him the word to get to the knoll. Meanwhile, the colonel, some officers and orderlies were grouped on a small knoll to witness the advance. Soon I heard a zip-zip-zip and said "They are at it again." The colonel laughed, saying "Yes, they are young and have not learned their lesson." I did not reply as our orderly then fell from his horse wounded. I had him carried to the safe side of the knoll where the colonel and I sat and noticed that the colored and white followed to see me. I saw the wound and then later watched the movement from this comparatively safe place.

When the signal was heard, the negroes were bravely made up to the rescue of the river. The Confederates, feeling safe in their knowledge that the cavalry could not cross the river, mounted their ramparts ringing their bats and shouting, "on, on black devils. You will come off the river devils. You are fools." So intent were they in their belief that they did not notice Captain Willard entering the rear of the fort, unobserved, and with a cry of "Port Blow," the tables were turned. The Confederates, of whom one was left to tell the tale. Only a few colored men were killed and three wounded.

The speaker told of meeting Lincoln and his men and gave his impressions of the great man. The talk was interesting throughout.

EXCUSE ME

KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

WOMAN HURLED TO DEATH WHEN CAR SKIDDED AND CRASHED INTO HOUSE

WORCESTER, June 1.—Mrs. Ebenezer Dewing of Norwood street, Sharon, who lived for many years in Revere, was almost instantly killed just before 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when the automobile in which she was returning to her home from Monson skidded off the state highway at Collier's Corner, near Leicester, broke through a wooden fence, crashed into the front door of Samuel Shepard's home and turned turtle.

The other occupants of the car, Miss Sarah Dewing of Sharon, daughter, and Miss Margaret Dewing of Revere, a grand-daughter, and Earl Brown, owner of the car and who was driving, were all injured.

Miss Margaret Dewing expected to be married at her home in Revere next Sunday.

The automobile was badly smashed and damage of several hundred dollars was done to the house.

The car was going down a steep grade when the accident took place. Brown said he was driving about 15 or 20 miles an hour. The road had been recently oiled and was slippery. The car apparently got away from Brown on the decline and rapidly picked up speed. Suddenly it skidded to the left and smashed through the white wooden fence, shot across a stretch of lawn and hit the front door.

of the Shepard house, driving it in and breaking the windows.

Mrs. Dewing was hurled to the ground, her skull was fractured and she lived barely two minutes.

Miss Margaret Dewing was thrown from the car, her left leg was sprained and her left arm hurt. She also suffered several scalp wounds. Miss Sarah Dewing had a cut on her left cheek and wounds on the head.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ATTEMPTS LIFE OF INFANTA
BILBOA, Spain, June 1.—Infanta Maria de la Paz, the aunt of King Alfonso, had a narrow escape from serious injury as she was leaving church yesterday.

A woman, who later was found to be insane, attempted to dash a powerful acid in her face, but was prevented from doing so by the police. On her examination she declared that she was a princess and had intended to punish the woman who had usurped her place.

C-O-A-L

For light, medium or strong drafts. Coal from the leading mines constantly arriving, clean and fresh, at lowest prices.

ORDER NOW AND PAY LESS THAN YOU WILL LATER

WILLIAM E. LIVINGSTON CO.
15 THORNHILKE ST. FAIRFIELD, CT.

BUNTING ATHLETIC MEET

CAPT. PHILIP McNULTY
PresidentFRED HUMPHRIS
Of Athletic Committee

Best Ever Held in Lowell—Marathon Seen by 25,000—Duffy Won Ten Mile Handicap Race

Jim Duffy, the Sligo runner, now residing at Hamilton, Ontario, lived up to his reputation as the world's greatest long distance runner Saturday afternoon when at the formal opening of the new Bunting Athletic Club park, he easily showed his heels to Fred Fuller and Tom Lilley of the North Dorchester A. C. in a special ten mile handicap race. Beating Fuller a quarter of a mile and Lilley 600 yards, Duffy cantered past the post in 57:26. The Marathon champion had given Fuller a start of 350 yards and Lilley one of 220. Lilley was a member of the last American Olympic team and a year ago finished third in the Boston Marathon. Fuller is a distance runner of note.

The air was exceedingly sultry and the track somewhat soft when the starter sent the men away. With the flash of the pistol Duffy bounded away and shot after Lilley, the nearer him. Before the 5 minutes and six seconds in which he completed the first mile had elapsed he had compressed the distance between himself and Lilley materially. Stride after stride he ate up space and after having covered three miles was running shoulder to shoulder with the Olympic athlete. Soon he was a stride ahead, then another, and finally left Lilley far in the rear.

During the progress of this athletic duel the crowd had a splendid opportunity of sizing up the famous Irish Canadian. He was the personification of speed and endurance. Like a fully adjusted piece of mechanism, with rhythmic legs and with head as erect as that of a thoroughbred, he raced around the five lap track, never tiring for an instant. His dark hair, flashing black eyes and bronzed skin were contrasted with the white, immaculate athletic suit with its resplendent maple leaf upon the breast. It would require but little imagination to set the young Irishman in another age and another civilization and to see in him one of the ancient Olympians whom the ancient Greek historians have immortalized.

While the packed stands and grounds were urging Duffy on, Fuller running with rare judgment, was being pulled along by Lilley, who, a few steps in front, acted as pacemaker. Even to the uninitiated it was evident that the two Bostonians were working together in an effort to defeat the youngster from the land of the shamrock and of the maple leaf. Duffy, however, loped along and was content to take things easy and give the crowd an exciting finish. He did this with two miles to go. Duffy started a really run. Faster and faster flew his legs, nearer and nearer drew Fuller and Lilley. As he raced after the Bostonians Duffy seemed to be possessed of the stride of the gentleman with the seven leaved boots. With more than a half a mile still to go he tore along like a greyhound, flashed by the tired Boston twain and cantered smilingly around the oval to an easy finish.

The Irish Canadian flyer apparently has a predilection for winning races on Decoration day for it was on that day of last year that in a ten mile race of 35 in the shade and in intense humidity he easily defeated a field of over one hundred New York athletes in the great Tonkers A. C. Marathon of that city.

25,000 Saw Marathon
Festus J. Madden, another Irishman but from South Boston, won the 13-mile Marathon race from Lawrence to Lowell without encountering any serious opposition. His time was 1 hour, 26 minutes and 42 seconds. Arthur H. Roth of Dorchester and Roy Davis of Exeter, N. H., third. The finishing of none of these men, however excited the interest of the crowd as much as that of Billy Salmon, a 52-year-old runner, who captured sixth place and was the second oldest man to finish. The gray haired runner received a vociferous welcome as he entered the grounds and when he finished he was enthusiastically congratulated by Jim Duffy, the Marathon champion.

His remarkable showing. All the other runners finished strong and in good condition. Their names and positions follow:
Fourth—F. Barnby, Methuen.
Fifth—Albert Nobes, Lowell.
Seventh—Fred Couture, Lowell.
Eighth—John O'Neill, Forge Village.
Ninth—James F. Carr, Lowell.
Tenth—George McAlpine, Methuen.
Eleventh—George Goddard, Lowell.
Twelfth—Richard Hayes, Salem.
Thirteenth—John N. Barnby, Methuen.
Fourteenth—Herbert Dennett, Lowell.
Fifteenth—William Groves, Forge Village.

Twenty-five thousand people, scattered between the Bunting park and the Lawrence Y. M. C. A., saw the Marathon runners toil over the 13-mile distance. Twenty runners started. From the crack of the pistol Madden led the field with Roth, Davis and Ticoni of Lawrence well up at five miles. Following these were Couture of Lowell, William Salmon and Nobes of Lowell, McAlpine, Goddard, Carr of Lowell, O'Neill and Groves of Forge Village and Hayes, Snelder and Dennett of Lowell. When Stanley's have in sight a light rain spattered the ground and made running much less exhausting. At the first street hill Madden was leading Roth by a comfortable distance, with Davis third Ticoni had dropped out. As Madden entered through Merrimack square past The Sun office he was given a great cheer by about 200 people in the vicinity. He smiled and plucked forward. Up the long hill on Central street the rangy Irishman toiled and then jogged with easy stride into Lawrence street. At every intersecting thoroughfare and from every house he was given enthusiastic welcome. Madden entered the Bunting grounds with a lead of 200 yards over Roth and another 200 over Davis. He kept until he crossed the tape. Roth was a very tired boy on finishing, having nothing left but his indomitable grit.

The Track Events
The results of the track events follow:
One mile handicap—Won by Spicer, North Reading; 2nd, McNeely, Boston; 3d, Stuart Dickson, Lowell.
220 yards hurdle—Won by W. H. Meanix, B. A. A.; 2nd, A. M. Bowser, Lynn; 3d, Cecil Dodge, Lowell.
100 yards handicap—Won by W. H. Meanix, Boston A. A.; 2nd, George Nicholson, Methuen; 3d, George C. Lihoe, Lowell High School.
50 yards sack race—Won by George Nicholson, Methuen; 2nd, Thomas L. Hartley, Lowell; 3d, R. B. Greens, Duxbury, Mass.

One mile relay—Won by B. A. A. team; 2nd, Lowell picked team; 3d, Lawrence picked team.
Mr. Thomas Thompson, trainer of Jim Duffy, was invited by the Bunting club to act as official judge. The work was not new to Mr. Thompson, who is an old-time athlete himself.

Mayor Murphy Presented Prizes
Mayor Murphy presented the prizes to Duffy, Madden and the other winners and place-getters. His Honor congratulated Duffy and the other athletes on their victories and expressed the hope that they would win many more. Besides the mayor, Commissioners George H. Brown, Charles J. Morse, James E. Donnelly and James H. Carmichael were present.

High Praise for Buntings
In the opinion of Jim Duffy, who has competed in and witnessed many of the world's largest athletic meets, that conducted at the Bunting Cricket & Athletic association was one of which the people of Lowell should be proud. Such, too, was the opinion of Mr. Thompson, his trainer, and of Madden and all the other athletes who can appreciate a well conducted athletic meet. The prizes were of far greater value than those given by the average athletic club and were appreciated by the visiting Boston athletes. As an old-time athlete the lower remarked when he left the grounds "the Bunting pulled off the biggest athletic meet this Decoration day that has ever been attempted in Lowell."

Welcome to Duffy
Jim Duffy, the world's champion marathoner from Hamilton, Ont., who so decisively won the ten-mile handicap race at the Bunting park Saturday afternoon was welcomed to Lowell Friday night by Mayor Dennis J. Murphy and Commissioners Morse and Brown. The reception was held in the parlors of the New American hotel. In a casual address Mayor Murphy congratulated Mr. Duffy on his wonderful success as an athlete and he also spoke in a most complimentary manner about the good work being done by the members of the Bunting club. At the conclusion of this Mr. Duffy was presented to the large gathering, thanking them for their kind expressions and shook hands with all.

After the gathering had dispersed he and his trainer, Mr. Thompson, with some friends, were the guests at Keith's theatre. Friday afternoon the marathon champion and Mr. Thompson took in the New England league game at Spaulding park and were shown every courtesy by Managers Gray and Hurkett. Duffy, who is a ball player of no mean ability himself, enjoyed the game immensely and had much to say in commendation of the work of the local players. Saturday morning he and Mr. Thompson looked over the athletes at the Y. M. C. A. games on the South common, both gentlemen being warm in their praises of the work of instilling a love for athletics into the younger generation. It was at a set of such games as these, Mr. Duffy said, that he first realized he had some capabilities as an athlete.

After winning the ten-mile race Mr. Duffy and his friends were the guests of Mr. Thomas Hoban of the Richardson hotel. In his large touring car, Mr. Hoban showed the party all of the attractive spots of Lowell, so that when the visitors return to Canada they will tell their friends of the beauty of the Spindle City and its environs and of the hospitality of its people.

BUNTING NOTES
After the sports Jimmie Duffy and his manager, Mr. Thompson, were the guests of Proprietor Thomas H. Hoban, at the Richardson hotel. They left for Boston on an early evening train, returning direct to Hamilton, as Duffy is to run in a five-mile race at Kingston, Ont., on Wednesday.

It wouldn't have been a Bunting affair without Sam Dean on deck. Sam is a most energetic worker.

The water department auto containing Commissioner Carmichael and others struck a small boy and knocked him over. Fortunately the child was going at a snail's pace and the youngster was not injured.

REV. ROSARIO JALBERT

CELEBRATED HIS FIRST MASS AT ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH ON SUNDAY MORNING

Rev. Rosario Jalbert, O. M. I., son of Mr. Napoleon Jalbert of St. James street, this city, who was ordained to the priesthood at Boston Saturday by Rt. Rev. St. Joseph Anderson, celebrated his first mass at St. Joseph's church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The church was literally filled for the occasion, a large number of the young clergyman's relatives and friends being in attendance.

Fr. Jalbert was assisted by Rev. Joseph Poldue, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Bro. Louis Bessard, O. M. I., as subdeacon. The master of ceremonies was Rev. C. A. Piquette, O. M. I., pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Bro. Meritt, O. M. I. The sermon was delivered by the pastor of the parish, Rev. J. H. Stacere, O. M. I., Ph. D., who, before Fr. Jalbert's entrance, gave the subject, "St. Joseph in Aeternum." The clergyman dwelt on the duties of a priest and spoke at length on the sacrifices the young priest must be called upon to make. He also congratulated the young priest's mother who occupied a front row, and in behalf of the parish he extended Fr. Jalbert his best wishes.

The choir under the direction of Telephore Maitre rendered Turner's St. John Baptist mass, the solo being sustained by E. J. Dunham and Arthur Gileau. At the offertory Miss Clementine Simard sang "Gloria in Excelsis." Mrs. J. A. Bernard presiding at the organ. At the conclusion of the mass a family dinner was served at the home of the young priest's mother, Mrs. Jalbert, 27 James street.

END WAKEFIELD STRIKE

COMPANY AGREES TO INCREASE WAGES—END A. F. OF L. MEN ACCEPT TERMS

BOSTON, June 1.—The strike at the Heywood Brothers & Wakefield rattan factory practically was settled last night when the 600 A. F. of L. members adopted a plan devised by Commissioner Charles C. Wood of the state board of conciliation and arbitration. The plan is substantially the same as the one rejected by the strikers last week, except that definite assurances are given that there shall be an increase in wages and that the men return to work. The men will return tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT OF ST. MARY'S
ST. MARY'S, Kms. June 1.—The Rev. William J. Wallace, S. J., formerly of St. Xavier college, Cincinnati, Ohio, was installed as president of St. Mary's college today. He succeeds the Rev. Aloysius Green, S. J., president for the last seven years.

RESOLUTE AND VAUVE
NEW YORK, June 1.—Two of the three cup class yachts, the Resolute and Vauve, today were ready for the first trial contest in the long series of races which will be held in August for the selection of a defender of the America's cup. The third yacht, the Defender, will not be prepared to meet her rivals until the last of the week, perhaps not until June 15, owing to radical alterations which are being made to her hull.

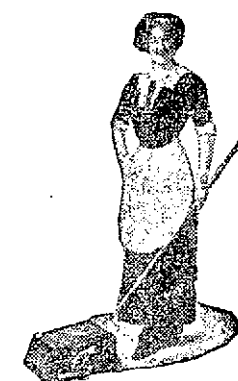

Fair weather with moderate westerly winds was the prediction for tomorrow's contest.

HONOR GERMAN AMBASSADOR
BALTIMORE, Md., June 1.—Count H. H. Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will be given the honorary degree of doctor of laws, and Henry R. Evans of the bureau of education of Washington will receive the degree of doctor of letters at the annual commencement this afternoon of the university of Maryland.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

The unusual values offered at this opening of JUNE SALE are worthy of the attention of every economical house wife and home furnisher, and they are but a foreword of the bargains which we shall bring to your attention during the next thirty days.

JUNE CLEARANCE SALE
RUG AND DRAPERY DEPT.

SWEEPER-VAC.

The Best Known
VACUUM AND CARPET
SWEEPER

made for your home cleaning without spreading dust throughout your house, guaranteed, easiest to operate, can be used individually, Vacuum or Sweeper, $9.50 and $12.00

Vacuum
Sweeper
Domestic

Combination with sweeper attachment, rubber cushion tires, ball bearings, extra fine suction and easy running at the special low price$10.00
Pleased to demonstrate same.

Lace Door Panels—Slightly soiled, sample, white, cream and Arab.....25c to 98c Each
Regular price 50c to $2.00.
Also a fine assortment from.....98c to $2.00 Each

Ready-Made Sash Curtains—Good quality, white muslin, 36 in. wide, 29 in. long, figured or plain hemstitched, ready to slip on rods.
25c a Pair
8 different styles to select.

Ready-to-Hang Laces for Sash Curtains—The latest patterns—
97 1-2c Madras.....25c a Yard
48c Madras.....35c a Yard
25c Scotch Lace.....19c a Yard
35c Scotch Lace.....25c a Yard
48c Scotch Lace.....35c a Yard
These are made in new panel design and very handsome for windows.

Plain Scrim—40 in. wide, perfect, in white, cream and Arab, regular 15c to 19c grade,
10c a Yard
For all kinds of curtains.

Fancy Woven Borders—Curtain Scrim, regular 15c to 19c goods.....12 1-2c a Yard
White, cream and Arab

Madras Lace—Genuine Imported White and Eern, nothing made to hang that will wear better—
29c quality, 36 in. wide.....19c a Yard
35c quality, 36 in. wide.....25c a Yard
30c quality, 36 in. wide.....29c a Yard
42c quality, 36 to 40 in. wide.....35c a Yard
49c quality, 36 to 45 in. wide.....42c a Yard
59c quality, 45 in. wide.....45c a Yard
62c quality, 48 in. wide.....49c a Yard

Some very fine designs being used for the Shirt Waists.....62c to 89c a Yard

500 Yards New Fancy Scrim—Hemstitched border effect or fine insertion effect, goods that sell everywhere 37c to 49c a yard. Special clearance prices.....25c and 35c a Yard
These are all new and perfect goods.

Upholstering—Repps and Tapestries,
49c to $2.50 a Yard
All 50 in. wide and fast.

BIGELOW CARPET MILLS

Continued

all Mass. there were evidences that a transaction out of the ordinary is under way. None of the executive officers were at the local office and it was said there that they would return today, although they whereabouts was not made known, nor was any explanation of the absence of so many officials at once given in some of the departments. It is said unofficially, however, that a number of the overseers and head clerks in the various departments of the Hartford Carpet company have been sent to the mills in question to assist in the taking of inventories there and this report is borne out in part by the fact that several automobiles containing houses and other employees of the local company were seen in the vicinity of Main street early yesterday afternoon, presumably about to set out on the trip to Lowell or Clinton. It is further rumored that special inventories in some of the departments of the Hartford Carpet company have been ordered to be completed before Tuesday night.

Rumor of the reported deal spread rapidly in the village and much interest was created, there being much speculation as to what affect the transaction, if consummated, could have on the working of the local plant. It is anticipated, however, that the creasing of the holdings of the Hartford Carpet company would improve the local industrial conditions rather than cause any suspension of operations in local departments. It is said that officials of the Hartford Carpet company have been closely watching the Clinton and Lowell mills for some time.

The Hartford Carpet company is the town's leading industry, employing in the neighborhood of 300 hands. During the recent business depression when many textile plants throughout the country were providing little work for their operatives, the local plant was in much better condition and worked much longer hours a week than in most places, although for a few weeks the mills here operated on short time. Immediately when free wool came in, however, the company sent agents to New York and other cities to rush shipments through to Thompsonville and hundreds of cars of wool were received here daily for some time, since which time operations at the mill have continued uninterrupted on full time.

TWO KILLED

BOSTON, June 1.—Two men were killed and five others dangerously injured by an explosion of sewer gas at the East Boston sewage pumping station today.

UTILIZE "PLUCKED" MEN

REP. BRITTEN WANTS NAVAL OFFICERS RETIRED BY "PLUCKING" BOARDS TO EARN THEIR PAY

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Assenting that naval officers retired by "plucking" boards now draw pay of nearly half a million dollars annually without giving any return to the government, Representative Britten of Illinois planned to introduce a bill today to authorize the secretary of the navy to utilize the services of officers who have been "plucked." Representative Britten who is conducting a fight in congress to eliminate the naval plucking board says it is not only unbusinesslike and unnecessary, but decidedly unfair to the government which educated the officers at great expense to have to pay these "plucked" without any return.

The bill which would amend the navy personnel act of 1899, provides that officers who are plucked in the future would not be permitted to draw retired pay without performing service.

THE GILBRIDE CO.

PLAN TO BUY

Summer
Wash Goods
THIS WEEK

The values we have gathered for the coming week will acquaint thousands of women with the fact that we have here for your selection, the best styles and values the world has to offer, due to our aggressive merchandising methods.

- 12 1-2c Flowered Organdies. Special value.....10c a Yard
- 27 Inch Crepe, all colors. Special value.....12 1-2c a Yard
- 25c, 40 Inch Costume Voile, all colors. Special value 19c a Yard
- 19c Fancy Ripplette, fast colors. Special value, 12 1-2c a Yard
- 39c Bates Crepe, fancy plaids and Roman stripes, remnants from 2 to 5 yards. Special value.....19c a Yard
- 30c, 40 Inch Chiffon Crepe, all colors. Special value 25c a Yard
- 19c Mercerized Pongee, all colors. Special value.....10c a Yard
- 20c Fancy Waistings, warranted fast colors. Special value, 19c a Yard
- 19c Linen Finish Suiting, in all the leading colors. Special value, 12 1-2c a Yard
- 25c, 27 Inch and 31 Inch Fancy Ratine, fast colors. Special value15c a Yard
- 35 Inch Fabric De Laine, its texture avoids the awkwardness of added clothing to underline the sheerness of summer fabrics. Its special adaptations are for suits, gowns, coats and trimmings. We carry all the leading colors, regular price $1.00. Sale price69c a Yard
- 36 Inch White Ratine, regular price 59c. Sale price 39c a Yard
- 27 Inch, 36 Inch and 45 Inch Imported Dress Linens, all colors. Special value.....25c, 39c and 50c a Yard
- 27 Inch and 45 Inch Embroidered Batiste, regular price 69c and $1.25. Sale price.....50c and $1.00 a Yard
- 27 Inch, 36 Inch and 45 Inch Imported White Crepe. Special value.....25c, 39c and 59c a Yard
- 30 Inch Cross Bar Nainsook, imported, regular price 50c. Sale price29c a Yard
- 27 Inch Silk Flowered Crepes, regular price 59c. Sale price 29c a Yard
- 45 Inch Imported Dress Patterns, regular price $1.50 and $5.00. Sale price$3.25 and $3.49 Each

RUMORED TRANSFER OF BIGELOW CARPET MILLS

The Hartford Carpet Corporation the Alleged Purchaser—The Stock Has Recently Jumped From 155 to 186—The Connecticut Story

Rumor has it that the Hartford Carpet Corporation has purchased the Bigelow Carpet Co. in this city and Clinton. Judging from the reports from the different quarters interested there would seem to be considerable foundation in fact for the rumor. H. G. Wadley, agent of the Bigelow Carpet Co. in this city, admits that there are many rumors current but he could not state that they were true.

It is stated, however, and has not been denied, that General Manager Alvin D. Higgins, Supt. Charles L. Wilson, Purchasing Agent H. B. Erwin, Traffic Manager Julius Roth and 15 expert carpet men of the Hartford Carpet Corporation, have been in Lowell for the past few days engaged in taking inventory.

The general expectation is that the contemplated deal will be consummated, James M. Abbott, banker and dealer in stocks and bonds, with offices in the Wyman Exchange building, said he had heard rumors of the transaction, but had received several telephone calls from Boston concerning it, but was not in a position to verify it. He said that 186 1/2 was on Bigelow Carpet stock as against 155 three months ago or before the death of Agent Paulsen. "I think it will be very difficult," said Mr. Abbott, "for the Bigelow Carpet Co. to find a man to fill Mr. Paulsen's shoes and the deal is contemplated I think would be a good thing all around."

The following story concerning the reported purchase comes from Thompsonville, Ct. While it was impossible here today to secure confirmation of a report that the Hartford Carpet Corporation of the purchase of the large Bigelow Carpet manufacturing plant in Clinton and Lowell.

Continued in page three

ATHLETES AND ATHLETICS

Jimmy Duffy can't run a mile but can he? It was amazing to watch Jimmy Duffy, Fuller coach after Lilly realized that he would not have a chance to win. "You're holding your own and he can't win on you," Duffy said. Duffy to Fuller as the two men passed the spot where Tommy Thompson, Duffy's manager, was standing. "Jimmy will bring you down in another mile," announced Thompson, and he was right for Duffy's legs began to stretch out on the next lap and Fuller was a beaten man. The Canadian made a great impression on all those who saw him in action.

With a pitcher of "Buck" Weaver's hitting ability a pitcher will not be in much demand by the locals. "Buck" could be used in the outfield, too, on a pinch for he has performed in the outer garden before joining the Lowell club.

Lack of co-operation is the reason why last year's champions are being so many more than expected. Individually the team is very good on a footing with the club up around top, although they are not hitting the ball as hard as they should. Nevertheless they have scored the home runs with frequency enough to stand much higher in the race than the bottom placed team that was the only draw-back.

Dehson who started off for the Y. M. C. A. against the B. A. A. has a great race, beating his opponent by 10 yards. Dehson ought to be able to run a fast quarter. He has a good stride and is strong enough to ensure a finish.

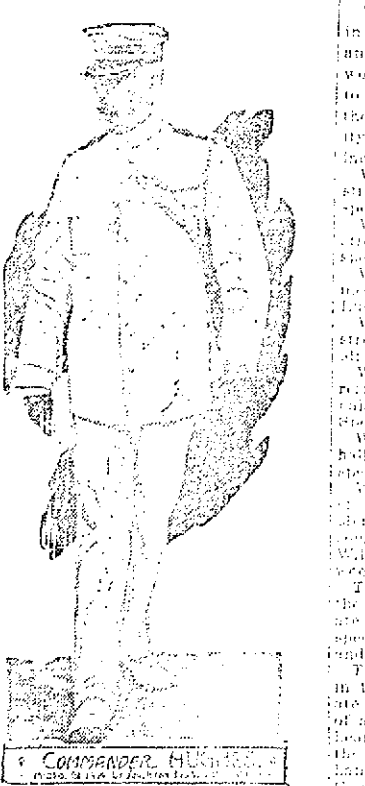

The club left this morning for a four days' trip to the two Maine cities, Portland and Lewiston. It is their first trip by the way, and here's hoping that it is an effective one for their standing.

The release of South Saturday night was expected. South has not been hitting and has shown no adaptability around the second base. Ed Nash, who was signed up to take his place, was all the ball. Gray has been now that he will have to make several very effective shifts in his lineup before winning the required results.

There has been some talk of putting in Mathewson from the outfield and the position of the team today.

COMMANDER OF MARINES A SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN

VERA CRUZ, June 1.—Commander Charles F. Hughes is taking a prominent part here in the naval

COMMANDER HUGHES
is taking a prominent part here in the naval

MANY RALLIES ARRANGED FOR THIS CITY TODAY AND TOMORROW

The chairman of ward committees in charge of the suffrage rally today and tomorrow, have done splendid work, and the meetings are expected to develop a great deal of interest in the suffrage work in Lowell and vicinity. For today, the schedule of meetings is as follows:

Ward 1 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 2 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 3 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 4 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 5 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 6 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 7 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 8 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 9 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

Ward 10 (Morning) 9 o'clock, Mr. T. J. Connelley, speaker.

GIVE LIVES FOR OTHERS

THREE YOUNG MEN JUMP INTO RIVER TO LIGHTEN BOAT AND DROWN

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Sacrificing their lives in order that the lives of four companions, two of them girls, might be saved, three young men, none of whom could swim, leaped into the Delaware river from a sinking launch late Saturday night and drowned. The story of their sacrifice was told yesterday by the survivors. The dead were John Monahan, Raymond Timney, and John Murphy. The saved are: John Monahan, Raymond Timney, and John Murphy. The saved are: John Monahan, Raymond Timney, and John Murphy.

The party visited Crater Hill, on the New Jersey side of the river, yesterday and hired a large rowboat. There were more than 100 yards from the shore when a warning came that the boat was rapidly sinking. Despite their efforts to bail the boat, it became evident that unless the load was lightened the boat would sink before the shore could be reached. So Timney, Monahan, and Murphy sprang overboard.

In spite of the heroic sacrifice, the boat continued shortly after the three men had disappeared in the water and the four other occupants were thrown into the river. Nevill and German clung to the overturned craft, grasped the sides and were about to sink and both men said the party was rescued by a motorboat.

AGREES TO NURSE LEPER

VETERAN OF SPANISH WAR VOLUNTEERS TO ACCOMPANY COMRADES INTO EXILE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 1.—When physicians at the Soldiers' home at West Allis definitely determined last week that an inmate, Vernon D. Bennett, was a leper, they called for volunteers for the position of nurse to him. Yesterday Fred W. Curtenious, another inmate, announced he would take the place. Curtenious, like Bennett, served through the Spanish war.

In accompanying Bennett into exile, which the latter's isolation in a shack for the leprosy means, he practically renounces the world and physicians say that after years he probably will contract the disease.

Ten veterans of the Civil war also volunteered to nurse Bennett.

STRUCK ON HEAD BY BALL

ROY MENNIS DIED A FEW MINUTES AFTER HE HAD BEEN HIT IN BASEBALL GAME

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

PORT WORTH TEXAS, June 1.—Roy Mennis, 35, died yesterday a few minutes after he had been struck on the head by a ball in a baseball game between two amateur teams.

HORSE RACING EVENTS

DOLLY C. WINNER OF FREE FOR ALL

Fine Sport on Boulevard Enjoyed by Crowd of Over 2000 Persons—Record of the Events

Over 2000 persons witnessed the horse races at the Pawtucket boulevard Saturday afternoon and everybody enjoyed them. The races were held under the auspices of the Lowell Driving club and the club has every reason to feel proud of its endeavors. Horse racing is coming back in Lowell just as sure as there's trouble in Mexico. The Lowell Driving club is made up of live wires and the club is going to put horse racing on its feet in Lowell. The club has resolved to do that and all that is needed is a good track.

The boulevard course is very punk and some of the racers Saturday didn't like it the least little bit. There were too many stones and holes for fast time or comfort but it was great sport just the same. Lowell has a whole lot of good horses and some very promising colts of which more will be said later. Each winner, Saturday, was presented a handsome cup and while no money was at stake the drivers were just as anxious to "nose in" as though it were a grand circuit race.

The list of events was as follows: Class D pace, seven heats—Won by Robert B. Sullivan; second, Billy Boy; third, Lexington Belle; Daigle. Class B pace, three heats—Won by Denny D. Senecal; second, McKenna; third, Christina Belle; Condon, third. Class A trot, five heats—Won by Cock Robin; Greenhalge; second, Bessie P. Provender; third, Jimmie B. Barnard.

Free for all trot, four heats—Won by M. E. Hazlewood; second, Hoppy; third, Kenwood Belle; Newton. Class C trot, three heats—Won by Lady Prelacy; second, Prudential; third, Varnum; third, Blondie Wilkes; Dewel. Class B trot, three heats—Won by Sillito; second, Costello and Barney; second, McVey; third, Major, Moran. Class A trot, three heats—Won by Imperial Rose; Varnum; second, Robert A. Irving. Class B trot, three heats—Won by Jackson, Greene; Cochato, Barrett; (drawn).

Free for all race, three heats—Won by Dolly C. Healey; second, County Bear. Class A pace, four heats—Won by Peeler; second, Senecal and McKenna; second, John W. Kemp; third, Sweetness, Dimodana. Class B pace, five heats—Won by Nelson Gilbert; second, Cymbal; third, Bessie Sheldon; Senecal. Class A pace, five heats—Won by Johnny Brown; Titus; second, Jasper; Senecal; third, Dirl, Miller.

The following very capable officials had charge of arrangements: Starter, Oscar Dewel; judges, Ray S. Frost, Secretary and J. S. Hanson, president of the driving club, and J. T. Denison. "Dolly C." was defeated "County Bear" in the free-for-all is the property of Austin Healy of Graniteville, has a mark of 2:15 1/2. She was sired by Ormond 2:05 and her dam was Kitty C. 2:24, by Captain C. Dolly C. has speed to burn and is always fresh as a daisy at any stage of the game.

Len, height 5 ft. 8 in.; Chase, second, 5 ft. 10 in.; Dehson, third, 5 ft. 6 in. Shot put: Won by Wrenn, distance 43 ft. 4 in.; Alexakos, second, 42 ft. 4 in.; Rones, 39 ft. 3 in.

One-half mile run: Won by Larrett; Messer, second and Florey, third. Time, 2:16 1/2 seconds.

Team relay race: Won by L. H. S. Haggerty, Cahill, Beale, Taylor, Dehson, Douglas, second Y. M. C. A. Gumb, Larrett, Pinck, Messer and Dobson. Time, 3 min. 39 sec.

Final score: L. H. S. 20; Y. M. C. A. 35; C. Y. M. L. 6. Mayor Murphy presented the prizes to the winners in the Y. M. C. A. hall Saturday evening and congratulated the athletes upon their success.

League Standing

N. E. League

Am. League

Nat. League

Fed. League

New England League

American League

National League

Federal League

League Standing

N. E. League

Am. League

Nat. League

Fed. League

New England League

American League

National League

Federal League

New England League

American League

National League

Federal League

New England League

Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight champion, is training in New York for his bout with Jack Britton, which takes place in New York next week.

The showing that Charley White made against Champion Willie Ritchie enables him to demand a bout with the champion over the marathon route for the championship of the world. From all accounts, White did about what he pleased with the champ and had him groggy on several occasions but could not slip over the final punch.

Bob McAllister and Jack Dillon will meet in Butte, Mont., June 13, in a 10-round affair. Dillon on past performances ought to win the popular verdict as no decision is given in Montana.

That draw at Turners Falls the other night looked like a case of not training hard enough on the part of Walter Mohr. Although Joe Phillips is a lively specimen of lightweight boxing, Mohr is the much better performer, for he can hit harder and oftener than the Providence boy. A few weeks ago Mohr gave Phillips a grand beating in his home state.

George K. O. Brown, the Chicago middleweight, demonstrated to Boston fight fans his superiority over Bob Mohr at the Atlas club when the twelve round bout was bally outclassed by the Greek slugger in all but two of the sessions. Brown used light hand sewing to good effect, the lower landing many times on Mohr's neck, jaw and face.

Wild Bill Fleming of Oldtown, Me., lost the decision in his fight Wednesday night with Mike Glover of South Boston at Webster. Fleming kept things even up to the sixth but Glover's stamina wore him down after the round. At the end of the 12th, there was no dispute as to who was the winner.

Evidently the Wolcott-Rivers bout for the fourth of July at Los Angeles has been clinched beyond dispute. Tom McCarey had quite a job coming to terms with the ex-champion but finally landed him. The bout will be run over the 20-round route and will probably draw an immense crowd.

The Porky Flynn-Joe Jeannette bout in Boston this week will pull a large attendance than it would have a few weeks ago on account of the fact that Porky handed out such a beating to Jim Johnson. There were few indeed who expected to see Johnson beaten. Jeannette, if he is in kind of shape, should beat Flynn but a rugged battle is looked for.

GOOD GOLF SATURDAY

PER COUNTRY CLUB HOLD NINE HOLE CONTESTS

The new course of the Mount Pleasant Golf club was opened for the first time Saturday by a driving contest and a selected nine hole play. W. O. Winsor won the former contest with a drive of 212 yards, while the second contest resulted in a tie between Benilton Mills, Howard Morton and T. C. Winsor, each taking 54 strokes for the nine holes.

A selected nine hole contest, medal handicap, was also played off at the Vesper Country club. The cards turned in were as follows:

	Gross	Hcp	Net
C. E. Farnsworth	35	9	26
J. C. Conwin	31	5	26
A. H. Morton	31	5	26
S. C. Blanchard	41	12	29
S. T. Whittier	39	10	29
W. L. Carter	38	7	31
John Kerr	41	10	31
J. A. Gutheim	41	10	31
O. Hockmeyer	38	7	31
C. L. Knapp	37	6	31
John Kerr	41	10	31
F. L. Bramhall	41	10	31
J. R. Armstrong	40	8	32
F. L. Allen	32	9	33
John Kerr	41	10	31
S. C. Clark	45	12	33
O. M. Chadwick	38	4	34
A. H. Sweet	41	5	36
Conley 25	43	8	35
G. E. McClintock	43	8	35
F. P. Hathaway	54	18	36
T. T. Clark	45	8	37

WON FROM CONCORD HIGH

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS GIVE NEW HAMPSHIRE LADS BAD THROUING IN 10-0 CONTEST

Lowell High swamped Concord High in their game in the New Hampshire city Memorial day afternoon by the score of 10-0, the home team refusing to continue the game after the eighth inning.

Hanson was on the mound for the local schoolboys and his work was excellent. His teammates connected for no less than 16 safe wallpops, all of which counted in the run-getting.

R. Richards, Duffy and Falls provided the batting features of the contest. The score:

Lowell High

Concord High

Totals

Concord High

Lowell High

Totals

Concord High

Lowell High

Totals

Concord High

Lowell High

Totals

Concord High

Lowell High

LOST BOTH GAMES

Lowell Defeated Twice by Lawrence in Holiday Contests

Lowell lost two games Memorial day to Louis Lawrence's pennant contenders, both contests being close. In the morning game at Spaulding park ten innings were required to decide the winner and in the afternoon Lowell threatened to turn the tables in the last inning. The score of the morning session was 1-1. Lawrence scoring three runs in the first half of the tenth. The afternoon game ended in a 5-4 victory for the downriver club. Shenk worked the first game and Weaver was on the firing line in the afternoon.

Umpire Black officiated, or rather attempted to officiate, in both games and his work was miserable all the way through. The majority of the poor decisions which he rendered were against the Lowell team, both here and in Lawrence.

O'Connell of Lawrence featured the afternoon game with six stolen bases, a new season's record for the league. "Buck" Weaver connected safely three times, one of his trips to the plate resulting in a double. The scores for both games:

(First Game)

Lawrence

Lowell

Totals

Lawrence

Lowell

Totals

Lawrence

Lowell

Totals

Lawrence

Lowell

Totals

Lawrence

Lowell

Totals

Lawrence

Lowell

Totals

Lawrence

Lowell

Totals

NEW ROCKINGHAM FAIR

ORGANIZED BY LAWRENCE MEN OF MAINE

LAWRENCE, June 1.—A new corporation has been organized under the laws of the state of Maine, for $250,000, in the name of Rockingham Fair company. A fair is to be held here between Sept. 5 and 12, and it is expected to be the most gigantic in New England. There has been some doubt in the minds of the people as to the ultimate outcome of this property.

After the mortgage was purchased the property last April the new organization was formed and F. M. Andrews was made president and treasurer. Attorney Paul R. Clay, clerk, and Chester J. Campbell, manager. Mr. Campbell has managed the Boston auto shows very successfully for the past few years and is considered the most efficient man in this line of work.

There is stock to be sold and none can be bought, and there is ample money to run the fair. It is understood that Mr. Andrews is acting for Edward F. Seales, the Methuen millionaire.

CARROLL BROS.

PLUMBERS and STEAM FITTERS

36 Middle St. Tel. 1650

5th—Macartney's Anniversary Sale—5th

THE FINALS

We have been having the preliminaries for the last eight days at a fast clip. Now for the grand climax, at full speed

Values Still Greater The Last Week Prices Still Lower

During the last eight days we have been selling good merchandise at exceptionally low prices. On account of the sale's great success and Saturday coming as it did on a holiday, we are running it one more week.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS EXTRA VALUES. EXTRA LOW PRICES

Various lots of merchandise have been practically cleaned out. All these have been filled in by better goods, taken from the next lot above. Still greater values in Men's Suits, all kinds in a big variety of extra quality fabrics.

MEN'S SUITS

$8. and $10 SUITS. Now.....$5.37	$15, $18, $20 SUITS. Now.....$14.37	The $15, $20 ad $25 Blues and Black Excluded.
$10 and $12.50 SUITS. Now.....$7.87	$18, $20, $22.50 SUITS. Now.....$16.87	SPECIAL—$10 and $15 Norfolks.. $7.87
$12.50 and $15 SUITS. Now.....$9.87	$22.50 and $25 SUITS. Now.....$19.37	SPECIAL—Extra quality Blue Serges; all models.....$10
$15 SUITS. Now.....$12.37	About One Hundred of Our Very Best Grades.....$21.87

HATS AND CAPS

SOFT HATS in extra quality, values $2 and $3 Hats.....39c, 3 for $1.00
CAPS—In good variety. Line of 50c Caps.....35c
Line of 50c CAPS.....2 for $1.00

GOOD BARGAINS IN CHILDREN'S HATS

STRAW HATS

Imported and Domestic Creations—All kinds of straw from the plain to the finest grade leghorn or panamas.....$1.00 to $4.95
A shape to fit every face and fancy.

BOYS' DEPT.

Greatest bargains ever offered in BOYS' SUITS, double breasted and Norfolk styles, at smashing prices.....87c, $1.87, $2.87
Lot of 25 SUITS, which were formerly as high as $6.00, double breasted, knickerbocker pants. Now.....87c
Lot of 50 SUITS, all wool, double breasted, cheapest suit, formerly sold for $5.00. Now.....$1.87
Lot of 100 SUITS, strictly all wool, lined pants, double breasted and Norfolk.....$2.87

FURNISHINGS

SHIRTS

Bigger reductions in Shirts—hundreds of good styles, all the newest and most popular fabrics, 50c and 50c Shirts, coat style, attached cuffs, made from fast color percales.....39c
$1.00 fine Negligee Shirts, made from Harmony percales, in all new fast colorings.....69c, 3 for $2.00
$1.50 and $2.00 Whitman Pride of the West Madras Shirts $1.09, 3 for $3.00

$1.00 and $1.50 Percale Shirts, the best wearing percale made into shirts; while they last.....79c, 2 for $1.50

HOSIERY

12 1-2c Cotton Half Hose.....7c
19c Silk Lisle Half Hose.....12 1-2c
50c Thread Silk Half Hose, 35c, 3 for $1.00
Ladies' 50c Thread Silk Hose.....45c

UNDERWEAR

25c Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers 19c
39c Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers 29c
50c Poroknit Shirts and Drawers 37c
50c Nainsook Athletic Sleeveless Shirts, knee length drawers.....37c
$1.00 Nainsook Athletic Union Suits.....74c
$1.00 Knitted Union Suits.....74c
$1.00 Poroknit Union Suits.....87c
50c Athletic Union Suits.....45c

NECKWEAR

25c Washable Four-in-Hands.....11c
25c Silk Four-in-Hands.....17c
50c All Silk Four-in-Hands.....29c
25c Boston Garters.....15c
25c Suspenders.....17c
50c Suspenders.....36c
50c President Suspenders.....36c
$1.00 Pajamas.....87c
$1.50 Pajamas.....$1.35

Copyright 1914
The House of Kuppenheimer

SPECIAL

We bought from a large manufacturer of boys' clothing several lots of High Grade Suits at less than one-half the former price, and will sell them during this Anniversary Sale at.....$2.87

MACARTNEY'S "Apparel Shop" 72 MERRIMACK STREET

MISS FOLEY DIDN'T SPEAK

Went to the Billerica Car Shops
But the Officials Did Not Care to Permit Campaigning

Miss Margaret Foley, the far famed leader of the suffragist party in Massachusetts, who was slated to speak at the Boston & Maine repair shops today was not allowed to speak by the officials of the shops. Their reason, which seemed only fair to Miss Foley, was that if they allowed her to speak they would be besieged with members of other suffrage parties. They did, however, allow her to distribute literature among the employees in the different shops.

"The woman's suffrage cause is gaining headway every day," she said, "and we expect that the year 1915 will see the women of Massachusetts marching joyfully to the polls with the members of their now warring sex. The women in those states have done towards raising the standard in politics and everyday conditions in life, they would not hesitate to vote to accord women the right to vote."

she thought of the methods of their English sisters, she replied that it was none of their business. "Here is one thing in which you will at least agree with me and that is that everyone knows that nothing was ever won off 'Johnny Bull' unless the people at first punched his head," she replied.

We are being told that the place for women is in her home. And what is expected of women. Merely to stay in her home and watch over and feed her children? Yes, that is one of her duties, but she is useless, if she cannot do something more and that something is to see to it that the food that her children eat is pure and wholesome. She must clean her home, but if her neighbors are allowed to live in dirt and filth she has no power to make them stop the odors and germs that permeate the air. And I could go on and relate proof after proof why women should vote, and see to it that man-made laws that have become antiquated be lifted up to the standard of modern times.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ST. ANTHONY'S

The Little Folks Danced
Pleasingly at Lincoln Hall

A charming May party in aid of St. Anthony's church was held Friday evening in Lincoln hall, with a large attendance present, including a great many children. The exercises of the evening, comprising a rose-march, Jap dance, old fashioned minuet, and other numbers, were delightfully carried out by the children, who were gownned in pleasing costumes appropriate to the occasion. Little Miss Katherine Shay made a most charming Queen of May, and her royal robes were greatly admired. Her maids of honor were Misses Elizabeth Reynolds and Dorothy McCarthy, while Misses Dorothy Eastman and Leona Boise bore the train of the little sovereign whose passage was cleared by very pretty flower girls in the persons of Misses Rose Connor, Mary McMahon, Annabelle Higgins and Marion Curtin.

The rose march was a delight to the eye, the various steps and evolutions being carried out with a grace and precision that reflected great credit to Mrs. M. A. Shea, under whose direction the little folks danced. Little Miss Helen Shea led the Japanese dance which was one of the features of the evening.

One of the most attractive numbers on the program was the minuet. In this dance 12 little "lots" participated, attired in the old time costumes of our forefathers. They were as follows: Helen Shea and George Sheehan, Muriel Rogers and John White, Madeline Day and Leo Kivell, Helen Guthrie and William Moran, Beatrice Vice and Cecilia Foley, Esther Ringwood and Helen Burns.

The refreshment table was in charge of Mrs. M. A. Shea. The ladies who served under her were Mrs. George Howers, Mrs. Cora Ray, Mrs. John McQuaide and Mrs. Thomas Moloney.

Too much credit cannot be given to Bishop Da Silva, who labored untiringly to make the event the success it was. In the morning his Reverence took part in the ordination in Boston, and in the evening at the party was busy listening to words of praise from his many parishioners. He undoubtedly went home a very tired man, Saturday he journeyed to Dorchester to be present at the confirmation of the children of many parishes.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

At the 8.30 o'clock mass yesterday in St. John's church, a class of 13 girls and 14 boys received their first communion. The boys were neatly attired with black suits and each wore a flower and the girls wore white veils and white dresses.

During the mass hymns were sung by the children. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Fr. Mitchell who, during the sermon, took occasion to speak to the children upon their first communion day being the happiest of their lives and one that would always be looked back upon.

The occasion also to thank the good Sisters of Notre Dame for the attention that had been given the children and also congratulated the children in having the sisters to instruct them. Previous to the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the afternoon the children were enrolled in the secular and the temperance pledge administered to them by Fr. Mitchell. The forty hours devotion will open next Sunday at 9.30 o'clock mass and close on Tuesday morning. The usual procession in honor of the Blessed Sacrament will be held at the opening of the devotion.

The opera, "A Nautical Knight," will be repeated in the town hall by the members of St. Catherine's choir, Grantville, for the benefit of St. John's parish on Thursday evening.

LEPER HUNT IN NEW YORK
NEW YORK, June 1.—Hottelman Island, a little patch in New York bay where the government isolates immigrants afflicted or suspected of having contagious diseases, was the scene yesterday of a leper hunt.

Angelo Magloras, a young Greek removed from the steamer Laccala, May 17, and held there pending deportation, was the leper. Before daylight he escaped from the isolation ward of the hospital, leaving behind a note in which he said that rather than run the risk of giving the disease to others he intended to drown himself. Marks of his bare feet were found leading to the beach and a row boat was set out to look for his body.

After five hours Magloras was found calmly watching the searchers from a hiding place among the boulders on the seawall.

LOWELL and LAWRENCE Rapid Transit Line

Pleasure, speed and comfort combined. Amos P. Best, president of the new motor bus line between Lowell and Lawrence, announces his running schedule between the two cities. The big motorbus, clean and comfortable as a touring car, will leave from the corner of Paige and Bridge streets, week days as follows: 5.40 a. m. and promptly on the hour until 7 p. m. and then every half hour. The last car for Lawrence will leave at 11.30 p. m. and the last car from Lawrence to Lowell at midnight. The early morning car is for the accommodation of Lowell people employed in Lawrence. Cars will stop at Stanley's on the Merrimack, going and coming. Sundays and holidays the cars will run every 15 minutes. Through fares each way 15 cents. To Stanley's, 10 cents.

ENDED HIS LIFE TO DEFINE A GENTLEMAN

John Norris, Formerly of Lowell, Shot Himself in Tyngsboro

John Norris, aged 68 years, who formerly conducted a wholesale grocery store on Market street, committed suicide at his home in Tyngsboro by shooting himself in the head with a .32 calibre revolver early this morning. His body was found by his wife a few minutes after the shooting and Medical Examiner Meigs viewed it a short time later and pronounced death due to suicide.

Mr. Norris was well known in this city as for many years he was a partner in the well known firm of Norris Bros., which did a wholesale grocery business on Market street. Some years ago the firm failed up and a short time afterward the deceased moved to a farm in Tyngsboro, near Montpelier, where he had lived ever since.

TUG CAPTURES SCHOONER
ON BOARD THE U. S. CALIFORNIA, Mazatlan, May 31, via wireless San Diego, Cal., June 1.—The tug Hercules, emboldened by his successes under cover of darkness last night when provision barges were captured entered Mazatlan harbor today and captured the schooner Garibaldi, which had a cargo of sugar for the United Sugar Co. of Los Merchis.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

LIVERPOOL, June 1.—An inquiry is being conducted here to determine the definition of a gentleman as contemplated by the Workmen's Insurance act.

According to the reading of the act anyone who earns more than $500 yearly and does no manual labor is a gentleman. This definition, simple enough on its face, has caused infinite dispute in shipping circles, and the Liverpool Steamship Owners' association is trying to solve the question by the present inquiry, but it is likely that whatever the decision, an appeal will be carried to the chancellor of the exchequer.

A prominent labor union official declared that the definition creates undesirable class distinctions in the mercantile marine. Under the existing ruling on big vessels the captain, mate, second officer and every one in the engine room down to the sixth assistant are gentlemen under the act, but the line must be drawn at the seventh engineer. The steamship owners say the amount of food and lodging allotted to their officers must count in determining their status under the act.

On board smaller craft the question is more acute, for only manual workers are receiving benefits, so no matter how low their stipend the officers, who do not work with their hands, do not profit by the act.

Therefore the Gibraltar situation is created that if a man, though a manual worker, should by promotion get another man to do his manual labor, he at once becomes a gentleman. The quartermaster, by steering, always qualifies under the act, but misses being a gentleman, although he may mess with the rest of the officers.

The question is of such supreme importance, affecting as it does every British vessel registered from a home port, that some of the most eminent lawyers in the kingdom have been retained to conduct the inquiry.

BURN SING SING PRISON

That's What Conan Doyle Would do—It's a Disgrace, Says Noted Author

NEW YORK, June 1.—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, literary expert on crimes, criminals and detectives, was locked up in one of the cells of Sing Sing prison Saturday afternoon. His imprisonment, however, was of only five minutes' duration and was voluntary. He wanted to see how it felt. When questioned about it last night at his hotel, he said, with a smile: "It was the most restful time I have had since I arrived in New York, for it was the only chance I had to get away from the reporters."

William J. Burns, the detective, also was a visitor at the prison yesterday. He and the novelist lunched with Warden Clancy, attended the band concert and a variety performance in the administration building, and made a general inspection of the premises. Last night Sir Arthur was quite willing to say what he thought of Sing Sing as a prison.

"It ought to be burned down," he exclaimed indignantly. "The buildings are absolutely antiquated, and it is nothing less than a disgrace for a state so great and wealthy as New York to have a prison which is a hundred years behind the times."

"I am a medical man, and naturally I was interested in the sanitary conditions and the way the buildings were constructed; and I saw enough. No, I have never read or even heard of any of the reports on conditions in Sing Sing which may have been issued. I didn't need any reports. I saw the place."

Praise for Warden Clancy

"When I say this," Sir Arthur continued, "I want to be understood as referring to the mechanical side. Warden Clancy is a very remarkable man. It would be a great pity if for any political reason or through any change of influence he should be taken away. He has a big brain and a big heart, and is deeply interested in humanitarian measures for the prisoners. The way he has made the place work with insufficient means is extraordinary. I'd rather have a bad machine with Clancy at the head of it than a good one under an unsympathetic disciplinarian. His one idea is not to punish men, but to improve them."

"I don't wish to pose as an authority on English prisons," the novelist went on, "but I doubt if we have any as unsanitary as Sing Sing, except perhaps in very remote districts. Certainly there are none in London or the larger cities."

"The cells ought to be knocked three or four into one. As to the types of prisoners whom I saw there, I should say that it struck me that the great mistake of the penal laws is in their failure to allow freer scope for treatment of the individual."

"As a medical man, I took great interest in the appearance of the men I saw, and it seemed to me that probably a third of the whole number were defective—men whose cases called for medical treatment or care in an asylum. Perhaps another third were young men who ought never to have been put in with hardened criminals, and the last third were the men for whom such places as Sing Sing have to exist."

"Of course I did not see Lieutenant Becker. I am told that the rules would have prohibited me seeing him in any event, but when his name was first mentioned I said that I would not in any way be a party to making the spectacle of a man in such a position. I saw the apparatus used in the death chamber; it was not pleasant, but after all I suppose electrocution is as merciful a method as any."

Sir Arthur would make no comparison between Sherlock Holmes and William J. Burns, but what he thinks of one phase of the American detective's activities was evident from a remark he made in connection with the possibilities of unjust convictions in America and England.

"Our case of 'White Morison'," he said, "has always seemed to me a very dubious one. While I would not go so far as to say that Morison was innocent, I have always thought his guilt was not satisfactorily proven. But at all events, his sentence was commuted to penal servitude, and most people admitted that there was grave doubt. Now this Frank case in Georgia—that was different. They simply held the hold of the wrong man and hung to him."

ROBBERS GOT $3000

SIX BANDITS GAGGED SIX MEN, BLEW OPEN SAFE AND ESCAPE WITH CASH

CHICAGO, June 1.—Nine robbers early today bound and gagged six employees of the St. Lawrence Ice Cream Co. and after blowing open the safe escaped with between $2000 and $3000.

SIX SUFFOCATED BY GAS

MEN WENT TO THEIR DEATHS IN ATTEMPT TO RESCUE SHIP'S CAPTAIN

GALVESTON, Tex., June 1.—Leaving behind her in a single grave on the coast of Mexico near the Tuxpan oil fields the bodies of First Officer P. E. Elliott and five members of her crew suffocated by gas in her forepeak, the British tank steamer San Valero arrived here yesterday from Tuxpan, Mexico.

The accident occurred May 24, five of the men going to their death in an attempt to rescue Lt. C. Cousins, the ship's carpenter, overcome while attempting to make repairs on a bilge pump. First Officer Elliott attempted to bring him out but failed to return and four others in turn descended into the hole and succumbed.

CHELMSFORD

Memorial day exercises were held at Forestburg cemetery and the town hall, Chelmsford, Saturday. The parade formed in front of the town hall and moved promptly at 9:30 under the direction of Chief Marshal Fred L. Fletcher and headed by the American band of 15 pieces. George F. White, bandmaster. Next in line were ten members of the Sons of Veterans in command of Quartermaster Walter Perham, acting as escort to the members of the Chelmsford Veterans association, 16 in number, headed by Col. or Bearer Charles T. Melvin and Adj. J. Adams Bartlett, under the direction of Commander A. G. Charles. These were followed by the clergymen of the village, town officials, members of the school board and 54 school children, accompanied by Miss S. S. McParlin. The column circled Central square and proceeded to Forestburg cemetery, entering from the Littleton street side, marching to the grave of Levi Lamphere, who met his death at Winchester, where services were held. A selection was given by the Unitarian choir, with the G. A. R. ritual conducted

DISCUSSES WHISK CLAIMS

Lawyer Points Out Difference Between Whisky and Brandy

NEW YORK, June 1.—By a vote of 22 to 10 the senate today refused to the interstate commerce commission the authority to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

The two dissenters were in that the whisky was sold by an agency while the interstate commerce commission was in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and it is intended to protect against it.

Lawyer Points Out Difference Between Whisky and Brandy

NEW YORK, June 1.—Following the vote of the senate of 22 to 10, the interstate commerce commission today refused to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

The two dissenters were in that the whisky was sold by an agency while the interstate commerce commission was in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and it is intended to protect against it.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Following the vote of the senate of 22 to 10, the interstate commerce commission today refused to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

The two dissenters were in that the whisky was sold by an agency while the interstate commerce commission was in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and it is intended to protect against it.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Following the vote of the senate of 22 to 10, the interstate commerce commission today refused to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

The two dissenters were in that the whisky was sold by an agency while the interstate commerce commission was in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and it is intended to protect against it.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Following the vote of the senate of 22 to 10, the interstate commerce commission today refused to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

The two dissenters were in that the whisky was sold by an agency while the interstate commerce commission was in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and it is intended to protect against it.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Following the vote of the senate of 22 to 10, the interstate commerce commission today refused to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

The two dissenters were in that the whisky was sold by an agency while the interstate commerce commission was in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and it is intended to protect against it.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Following the vote of the senate of 22 to 10, the interstate commerce commission today refused to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

The two dissenters were in that the whisky was sold by an agency while the interstate commerce commission was in violation of the Sherman antitrust law and it is intended to protect against it.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Following the vote of the senate of 22 to 10, the interstate commerce commission today refused to regulate the sale of whisky in interstate commerce.

EMPRESS DISASTER

Continued

British government has appointed George Vaux as its representative. He has already sailed from England and will reach Montreal June 8 when the inquiry will be commenced. The other two members of the commission will be judges of the Canadian admiralty court.

While the commission is organizing, Captain Lindsay, the wreck commissioner of the government, is carrying on a preliminary investigation preparing evidence and getting the case ready as far as possible. All the passengers who were saved will be summoned to give evidence under oath before Captain Lindsay and officers and members of the Empress and the collier which sent her to the bottom will be examined.

The royal commission will report on out the view of the curious and morbid.

Bodies of 26 Babies

On the wharf, as the ship docked, was a throng of officials, newspapermen, photographers and moving picture men while outside a sorrowing crowd awaited admittance to search for their dead. A number of survivors of the disaster were in the crowd hoping to find the bodies of loved ones they had lost when the steamer went down.

In a section in a shed lay 25 little white caskets containing the bodies of babies and small children. A force of men is patrolling both sides of the St. Lawrence river for miles, searching for bodies, but thus far with little success. Many boats are hovering on the river with the same purpose in view.

WRIT SERVED ON STORSTAD WHICH SANK EMPRESS

MONTREAL, June 1.—The collier

Captain KENDALL of EMPRESS of IRELAND

PHOTO © 1914 BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

on what measures should be taken to make navigation in the narrow waters of the St. Lawrence more secure and whether there should be a revision of the rules which now govern shipping.

IDENTIFY 100 OF 188

BODIES BROUGHT TO QUEBEC

QUEBEC, June 1.—Identification of the dead recovered from the scene of the wreck of the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Ireland is proceeding more rapidly than was expected. Nearly 100 of the 188 bodies brought here yesterday by the tender Lady Gray have thus far been recognized by sorrowing friends and relatives. This is in addition to the 18 bodies identified and claimed at Rimouski.

Among the identified dead were Sir Henry St. John-Kerr, the big game hunter, Dr. E. A. Barrow, a leading geologist of Canada, Mrs. W. Leonard Palmer, wife of a London newspaper man, and nearly a score of members of the Salvation Army.

The funeral ship Lady Gray arrived by the British warship Essex, escorted by the Quebec early Sunday morning and drawn through blacked-out from the Essex were carrying the coffins ashore. The bodies were placed on long tables draped in black and white, in the lower part of the ship, and were prepared for their reception. The bodies were heavily draped in black and over the windows sheets were fastened to shut Storstad, which rammed the liner Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence near Father Point Friday morning, reached here yesterday afternoon under her own steam.

Contrary to the stories which have been received of her condition, she was very little injured. Her stem was bent back over a dozen feet high above the water line, but she stood up straight. She has about 11,000 tons of coal on board.

Only a few officials were allowed to board her.

As soon as the vessel tied up, a writ obtained by the Canadian Pacific Railway claiming $200,000 in the Quebec admiralty court was served on Capt. Anderson and the Storstad was placed under detention.

TUGS AND LAUNCHES SEARCH FOR DEAD

REMQUERE, Que., June 1.—Several tugs and launches of the Canadian Pacific R. Co. today started a systematic search of the St. Lawrence river in an effort to recover more of the Empress of Ireland's dead.

One or more launches remained directly over the spot where the shattered bulk lies, three miles off shore waiting for the bodies of some of the victims to come to the surface of the water.

Two of the last liner's lifeboats were found floating down stream today. They were empty.

HONORED THEIR DEAD

Impressive Memorial Exercises Held by Meagher Guards—Address by Rev. P. A. Sharkey

The members of the Meagher Guards and their friends held impressive memorial services over the graves of their departed brothers in St. Patrick's cemetery on Memorial day morning. On each grave a small Irish flag was placed. The feature of the occasion was a beautiful address by Rev. P. A. Sharkey of Ayr, Mass., a brother of M. J. Sharkey of this city. Lack of space prohibits the publication of Mr. Sharkey's address in full, but the reverend gentleman spoke in part as follows:

"Today you are met to honor your heroic dead, today you gather around Columbia as she lays the garlands of gratitude once again upon the graves of those who gave their lives to set her free and to keep her free. I am pleased to be amongst you—the brothers and the friends, the comrades, the cousins, and the children of the bravest of the brave men whose memory and bravery the nation honors today."

"The memory of the dead is ever a sacred one, but the memory of the dead which you honor today is doubly sacred for their names are the names of liberators, of saviors, of true men."

Some of you may have loved them for their domestic or their social virtues, but all of you, and all America with you, love them because they have lived and died for that freedom, and for those principles of freedom which every true man values beyond worldly goods or honors."

You are but a unit in that vast community which thrives around the spirit of liberty today, but I say without any attempt at boasting or sounding the bell, without any fear of contradiction or challenge, that in all the multitude that, dissolved in the chemistry of citizenship, flow into the gardens of the dead today, I say that of them all there is no element more willing to give the garlands of gratitude, or more worthy of the honor of going so than the children of the soldier hearted saint—Patrick; the guardians and the champions of liberty in every clime and in every battle where right struggled against might, where true men fought to be free. I do not purpose to open for you the histories of the nations old and new, in order to prove the valor of the Gael. I do not wish to read for you the names of the Irish heroes who were large across the face of Europe, across the deserts and thorns and kopjes of Africa, across the hills and waters of Asia, across the plains, the rivers and deserts of Australia; no, not even of those whose names—despite the sting of envy—are written in thousands of hearts in America today. I do not wish to speak to you of Ireland's rights and Ireland's fights for the freedom of this or any other land. This is a subject on which you and every true lover of liberty are fully conscious. The chivalry, the generosity, the invincible bravery of Ireland's sons have furnished to the world a theme to which the greatest genius of expression has acknowledged the impossibility of doing justice. At home Erin has never let down the flag. Through blood and fire and tears, she has kept her face to the sun. From the starving children, weakly waiting through waters of agony, crushed and bruised and lacerated with all the perishing agony of their torturing tyrants, from the fallen soldiers, dying and betrayed, from the shattered patriots, rotting in British dungeons; from the shivering families, flung out to die on the dumb heaps from the old men and the old women, who lived—bowed down with sorrow and with want—to tell the glorious story of those of their kind and kin who had died at the mass rock in the glen or the mountainside; from one and all the cry, the irrepressible cry went up in splendid defiance: "We are shattered, but not broken."

"Erin saw that the Saviour of the world waited to His triumph through anguish, humiliation and awful agony. She heard and understood His words. 'If you love me, you must take up your cross and follow me,' and she shouldered the heavy cross and followed bravely in His wake. Ireland realized the worth of freedom; Ireland realized what freedom is and refused to take a chameleon for the price of the principles inculcated by the true understanding of that faith that made the Irishman what he is in history. Abroad the Irishman signified himself in the defence and in the propagation of these principles, till his name became a synonym for justice and bravery. Ireland realized that "Freedom comes from God's right hand And leads a godly train. That righteous men would make her land A nation once again."

She followed in that godly train, followed through all the dark night of suffering, leaving her eye forever on the sunburst, confident of resurrection, and now that resurrection is come, the painted sunburst has become at last a reality.

Today you honor the memory of the martyrs of the sacred cause of freedom, but while you place the wreaths of appreciation on their hallowed graves ask yourselves are you worthy of doing so, is your doing so in suit or an honor to the memory of these men? If you have and if you are endeavoring to walk in their footsteps faithful to God's commands your action today is pleasing to these men, and to their guardian angels; if you are living unmanful of the faith and the spirit that animated them and made them rush to death in an ecstasy of patriotism, then your action is a hollow mockery of their memory.

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

Remember that liberty does not master her sons under the red flag that flings out the hell-bent banner 'No God, no Boss,' but under the banner of the nation that is free under God, that looks to Him and thanks Him for all we are, or have or hope to be, here or hereafter; and true to all the principles of your faith and your patriotism, now, and hereafter, to your children, and the precious heirloom that is yours, and the glorious destiny that has been the gift of God to Ireland—the inspiration and the light of the nations.

Thus you will gladden the spirit of the heroes who have died, you will encourage the exiles of Erin, the world over; you will decorate your own souls with flowers that will bloom eternally; and you will cheer the heart of our mother over the seas, mingling her prayers with mine today, and saying of her dead and her living: 'May they rest in peace, and God bless you my children and my children's children.'

DR. A. J. GAGNON

Discusses the cause, effect and cure of the most destructive of all dental diseases, PYORRHEA or RIGGS DISEASE. A series of continued talks appearing in this newspaper—follow it daily as it will be greatly to your advantage if you are a sufferer of mouth, teeth or gum trouble of any description.

TODAY'S TALK

The Truth About Pyorrhea or Riggs Disease

Up to a few years ago, Pyorrhea was what we might call a disease of mystery. Practically all that was known about it by anybody was that it manifested itself in one, or all, of the following ways: The teeth became loose or twisted in their sockets. The gums became sore, spongy and bled easily, receded and exuded pus. The mouth felt unclean, and tasted bad; the breath was foul.

Almost everybody knew these conditions to be evidences of Pyorrhea, but further than that their knowledge did not extend.

Physicians, dentists and scientists when asked the cause of Pyorrhea or called upon for a cure had to confess themselves stumped.

They could tell its symptoms. They had seen its terribly destructive effects upon the teeth and gums.

They recognized it when they saw it, but that was all. They could not cure it.

True, some tried,

THE MAN IN THE MOON

A fire that broke out about midnight and threatens to do extensive damage is always an object of great interest; and it is right down in the business district so much the better. Nothing is more common in drawing a crowd than if the second alarm is sounded there's simply nothing to it, the crowd soon becomes big and dense. A good big crowd of this kind is always a good natured one. It gathers to be entertained and the bigger the fire the better the entertainment. I sometimes think that at a fire there is manifested in a modern crowd somewhat of the barbaric spirit which animated Rome who is said to have added while Nero was burning. At first at any rate, it delights in seeing the fire get ahead of the firemen and howls with delight when fire breaks out in an unexpected quarter. It is nothing to it—it is only fun. It is not their funeral—it doesn't cost them a cent. As much as it may excite the firemen it thoroughly entertains them. In their efficiency and will finally commend as loudly as it found fault. The fire in the Hildreth building a week ago last Saturday night came just right for the crowd. It found plenty of people down town and the number was greatly increased by those who hurried in from a distance on the striking of the second alarm. That the firemen did a good job in subduing what might have been a very serious fire was evident. Talk about some members of the fire department being too old to fight a fire! From the businesslike way and effectual manner in which several gray haired veterans worked last Saturday night I cannot help recalling the remark of former Chief of Firemen who said that he would give more for one of those so-called old men than half a dozen young ones whom he could name. And I guess the old chief knew something about what he was talking. While things were most interesting a week ago Saturday night there came a call for assistance from the fire station where a lively fire had started. With his hands full of course Chief Saunders couldn't do anything for the old mother town; but a few automobile parties thinking they might help a little by looking on and thinking, too, that they might as well make a night of it, sped away for the scene of the new fire and after getting on wrong roads and getting off again they at last arrived where the fat was frying fast and furiously. They got back home after a highly delightful night's pleasure—Well, well, an old man's blessing be upon them! It is not to be wondered at that young blood gets elated at the sight of a good blaze, the clashing of bells and the clamor and shrieks of the fire apparatus. When I was a young fellow I would run for miles to be at a fire; but now, as old age comes creeping on the sound of the fire bells in the still night does not disturb me. If I am ever awakened by them I simply turn over and am again sleeping before the sound is finished. Thus it is that young men for fires, old men for bed, young men for war and old men for counsel, young men for action, old men for repose. Amen.

Canobie
Beautiful Canobie! It is hard to find a spot anywhere more so, nor of a day to journey there any more delightful than last Sunday was. While many people visited the lake on that day there was absence of crowds such as will be seen later. Lowell people who visit Canobie are few compared with the numbers that hail from Lawrence or even Haverhill. Yet not a few Lowell folks have camps on the lake and all are loud in their praise of Canobie. I strolled over the park and rowed upon the lake and came away with some regret. The ride on the trolleys that go to Canobie is ever an exhilarating one. There is a certain "up and get" way with the cars of the southern New Hampshire lines that you do not find on other lines. The men who operate these cars are an expedition and courteous body and notwithstanding what they are frequently up against I don't recall without the slightest deviation from good manners when on their job.

Popular Ponds
Island Pond, Corbett's, and Gumpus Pond are much visited by Lowell people, many of whom have cottages which they either own or rent. The attractions possessed by these sheets of water are scarcely inferior to the popular bodies anywhere. The fact that they are located far from the trolley lines ends an added attraction where many a one is able to pass a peaceful summer or a Sunday amid the beauties of nature and get away from curious crowds and discordant sounds and a hundred things that jar upon his sensibilities and destroy his idea of true enjoyment. Up the Stony Brook way are several ponds of easy access and which are fine places to go to after the day's work is done. I went up to Pleasant's the other evening and incidentally did a little fishing and once more proved the reputation I have as a Jonah. We didn't catch enough for even a small fry. Yet in spite of this hard luck the visit was very enjoyable. Flushing too is beautiful. As was at waiting for the fish that didn't bite we were entertained by the songs of birds, one neighborly cat-bird when he wasn't meowing like a kitten, gave us a song such as made old Jim forget to cuss his luck and remark that that fellow was some singer.

Saturday Half Holidays
The municipal council of the city of Des Moines, Iowa, which enjoys a charter very similar to ours, evidently does not consider that closing its city hall on Saturday afternoons during the summer works against a policy of economy and reform. The city clerk of that city says, "We are glad to inform you that our city hall is closed on Saturday afternoons during the summer months. We are glad that your city has adopted the commission form of government and see no reason why you should not follow the old custom of our city hall office. We find that the public is well served, and therefore has no kicks to register. I believe that other cities hereabouts follow the same custom." Now, the public registering no kick reflecting upon the faithfulness, courtesy and efficiency of our city hall office employees, just why should our high-salaried commissioners fail to pass an order which would mean so much to the clerks and which is a very little thing for the commissioners to do? The public favors the Saturday half holiday—what's the reason the commissioners don't?

Arrest Celestials
A small army of blue coats headed by the gigantic superintendent, descended on Suffolk street Tuesday evening and attracted much attention. A great many first thought an incipient riot was pending, and others were mobilizing for a raid across the Rio Grande. But they were all wrong; for it soon transpired that the object of such spectacular force was simply directed toward the subjugation of a Chinese laundry and whatever it might contain. After a strong force had been placed in the rear, the blue clad troops in front of the stronghold of the Chinese in the order to "Charge Chester charge" was given and presently two small sized gentlemen from the celestial republic emerged in the clutches of several burly policemen and were escorted to the tango wagon. It was alleged that opium was found. It was one of those clever captures we read so much about.

An Ideal Sunday
What a day last Sunday was! Clear and bright and with an atmosphere just right. Whenever you walked or rode your nostrils were greeted with all fragrant with odors from the lilacs and apple blossoms until you thought you must be going through a conservatory—and you were. May looked her prettiest in dress of freshest green, relieved by the white of orchard blossoms, trimmed with the ogle of the dandelion and wearing a her throat violet of pale blue. All this in an atmosphere like April's, and set against a sky like June's. And do you wonder that most everybody was out to enjoy it all? You encountered them in the field, in the wood, on the road, by the lakeside and upon the lake whose waters, filling it to the brim, sparkled in the bright sunshine of a perfect day. Later you may have met them at church.

There are few trees in this region that rival the horse-chestnut in the beauty and lavishness of its bloom. As a shade tree it is unsurpassed. It is among the first to bud and leaf and it is among the last to cast its leaves. It is beautiful in form and sustains with vigor the drought of summer and the rigors of winter. It is a tree of much individuality and is generally admired. It bears with equanimity the small boys' assaults and yields up its treasures as though it loved to. It grows in the streets and upon the lawns in all sections of the city. It is a fine tree and may it never be cut down. The commission should pass around the but for the purpose of setting but a few hundreds of this most useful and ornamental tree, the horse-chestnut.

Decorating the Graves
Whoever first placed flowers upon the graves of his dead did a most beautiful and gracious act. It does not matter when or how he lived, but he established a custom that has come down to us that could be but look over the centuries that have gone after him, he would see one great custom setting apart one day in the most beautiful season of the year, devoted to decorating the graves of his dead and consecrating anew their memory. The day has become more than what it may have been specifically created for—to memorialize the dead of the soldiers who fought in the war of the early sixties. It is a day on which all endeavor to make a pilgrimage to the resting places of their dead to place their tributes of love and remembrance. In spite of the day's desecration by pleasure-seekers and which finds encouragement in constituted authorities, Decoration day loses nothing of its significance, but rather gains in meaning—just as sober thought and consecration ever rises above folly and selfish enjoyment. The day is still peculiarly that of the surviving soldiers of the Civil war, their ceremonies giving it an impressiveness that is all their own. As they march by or gather in groups around the graves of their old comrades, our eyes are lively to fill, as we mark the steady declination yearly going on in their ranks. The veterans whom you saw in Saturday's parade are not much like the boys who left Lowell almost back in '61. Perhaps the spirit is there, but somehow they can't seem to march just like the boys of '61. But never mind. When the last surviving old veteran walks the streets of Lowell he will not have to wonder how he is going to decorate all the boys' graves alone. Should he live to be as old as Methuselah he would see that job lovingly accomplished by the descendants of the men who preserved this union.

THE MAN IN THE MOON.

STATE-WIDE PRIMARIES

IOWA SELECTING NOMINEES FOR U. S. SENATOR, CONGRESS AND STATE AND COUNTY TICKETS

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 1.—State wide primaries are in progress in Iowa today to select candidates for the republican, democratic progressive and socialist parties for United States senator, members of congress, governor, lieutenant-governor and full state and county tickets. Seven non-partisan candidates for supreme court are also seeking the three positions to be vacant.

Senator Albert B. Cummins is opposed for re-nomination on the republican side by A. C. Savage, a banker of Adair, John T. Hamilton of Cedar Rapids and V. R. McGinnis of Leon are democratic candidates.

FOR DEVELOPMENT BOARD

SEC. LANE WANTS ONE TO HAVE COMPLETE CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS IN ALASKA

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Secretary Lane's report to congress in which he strongly recommends the creation of a development board to have complete control of all government affairs in Alaska connected with the natural resources and development of that territory attracted considerable attention at the capitol today. The proposed board would consist of three members appointed by the president; its headquarters would be in Alaska, and it would do the work now done there by the general land officers, the forest service, the road commission, the bureau of mines, the bureau of education and the secretary of the interior and a part of the work and authority of the bureau of fisheries.

Secretary Lane in his report sharply arraigned red tape measures in the administration of government affairs in Alaska. "Our present system of government in Alaska is atrocious," says the report. "Instead of one government, there are a number, interlocked, overlapping, cumbersome and confusing. Experience has demonstrated that efficient administration is best secured by centralizing responsibility and authority in the hands of a few officers. It can be held to strict accountability for the results of their actions."

CATHOLIC CHURCH NEWS

May Procession at Immaculate Conception—Touching Tribute to Late Fr. Donahue

Yesterday was a day of very special devotion at the church of the Immaculate Conception for the feast of Pentecost was celebrated with unusual solemnity at the morning masses, and in the evening the beautiful annual May procession was held in the grounds surrounding the church. As the Immaculate Conception church is especially dedicated to the Virgin Mary, this procession which closes the May devotions is one of the principal observances of the year.

The solemn high mass at 11 o'clock was celebrated by Rev. James McCarlin, O. M. I., of the Tewksbury novitiate, with Rev. Frs. McQuaid and Phelan as assistants. Rev. Lawrence P. Tighe, O. M. I., the pastor preached an eloquent sermon on the necessity for making the Easter duty, reminding the parishioners that the appointed time is rapidly drawing to a close. He also referred touchingly to the children of the parish who had made their first communion at the 7.30 mass.

The evening services preceding the procession were held at 8.30. The rosary was recited at first and appropriate hymns were sung. Then the various sodalities and church societies took up their positions in the aisles, and the impressive and beautiful procession formed, marching out into the lovely park and back into the church by a circuitous route. At the head of the procession came the cross borne by the Knights of Columbus. Then followed the children of Mary sodality, junior and senior branches, the Immaculate Conception sodality, the Third Order of St. Francis society, members of the sanctuary choir and the clergy. During the procession hymns to the Blessed Virgin were sung, and as the last of the marchers passed into the church, the choir, stationed on the church steps sang a special canticle of praise. During the procession the streets in the vicinity were crowded with people. The statue high up in the outer wall was illuminated until a late hour as on days of special solemnity.

Following the procession, benediction of the blessed sacrament was given by Rev. Owen P. McQuaid, assisted by Rev. Frs. Phelan and McCarlin. The church was wholly inadequate to hold the large crowd that assembled. Next the most notable feature of the splendid observance was the fine musical program arranged jointly by Mr. Joseph P. Courtney, director and Mrs. Hugh Walker, organist.

St. Patrick's
The last mass at St. Patrick's church yesterday was celebrated by Rev. Joseph P. Courtney, and the impressive sermon was delivered by Rev. Fr. Callahan. It was announced that the children of the parish will make their first communion next Sunday at 7 a. m. and in preparation for the event a special retreat for their benefit will be held, commencing next Thursday morning at the 8 o'clock mass. It was also announced that the Holy Hour services will be held next Friday, the first Friday of the month, as usual from 7.30 to 8.30 p. m.

The annual banquet of the Holy Name society of St. Patrick's will be held on Tuesday evening, and the committee in charge of the arrangements reports that all preparations have been made for a successful and memorable celebration. Many notable speakers will be present.

St. Peter's Church
Rev. Fr. Strauss, O. M. I., sang high mass at St. Peter's church yesterday and Rev. W. George Mullin preached the sermon, an instructive discourse on the significance of Pentecost, the descent of the Holy Ghost on the apostles. Just before the sermon proper, Rev. Fr. Mullin spoke feelingly of the death of Rev. Charles F. Donahue, but two short months identified with the activities of the parish. Since his passing the church has lost a devoted and successful pastor.

Just before the sermon proper, Rev. Fr. Mullin spoke feelingly of the death of Rev. Charles F. Donahue, but two short months identified with the activities of the parish. Since his passing the church has lost a devoted and successful pastor.

Rev. Fr. Kean, S. J., Dead
WAS ONE OF THE MOST PROMINENT CATHOLIC EDUCATORS OF THE COUNTRY
NEW YORK, June 1.—The Rev. William Kean, S. J., one of the most prominent Catholic educators of the country, died yesterday at Fordham hospital after a year's illness. Father Kean was for many years an instructor in Georgetown university, Washington. He was 44 years old.

the parish picnic will be held in the school hall.

Friday the usual first Friday devotions will be held.

St. Michael's
Rev. Denis F. Murphy celebrated the high mass at St. Michael's yesterday, and an eloquent sermon on Pentecost was preached by Rev. Francis J. Mullin. It was announced that next Friday the holy hour will be held as usual and all the other devotions connected with the observance of the first Friday.

St. Columba's
The children of St. Columba's parish to the number of about 40, received their first communion yesterday at the 5 o'clock mass, which was celebrated by Rev. Thomas Buckley, Rev. John A. Deegan, the pastor, addressed the children, reminding them of the great happiness of the occasion and urging them to be always true to the resolutions and memories of their first communion day.

St. Anthony's
A beautiful ceremony was again held yesterday at St. Anthony's church to celebrate the closing of the novena in honor of the Holy Ghost, which was begun nine days ago. At 11 o'clock solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Henrique Da Silva, D. D., assisted by Rev. Bro. O'Brien, O. M. I. sub-deacon and with Rev. Fr. Phelan as master of ceremonies.

Sacred music was sung by the choir, the solos being sustained by Mrs. Wilkins, the Misses Mullin and Santos, and Messrs. Haley, Kane and Dalton and at the offertory, Millard's "Veni Sancte Spiritus" was sung by Miss Katharine Mullin, Mr. Dalton, and Mr. Kane. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given at the close of the service, Bishop da Silva officiating.

In the afternoon a beautiful procession was held in honor of the Holy Ghost, attended by the parish societies, the children of the parish and the many other groups that make the events of St. Anthony's so picturesque. After the solemn services in the church the various societies marched to I. O. O. F. hall on Middlesex street where a banquet was served. Many out of town guests attended.

FLAGS AT HALF MAST

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR VERA CRUZ DEAD HELD BY ARMY AND NAVY AT NEWPORT, R. I.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 1.—Sailors of the naval training station and soldiers from Narragansett Bay forts attended in a body yesterday a memorial service in honor of the sailors and marines who fell at Vera Cruz. Officers of the army and navy on duty here were present also in full uniform.

Many of the clergymen of the city assisted at the exercises which were held at the United Congregational church. The roll call of the dead was read by Captain Roger Welles, commandant of the naval training station, tops being sounded as he finished. All flags were at half mast through the service.

CAMBRIDGE "WIDE OPEN"

MAYOR GOOD SAYS SO—WILL DRIVE OUT GAMBLERS AND STOP LIQUOR SALES

BOSTON, June 1.—Mayor Timothy W. Good of Cambridge threw a bombshell at a meeting of Cambridge council, Ketchikan of Columbus, yesterday morning when he declared that gamblers who have been driven out of Boston and other cities have come to the University City and are openly boasting that they have "struck a soft berth," that liquor is being sold illegally in drug stores and that the city as a whole is "wide open."

This morning, he declared, he will issue an order to Director of Public Safety Henry J. Cunningham to clean up the gambling dens and liquor nuisances. Mr. Cunningham, in a statement issued last night, that proved quite as startling as Mayor Good's structures, intimated that the gamblers had been tried to reach him and the mayor with a holdup that had excited the indignation of both of them.

CUT CRUDE OIL PRICE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 1.—Another cut in the price of crude oil was announced today at the opening of the market. New prices are:

Pennsylvania crude, $1.80; Mercator Black and Newcastle, $1.75; Corning, $1.60; Cabell, $1.40.

The dwelling, barn and wagon shed owned by Warren D. Sweetser and located in Westford, were totally destroyed by fire Friday. The loss is estimated at $2500, it being partly insured by Fred C. Church.

ADELBERT AMES CAMP

SPANISH WAR VETERANS' BANQUET—ELABORATE POST PRANDIAL EXERCISES

There was a big time and a good time at the banquet of Adelbert Ames camp, held in Odd Fellows hall in Middlesex street after the Memorial day parade. The women of the Ladies' auxiliary were present by invitation and occupied one of the four tables which were spread the length of the hall.

The post prandial exercises were presided over by Camp Commander Gilbert W. Hunt. A letter of regret was read from Gen. Adelbert Ames, in which the following toast was proposed: "My country, my country, right or wrong, still my country." Brig. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson was introduced as the first speaker and was given a rousing reception. Referring to his recent defeat in the fight for office, Mr. Pearson said he was not yet dead and that he had not yet ceased fighting. In the course of his address Mr. Pearson said: "One is apt to forget that in Lowell there are 17,000 men subject to military duty. A person is never too young to be impressed with his duty to his country, and it was a splendid thing to invite foreign clubs and societies to participate in parade. Middlesex county, the home of Lord and Whitney and the Old Sixth, is a most propitious place to foster that patriotic spirit with which we are all imbued and of which we all are proud. It is an excellent thing to keep alive the spirit of patriotism, especially at a time when there are war clouds on the horizon."

The next speaker was Commissioner George H. Brown, who represented the city. He said that in watching the parade he had felt that the patriotic spirit shown by the cosmopolitan people taking part meant for America a new birth. Mr. Brown said that the Grand Army, Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies' auxiliaries were doing much to educate and nurture a love of country.

After Commissioner Brown had finished, Toastmaster Hunt announced that the Ladies' auxiliary were present by invitation and occupied one of the four tables which were spread the length of the hall.

The post prandial exercises were presided over by Camp Commander Gilbert W. Hunt. A letter of regret was read from Gen. Adelbert Ames, in which the following toast was proposed: "My country, my country, right or wrong, still my country."

Brig. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson was introduced as the first speaker and was given a rousing reception. Referring to his recent defeat in the fight for office, Mr. Pearson said he was not yet dead and that he had not yet ceased fighting. In the course of his address Mr. Pearson said: "One is apt to forget that in Lowell there are 17,000 men subject to military duty. A person is never too young to be impressed with his duty to his country, and it was a splendid thing to invite foreign clubs and societies to participate in parade. Middlesex county, the home of Lord and Whitney and the Old Sixth, is a most propitious place to foster that patriotic spirit with which we are all imbued and of which we all are proud. It is an excellent thing to keep alive the spirit of patriotism, especially at a time when there are war clouds on the horizon."

The next speaker was Commissioner George H. Brown, who represented the city. He said that in watching the parade he had felt that the patriotic spirit shown by the cosmopolitan people taking part meant for America a new birth. Mr. Brown said that the Grand Army, Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies' auxiliaries were doing much to educate and nurture a love of country.

After Commissioner Brown had finished, Toastmaster Hunt announced that the Ladies' auxiliary were present by invitation and occupied one of the four tables which were spread the length of the hall.

The post prandial exercises were presided over by Camp Commander Gilbert W. Hunt. A letter of regret was read from Gen. Adelbert Ames, in which the following toast was proposed: "My country, my country, right or wrong, still my country."

Brig. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson was introduced as the first speaker and was given a rousing reception. Referring to his recent defeat in the fight for office, Mr. Pearson said he was not yet dead and that he had not yet ceased fighting. In the course of his address Mr. Pearson said: "One is apt to forget that in Lowell there are 17,000 men subject to military duty. A person is never too young to be impressed with his duty to his country, and it was a splendid thing to invite foreign clubs and societies to participate in parade. Middlesex county, the home of Lord and Whitney and the Old Sixth, is a most propitious place to foster that patriotic spirit with which we are all imbued and of which we all are proud. It is an excellent thing to keep alive the spirit of patriotism, especially at a time when there are war clouds on the horizon."

The next speaker was Commissioner George H. Brown, who represented the city. He said that in watching the parade he had felt that the patriotic spirit shown by the cosmopolitan people taking part meant for America a new birth. Mr. Brown said that the Grand Army, Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies' auxiliaries were doing much to educate and nurture a love of country.

After Commissioner Brown had finished, Toastmaster Hunt announced that the Ladies' auxiliary were present by invitation and occupied one of the four tables which were spread the length of the hall.

The post prandial exercises were presided over by Camp Commander Gilbert W. Hunt. A letter of regret was read from Gen. Adelbert Ames, in which the following toast was proposed: "My country, my country, right or wrong, still my country."

Brig. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson was introduced as the first speaker and was given a rousing reception. Referring to his recent defeat in the fight for office, Mr. Pearson said he was not yet dead and that he had not yet ceased fighting. In the course of his address Mr. Pearson said: "One is apt to forget that in Lowell there are 17,000 men subject to military duty. A person is never too young to be impressed with his duty to his country, and it was a splendid thing to invite foreign clubs and societies to participate in parade. Middlesex county, the home of Lord and Whitney and the Old Sixth, is a most propitious place to foster that patriotic spirit with which we are all imbued and of which we all are proud. It is an excellent thing to keep alive the spirit of patriotism, especially at a time when there are war clouds on the horizon."

The next speaker was Commissioner George H. Brown, who represented the city. He said that in watching the parade he had felt that the patriotic spirit shown by the cosmopolitan people taking part meant for America a new birth. Mr. Brown said that the Grand Army, Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies' auxiliaries were doing much to educate and nurture a love of country.

After Commissioner Brown had finished, Toastmaster Hunt announced that the Ladies' auxiliary were present by invitation and occupied one of the four tables which were spread the length of the hall.

The post prandial exercises were presided over by Camp Commander Gilbert W. Hunt. A letter of regret was read from Gen. Adelbert Ames, in which the following toast was proposed: "My country, my country, right or wrong, still my country."

Brig. Gen. Gardner W. Pearson was introduced as the first speaker and was given a rousing reception. Referring to his recent defeat in the fight for office, Mr. Pearson said he was not yet dead and that he had not yet ceased fighting. In the course of his address Mr. Pearson said: "One is apt to forget that in Lowell there are 17,000 men subject to military duty. A person is never too young to be impressed with his duty to his country, and it was a splendid thing to invite foreign clubs and societies to participate in parade. Middlesex county, the home of Lord and Whitney and the Old Sixth, is a most propitious place to foster that patriotic spirit with which we are all imbued and of which we all are proud. It is an excellent thing to keep alive the spirit of patriotism, especially at a time when there are war clouds on the horizon."

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO SHED BAD COMPLEXION

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead of remove the degenerated tissue. Not by surgical means, however, as the underlying cutis is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary mercerized wax will gradually absorb the offending cuticle. By degrees, a new, youthful skin appears, a skin soft and delicately tinted as a rose petal.

No lady need hesitate to try this. Procure an ounce of mercerized wax of the druggist. Spread on a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed. An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxoline in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings prompt and remarkable results.—Dr. R. MacKenzie in Popular Medicine.

that upon him devolved the very pleasant task of decorating Comrades Geo. E. Worthen and Arthur Salmon with the insignia of honorary members. Both recipients expressed their appreciation of the honor conferred.

The final speaker of the evening was Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, D. D., who spoke in humorous vein, and concluded with "God bless you all."

The entertainment included very pleasing selections by the Mendelssohn male quartet and the Spindle City band and excellent readings by Mrs. Bella Harrington-Hall.

CARRANZA AS PRESIDENT

ASSUMES POSITION OF PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT—WILL DEMAND THAT MEDIATORS GIVE IN

EL PASO, June 1.—Advices from Durango yesterday say Gen. Venustiano Carranza virtually has assumed the position of provisional president of Mexico, an action he has persistently refused to take heretofore, although urged to do so by his political advisers.

Carranza, it is announced, will immediately establish the provisional government in the city of Saltillo and will demand of the Niagara Falls mediators that they give into the hands of the constitutional provisional government the work of establishing a permanent government in Mexico.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

LOWELL, MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1914

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

SUITS Marked Down

ALL ODD SUITS SELECTED FROM OUR STOCK TO CLOSE OUT TODAY AT $10.00

Among them are suits of superb quality serge, poplin, wool crepe, Bedford and other popular weaves, in misses' and women's sizes; only one or two suits of a kind in most cases. They're nicely tailored and good in every respect—all this season's most approved styles. Marked down from $18.50, $22.50 and $25.00.

Suits and Coats Marked Down to

$5.00

One reel of about 20 suits and 20 coats, marked down to close out. Original prices: $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00.

BALMACAAN COATS

$7.50

Original Prices: $10.00 and $12.50

About 50 Balmacaan coats in mixtures and black and white checks, marked down to close out. Original prices $10.00 and $12.50. Monday $7.50

CLOAK DEPT.

SECOND FLOOR

UNDERPRICE BASEMENT

DRY GOODS SECTION

Special for Today

6000 YARDS OF FINE RATINE AT HALF PRICE—Just received from the mill, 6000 yards of fine ratine remnants, printed in very handsome patterns, also plain colors; remnants easily matched in dress patterns, very popular fabric for summer wear, 19c value on the piece, at only 10c a Yard

CHILDREN'S SOCKS—75 dozen children's socks, mill samples at half price, full fashioned, spliced heel and toe, large variety of combinations of colors, 25c value, at 12½c a Pair

READY-TO-WEAR SECTION

MERRIMACK STREET BASEMENT

RIPPLETTE PETTICOATS—Petticoats made of best quality of cream ripplette, 50c value, at 25c Each

CHILDREN'S DRESSES—60 dozen children's dresses, odd lots from the manufacturers, made in the latest styles, fine gingham, galateas and linene, $1 to $1.50 val., at 79c Each

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

Southern Div.		Portland Div.
To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston
6:43 6:50	7:55 8:02	6:45 6:52	7:57 8:04
6:53 7:00	8:12 8:19	6:55 7:02	8:07 8:14
6:58 7:05	8:17 8:24	7:00 7:07	8:12 8:19
7:03 7:10	8:22 8:29	7:05 7:12	8:17 8:24
7:08 7:15	8:27 8:34	7:10 7:17	8:22 8:29
7:13 7:20	8:32 8:39	7:15 7:22	8:27 8:34
7:18 7:25	8:37 8:44	7:20 7:27	8:32 8:39
7:23 7:30	8:42 8:49	7:25 7:32	8:37 8:44
7:28 7:35	8:47 8:54	7:30 7:37	8:42 8:49
7:33 7:40	8:52 8:59	7:35 7:42	8:47 8:54
7:38 7:45	8:57 9:04	7:40 7:47	8:52 8:59
7:43 7:50	9:02 9:09	7:45 7:52	8:57 9:04
7:48 7:55	9:07 9:14	7:50 7:57	9:02 9:09
7:53 8:00	9:12 9:19	7:55 8:02	9:07 9:14
7:58 8:05	9:17 9:24	8:00 8:07	9:12 9:19
8:03 8:10	9:22 9:29	8:05 8:12	9:17 9:24
8:08 8:15	9:27 9:34	8:10 8:17	9:22 9:29
8:13 8:20	9:32 9:39	8:15 8:22	9:27 9:34
8:18 8:25	9:37 9:44	8:20 8:27	9:32 9:39
8:23 8:30	9:42 9:49	8:25 8:32	9:37 9:44
8:28 8:35	9:47 9:54	8:30 8:37	9:42 9:49
8:33 8:40	9:52 9:59	8:35 8:42	9:47 9:54
8:38 8:45	9:57 10:04	8:40 8:47	9:52 9:59
8:43 8:50	10:02 10:09	8:45 8:52	9:57 10:04
8:48 8:55	10:07 10:14	8:50 8:57	10:02 10:09
8:53 9:00	10:12 10:19	8:55 9:02	10:07 10:14
8:58 9:05	10:17 10:24	9:00 9:07	10:12 10:19
9:03 9:10	10:22 10:29	9:05 9:12	10:17 10:24
9:08 9:15	10:27 10:34	9:10 9:17	10:22 10:29
9:13 9:20	10:32 10:39	9:15 9:22	10:27 10:34
9:18 9:25	10:37 10:44	9:20 9:27	10:32 10:39
9:23 9:30	10:42 10:49	9:25 9:32	10:37 10:44
9:28 9:35	10:47 10:54	9:30 9:37	10:42 10:49
9:33 9:40	10:52 10:59	9:35 9:42	10:47 10:54
9:38 9:45	10:57 11:04	9:40 9:47	10:52 10:59
9:43 9:50	11:02 11:09	9:45 9:52	10:57 11:04
9:48 9:55	11:07 11:14	9:50 9:57	11:02 11:09
9:53 10:00	11:12 11:19	9:55 10:02	11:07 11:14
9:58 10:05	11:17 11:24	10:00 10:07	11:12 11:19
10:03 10:10	11:22 11:29	10:05 10:12	11:17 11:24
10:08 10:15	11:27 11:34	10:10 10:17	11:22 11:29
10:13 10:20	11:32 11:39	10:15 10:22	11:27 11:34
10:18 10:25	11:37 11:44	10:20 10:27	11:32 11:39
10:23 10:30	11:42 11:49	10:25 10:32	11:37 11:44
10:28 10:35	11:47 11:54	10:30 10:37	11:42 11:49
10:33 10:40	11:52 11:59	10:35 10:42	11:47 11:54
10:38 10:45	11:57 12:04	10:40 10:47	11:52 11:59
10:43 10:50	12:02 12:09	10:45 10:52	11:57 12:04
10:48 10:55	12:07 12:14	10:50 10:57	12:02 12:09
10:53 11:00	12:12 12:19	10:55 11:02	12:07 12:14
10:58 11:05	12:17 12:24	11:00 11:07	12:12 12:19
11:03 11:10	12:22 12:29	11:05 11:12	12:17 12:24
11:08 11:15	12:27 12:34	11:10 11:17	12:22 12:29
11:13 11:20	12:32 12:39	11:15 11:22	12:27 12:34
11:18 11:25	12:37 12:44	11:20 11:27	12:32 12:39
11:23 11:30	12:42 12:49	11:25 11:32	12:37 12:44
11:28 11:35	12:47 12:54	11:30 11:37	12:42 12:49
11:33 11:40	12:52 12:59	11:35 11:42	12:47 12:54
11:38 11:45	12:57 13:04	11:40 11:47	12:52 12:59
11:43 11:50	13:02 13:09	11:45 11:52	12:57 13:04
11:48 11:55	13:07 13:14	11:50 11:57	13:02 13:09
11:53 12:00	13:12 13:19	11:55 12:02	13:07 13:14
11:58 12:05	13:17 13:24	12:00 12:07	13:12 13:19
12:03 12:10	13:22 13:29	12:05 12:12	13:17 13:24
12:08 12:15	13:27 13:34	12:10 12:17	13:22 13:29
12:13 12:20	13:32 13:39	12:15 12:22	13:27 13:34
12:18 12:25	13:37 13:44	12:20 12:27	13:32 13:39
12:23 12:30	13:42 13:49	12:25 12:32	13:37 13:44
12:28 12:35	13:47 13:54	12:30 12:37	13:42 13:49
12:33 12:40	13:52 13:59	12:35 12:42	13:47 13:54
12:38 12:45	13:57 14:04	12:40 12:47	13:52 13:59
12:43 12:50	14:02 14:09	12:45 12:52	13:57 14:04
12:48 12:55	14:07 14:14	12:50 12:57	14:02 14:09
12:53 13:00	14:12 14:19	12:55 13:02	14:07 14:14
12:58 13:05	14:17 14:24	13:00 13:07	14:12 14:19
13:03 13:10	14:22 14:29	13:05 13:12	14:17 14:24
13:08 13:15	14:27 14:34	13:10 13:17	14:22 14:29
13:13 13:20	14:32 14:39	13:15 13:22	14:27 14:34
13:18 13:25	14:37 14:44	13:20 13:27	14:32 14:39
13:23 13:30	14:42 14:49	13:25 13:32	14:37 14:44
13:28 13:35	14:47 14:54	13:30 13:37	14:42 14:49
13:33 13:40	14:52 14:59	13:35 13:42	14:47 14:54
13:38 13:45	14:57 15:04	13:40 13:47	14:52 14:59
13:43 13:50	15:02 15:09	13:45 13:52	14:57 15:04
13:48 13:55	15:07 15:14	13:50 13:57	15:02 15:09
13:53 14:00	15:12 15:19	13:55 14:02	15:07 15:14
13:58 14:05	15:17 15:24	14:00 14:07	15:12 15:19
14:03 14:10	15:22 15:29	14:05 14:12	15:17 15:24
14:08 14:15	15:27 15:34	14:10 14:17	15:22 15:29
14:13 14:20	15:32 15:39	14:15 14:22	15:27 15:34
14:18 14:25	15:37 15:44	14:20 14:27	15:32 15:39
14:23 14:30	15:42 15:49	14:25 14:32	15:37 15:44
14:28 14:35	15:47 15:54	14:30 14:37	15:42 15:49
14:33 14:40	15:52 15:59	14:35 14:42	15:47 15:54
14:38 14:45	15:57 16:04	14:40 14:47	15:52 15:59
14:43 14:50	16:02 16:09	14:45 14:52	15:57 16:04
14:48 14:55	16:07 16:14	14:50 14:57	16:02 16:09
14:53 15:00	16:12 16:19	14:55 15:02	16:07 16:14
14:58 15:05	16:17 16:24	15:00 15:07	16:12 16:19
15:03 15:10	16:22 16:29	15:05 15:12	16:17 16:24
15:08 15:15	16:27 16:34	15:10 15:17	16:22 16:29
15:13 15:20	16:32 16:39	15:15 15:22	16:27 16:34
15:18 15:25	16:37 16:44	15:20 15:27	16:32 16:39
15:23 15:30	16:42 16:49	15:25 15:32	16:37 16:44
15:28 15:35	16:47 16:54	15:30 15:37	16:42 16:49
15:33 15:40	16:52 16:59	15:35 15:42	16:47 16:54
15:38 15:45	16:57 17:04	15:40 15:47	16:52 16:59
15:43 15:50	17:02 17:09	15:45 15:52	16:57 17:04
15:48 15:55	17:07 17:14	15:50 15:57	17:02 17:09
15:53 16:00	17:12 17:19	15:55 16:02	17:07 17:14
15:58 16:05	17:17 17:24	16:00 16:07	17:12 17:19
16:03 16:10	17:22 17:29	16:05 16:12	17:17 17:24
16:08 16:15	17:27 17:34	16:10 16:17	17:22 17:29
16:13 16:20	17:32 17:39	16:15 16:22	17:27 17:34
16:18 16:25	17:37 17:44	16:20 16:27	17:32 17:39
16:23 16:30	17:42 17:49	16:25 16:32	17:37 17:44
16:28 16:35	17:47 17:54	16:30 16:37	17:42 17:49
16:33 16:40	17:52 17:59	16:35 16:42	17:47 17:54
16:38 16:45	17:57 18:04	16:40 16:47	17:52 17:59
16:43 16:50	18:02 18:09	16:45 16:52	17:57 18:04
16:48 16:55	18:07 18:14	16:50 16:57	18:02 18:09
16:53 17:00	18:12 18:19	16:55 17:02	18:07 18:14
16:58 17:05	18:17 18:24	17:00 17:07	18:12 18:19
17:03 17:10	18:22 18:29	17:05 17:12	18:17 18:24
17:08 17:15	18:27 18:34	17:10 17:17	18:22 18:29
17:13 17:20	18:32 18:39	17:15 17:22	18:27 18:34
17:18 17:25	18:37 18:44	17:20 17:27	18:32 18:39
17:23 17:30	18:42 18:49	17:25 17:32	18:37 18:44
17:28 17:35	18:47 18:54	17:30 17:37	18:42 18:49
17:33 17:40	18:52 18:59	17:35 17:42	18:47 18:54
17:38 17:45	18:57 19:04	17:40 17:47	18:52 18:59
17:43 17:50	19:02 19:09	17:45 17:52	18:57 19:04
17:48 17:55	19:07 19:14	17:50 17:57	19:02 19:09
17:53 18:00	19:12 19:19	17:55 18:02	19:07 19:14
17:58 18:05	19:17 19:24	18:00 18:07	19:12 19:19
18:03 18:10	19:22 19:29	18:05 18:12	19:17 19:24
18:08 18:15	19:27 19:34	18:10 18:17	19:22 19:29
18:13 18:20	19:32 19:39	18:15 18:22	19:27 19:34
18:18 18:25	19:37 19:44	18:20 18:27	19:32 19:39
18:23 18:30	19:42 19:49	18:25 18:32	19:37 19:44
18:28 18:35	19:47 19:54	18:30 18:37	19:42 19:49
18:33 18:40	19:52 19:59	18:35 18:42	19:47 19:54
18:38 18:45	19:57 20:04	18:40 18:47	19:52 19:59
18:43 18:50	20:02 20:09	18:45 18:52	19:57 20:04
18:48 18:55	20:07 20:14	18:50 18:57	20:02 20:09
18:53 19:00	20:12 20:19	18:55 19:02	20:07 20:14
18:58 19:05	20:17 20:24	19:00 19:07	20:12 20:19
19:03 19:10	20:22 20:29	19:05 19:12	20:17 20:24
19:08 19:15	20:27 20:34	19:10 19:17	20:22 20:29
19:13 19:20	20:32 20:39	19:15 19:22	20:27 20:34
19:18 19:25	20:37 20:44	19:20 19:27	20:32 20:39
19:23 19:30	20:42 20:49	19:25 19:32	20:37 20:44
19:28 19:35	20:47 20:54	19:30 19:37	20:42 20:49
19:33 19:40	20:52 20:59	19:35 19:42	20:47 20:54
19:38 19:45	20:57 21:04	19:40 19:47	20:52 20:59
19:43 19:50	21:02 21:09	19:45 19:52	20:57 21:04
19:48 19:55	21:07 21:14	19:50 19:57	21:02 21:09
19:53 20:00	21:12 21:19	19:55 20:02	21:07 21:14
19:58 20:05	21:17 21:24	20:00 20:07	21:12 21:19
20:03 20:10	21:22 21:29	20:05 20:12	21:17 21:24
20:08 20:15	21:27 21:34	20:10 20:17	21:22 21:29
20:13 20:20	21:32 21:39	20:15 20:22	21:27 21:34
20:18 20:25	21:37 21:44	20:20 20:27	21:32 21:39
20:23 20:30	21:42 21:49	20:25 20:32	21:37 21:44
20:28 20:35	21:47 21:54	20:30 20:37	21:42 21:49
20:33 20:40	21:52 21:59	20:35 20:42	21:47 21:54
20:38 20:45	21:57 22:04	20:40 20:47	21:52 21:59
20:43 20:50	22:02 22:09	20:45 20:52	21:57 22:04
20:48 20:55	22:07 22:14	20:50 20:57	22:02 22:09
20:53 21:00	22:12 22:19	20:55 21:02	22:07 22:14
20:58 21:05	22:17 22:24	21:00 21:07	22:12 22:19
21:03 21:10	22:22 22:29	21:05 21:12	22:17 22:24
21:08 21:15	22:27 22:34	21:10 21:17	22:22 22:29
21:13 21:20	22:32 22:39	21:15 21:22	22:27 22:34
21:18 21:25	22:37 22:44	21:20 21:27	22:32 22:39
21:23 21:30	22:42 22:49	21:25 21:32	22:37 22:44
21:28 21:35	22:47 22:54	21:30 21:37	